STANDARD OIL MEN QUIT MUTUAL LIFE

They Believe Their Association is Damaging to the Company

Mr. Rogers However Declares That the Oil Corporation Has Never Made a Cent Out of Its Relations to the Mutual.

New York, July 17.—The committee of trustees of the Mutual Life insurance company appointed to nominate a board of trustees to be elected at the annual meeting of the company in December, made a final report today, and in doing so disclosed the fact that Henry H. Rogers and William Rockefeller had withdrawn from further connection with that body. In seeking from President Peabody the cause of this action on the part of Standard Oil interests, Mr. Peabody gave out a personal letter from Mr. Rogers, upon which he said he would make no comment.

In this letter Mr. Rogers said: "When trouble came upon the company I felt it my duty as a trustee to stand by and do anything I could of service to my fellow members and policy holders. I believe I have rendered some assistance. "The statement has been frequently made that I caused your election to the presidency of the company. No one knows better than you how false this is. You know that I had but the slightest acquaintance with you before your election; that I never exchanged a word with you respecting your candidacy, nor was I in any sense the inspiring cause of your selection. "Apparently the people who are most active in their hostility to the present administration are using the fact of my connection with the Standard Oil company as a ground for criticism. While this is a sufficient reason for my refusal to be a candidate for trustee, since no one has a right to put such large interests in jeopardy, for the sake of achieving a personal vindication, it is yet true that, aside from the relations of Mr. Rockefeller and myself as policyholders and trustees, neither the Standard Oil company nor anyone occupying an official position in that corporation has ever in the slightest degree had any business or any other relations with the Mutual Life insurance company, and in the case of Mr. Rockefeller, who is now absent, his policy matured some months ago and is no longer a policyholder. He wishes to be relieved from any further service as trustee.

"If anyone imagines that the Standard Oil company or any of its officers have profited out of any relation to the Mutual Life insurance company, let anyone occupying an official position in that corporation has ever in the slightest degree had any business or any other relations with the Mutual Life insurance company, and in the case of Mr. Rockefeller, who is now absent, his policy matured some months ago and is no longer a policyholder. He wishes to be relieved from any further service as trustee.

HOW THEY DO IN YAVAPAI

One of the Famous Business Men's Dinners

Promotion of the Prosperity of Prescott--Sentiment Against Joint Statehood.

A characteristic meeting of the Yavapai club at Prescott was held on Monday night. It was the monthly "Business Men's Dinner" at which the business men congregate to consider means for the upbuilding of the town and county. This was an unusually enthusiastic meeting. Covers were laid for almost ninety. The principal business before the meeting was the reception of the report of a committee on "publicity" appointed the night before. The report was submitted at length by Chairman A. W. Bork, detailing the work of the committee. It was shown that $5000 had been subscribed for the advertising of the community for a year. It outlined the views of the committee which asked further suggestions from the club.

The spirit of the club, of the men who "do things" is breathed through the following concluding words of the report: "Finally I believe that the foremost principle for the success of an advertising campaign lies with the members of this community themselves, and that is a spirit of optimism, regarding the future prosperity of this section. We must believe in it, talk it, and keep eternally at it. It will bring results. Let each one do something himself if it is only the sending of a one-cent postal to some friend elsewhere to remind him that there is such a place as Prescott, Ariz., on the map. Let each one do his share. Don't imagine that because someone else is doing something, that it is not incumbent upon you to do your part. Let each member of this community constitute himself a committee of one to do what he can to further the general interests. Let us all adopt a 'boost, don't knock' motto."

HOW NATIONAL BANKS MAY BE DEPOSITORIES

May Hold One Third the Proceeds of Purchases of Panama Bonds.

Washington, July 17.—The secretary of the treasury authorizes the following statement: "A large number of banks have asked to be designated as depositories of public moneys. To these the secretary has made the universal offer to leave with the banks one-third of the proceeds of any Panama bonds it may buy under a bid direct from the government, taking the purchases of bonds as security therefor. These offers have been made in the main to small banks. He now makes the offer general, but limits the amount of such deposit to any one bank to $5,000,000.

The secretary calls attention to the circular invitation for bids wherein the government reserves the right to permit bidders offering the highest prices to increase the amount of their purchases. This reservation, the secretary says, was made to avoid the possibility of a combination between bidders, and will not be exercised in the case of any one who has bid above 103 1/2%.

"The president says he feels a 'peculiar interest in Arizona.' "No sane man will doubt that statement after reviewing the position on the statehood question. It is not this 'peculiar interest' that has made the president so popular throughout the country. No, it is a straightforward, generous, appreciative interest in the country as a whole, that the people have been willing to accord him and it is this that has won their confidence and respect, not the 'peculiar interest' that accepts Beveridge's false statements, and with one grand flourish attempts to place Arizona in bondage forever.

"I am pleased to notice that both of the great parties here have agreed to eliminate politics during the coming election, so far as the statehood question is concerned, and I want to say here and now that I think it is too bad that some republican papers have seen fit to abuse Mark Smith in the way they have in the face of the good work that I know he did during the last session of congress.

It is simply impossible under the conditions prevailing for Delegate Smith to secure appropriations for this territory without his being willing to sacrifice Arizona. What he did accomplish for the territory, however, with the able support of many of our best citizens, was a three times more than the measly little appropriation that Delegate Andrews succeeded in getting by selling out his territory to the jointists.

THE PURE FOOD LAW RECEIVING ATTENTION

A Meeting of Manufacturers to Get Ready for Its Application.

Chicago, July 17.—At a meeting of the manufacturers of different articles of food, held here today, an attempt to form a National Food Manufacturers' association, proved futile. The meeting, which was announced as an "informal gathering," also failed to approve the appointment of a committee to draw up a form of guaranty to be used by all food manufacturers as designed by the new pure food law.

FOUND BOX OF GOLD.

Seattle, July 17.—A special to the Times from Fort Gibbons says: A box of gold, stolen from the steamer Ida May, has been found in the woods in the outskirts of the town by the Northern Commercial company's agent, W. C. Ross. It was found to be intact and nothing missing. Superintendent Charles of the express company had offered $500 reward for the recovery of the gold. Several men are under suspicion.

THAW TRIAL PREMATURE

Defense Asks for an Interruption

A Writ of Prohibition Against the One-Sided Inquisition Now in Progress.

New York, July 17.—The defense in the case of Harry K. Thaw, accused of the murder of Stanford White, made an unusual and unexpected movement today when a writ of prohibition was secured from Justice Blanchard of the supreme court, restraining the district attorney and the July grand jury from taking further evidence under oath against the prisoner. The application for the writ was made by John Gleason of counsel for Thaw and order to show cause why it should not be continued was made returnable tomorrow.

Counsel for Thaw allege that through an illegal use of grand jury subpoenas the district attorney is summoning all possible witnesses in the case to his office, putting them under oath and taking depositions which may be detrimental to the prisoner's interest. It is further alleged that as Thaw is already under indictment and no new indictment for the murder of White is contemplated, the district attorney has no right to use the grand jury as a cloak for his own inquisition. Almost every person who can appear as a witness in the case, forty-seven of them, have been sworn by the district attorney, it is asserted, and depositions have been made for use at the trial. Through all this counsel for the defense was not allowed to be present.

HE WILL NEVER BE TRIED.

The World Tomorrow will say: "Harry Thaw will never be placed on trial for the murder of Stanford White. Application will be made for the appointment of a commission to inquire into his sanity. There is no doubt that he will be declared insane and sent to the hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan."

HARTJE CASE THE DEFENSE

How the Wife's Stationery Was Distributed

The Manner in Which Two Envelopes Came Into the Possession of Madine.

Pittsburg, July 17.—Not the least important developments in the Hartje divorce case was the outline of the defense disclosed by the testimony of Miss Ida Scott, the 16-year-old sister of Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who was put on the stand today a few minutes before the adjournment of the case until tomorrow morning. From this testimony it was gathered for the first time that the plan for accounting for the disputed love letters to be followed by Mrs. Hartje's attorneys, is that she had written two of these envelopes addressed to "Tom" Madine, the coachman correspondent at the request of Annie Lutz, one of the maids, and that she had given Annie sheets of paper.

Thus the presence of a single envelope among all love letters presented by counsel for the libellant would be explained. The charge of forgery is made by counsel for the respondent, accounting for the presence in the disputed letters, of paper used by the Scott girl in the manner indicated by Ida's testimony that she gave it to her maid. Her sister, Helen, also often gave sheets of paper to the servants, she testified.

NO PEACE PERMANENT

While Cabrera Remains in Power

He Out of the Way There Would Be No Revolution in Guatemala.

Mexico City, July 17.—A number of minor chiefs of the Guatemala revolutionary army, who made an invasion of the northern portion of that republic, have arrived here and say that all movements of the revolutionists in Guatemala are brought to a temporary standstill awaiting the result of the negotiations for peace between Salvador and Guatemala, to be held on the American cruiser Maribhead, but the men most concerned in the revolution do not look for a permanent peace between Salvador and Guatemala, for several reasons, one being that the insurrectionary party in Guatemala, with sympathizers by thousands all over Central America, will not, it is believed, consider as final any terms which may prolong the power of President Cabrera.
