Salt River Valley News

Wilson, June 10.—Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Johnson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osmundson at supper last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Connelley have moved to town.

Mr. Tootaker is trying to dispose of his melon and corn crop as he has made arrangements to take Mr. Benjamin's place on Mr. Chambers' ranch for the next season.

Last Sunday afternoon Mr. Barry and family, Mr. Woodring, and family gathered at the Thompson home for a social good time which was thoroughly enjoyed. In the course of the afternoon Mrs. Thompson looked after the "needs" of the inner man by serving ice cream and cake.

Miss Nettie McKay was a week-end visitor at the Wilcox home.

A house party at the home of G. B. Wilcox composed of Miss George's Normal friends is one of the most pleasant social features of the week. The young ladies came over on the motor car from Tempe Friday morning and will remain several days. They are Misses Nettie McKay, Dorothy Tamborina, Mary Tamborina, Majorb Level, Natalie Larson, Lulu Keating, and Laura McGill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Barry and Miss Mary Barry attended the commencement exercises at the Normal Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leak, Sr., spent Friday night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrer.

Mrs. Wagner was shopping in town Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mary Cagle returned Sunday from a visit in Mesa and is now spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. Schreck spent Wednesday with Mrs. Schreck's sister, Mrs. Dalton, of the Osborn district.

Mrs. Tomes of Phoenix was a guest at the Wilcox home last Sunday.

Charles Shue was Mr. Edson's guest at supper Wednesday evening.

The home of Mrs. F. R. Tower was the meeting place for the Ladies Home Life circle last Thursday afternoon. The program consisted of a recitation by little Philip Woodring, an essay, "Twilight," Mrs. Edson, reading, "The Mission Box that Scandalized the Village," Mrs. C. C. Black; recitation, "The Last Hymn," Mrs. Fox; recitation, "Seeing Things At Night," Mrs. Frazer.

A number of questions occupied some time and were the source of vigorous discussion. Mrs. Townsend of Phoenix was a circle visitor and by special invitation from Mrs. Tower several of the young girls of the neighborhood were present. Delightful and appetizing refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mundall.

Mr. and Mrs. McKean were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham.

Mrs. M. J. Pettid is staying a few days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Shreck.

Mr. Leak, Sr., is employed by the Salt River Valley Melon Growers and Shippers' association as business manager for the season and Mr. Lockman is manager for the Phoenix Watermelon Growers and Shippers' association. Shipping will begin in earnest next week.

G. B. Wilcox left Saturday evening for the east where he will attend the reunion of the Rough Riders.

CREIGHTON.

Creighton, June 11.—Robert B. Black was out to his ranch Sunday. Mr. Black expects to leave again in about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Libbey were calling on Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Chambers Tuesday.

Egley Brothers finished drilling a well for Mr. Elerick the first of the week.

Mrs. Dan Bivin and daughters were calling on relatives in this neighborhood Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mosser were in Tempe Sunday calling on friends and on their way home called on Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Merrill.

Mrs. H. C. Woodbridge was in town Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Libbey were visiting with the Vincents at Arbor lodge Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schreck, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Pettid and family spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Dalton.

Mrs. R. B. Merrill spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. N. V. Doplac.

W. L. Chambers is having his well built deeper. Egley brothers are doing the drilling.

Those who graduated from this neighborhood were Miss Inez Esther Thrift and Verne Gerald La Tourrette from the Phoenix Union high school; Miss Norma Creighton from the Tempe Normal.

Mrs. Jeff Villiborghie and children were in town Friday.

The lecture given by the Highland Union Sunday school Tuesday evening for the benefit of the piano fund was well attended. A short musical program was rendered as follows: Piano selection, Miss Helen Chipperfield; mandolin selection, John La Tourrette; vocal solo, Miss Fay Etter; piano duet, Miss Ruth Creighton and Miss Helen Chipperfield. C. M. Etter gave a splendid talk on the Sunday school work, and the literary society. The Sunday school has closed until the hot weather is over when every one is cordially invited to attend.

Kleck Brothers are doing Will Creightons hay this week.

W. N. Price was in town Friday on business.

Butts Brothers were baling hay for W. L. Chambers the first of the week.

Miss Hazel Elerick was calling at the W. Chambers home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Libbey attended the auction south of town Tuesday.

H. W. Pierson is binding Will Creighton's grain this week.

Mrs. J. T. Etter was shopping in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Price gave a six o'clock dinner Friday, the occasion being their son, Stanley's twenty-second birthday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Vincent and Miss Louise Vincent.

Mrs. George Vincent called on Miss N. V. Doplac and Mrs. H. W. Chambers Saturday.

CARTWRIGHT.

Cartwright, June 11.—The ice cream supper scheduled to be given Friday evening at Cartwright has been postponed until June 17. Just at present the farmers are all too busy to attend any sort of social function. For that reason the league thought it wise to wait a week.

Miss Mary Wiley spent Friday night of last week in Phoenix the guest of Miss Pearl Pike, and attended the commencement exercises at the high school. Miss Pike was one of the graduates.

Miss Hattie Cagle came out from Phoenix Sunday and spent the day with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Cagle.

The typhoid patients are all improving. Margerite Brooks still has a little fever and is very weak but is gradually getting better. Harry Mann is up and is rapidly gaining what flesh he lost during his illness. Mrs. Elmer Cartwright is better and Harold Mundersbach, the latest case, although the fever has not run its course, is doing as well as a typhoid patient is expected to do. It is to be hoped that there will be no more cases in Cartwright.

Jack Brooks finished cutting his grain this week and sold his binder to Mr. Hawkins.

Miss Nena Shawver who has been here since the first of May visiting her sister, Mrs. Trowbridge, returned last week to her home in San Dimas, California.

Miss Mary Doyle is reported ill. She was unable to take her part in the children's day program Sunday, her place being filled by Miss Alice Mosier.

Page Lively and Ackie Gaylord left Sunday night for Roosevelt where they saw the wonders of the big dam. Mr. Lively became ill on the return trip and boarded the train for Phoenix at Mesa. Mr. Gaylord came home by way of Granite Reef.

Next Wednesday is the 15th. Let all the members of the Dairymen's association remember that on Tuesday afternoon is the regular time of meeting at Stanley Howard's. Lew Graham has been on the butter board this month with J. A. Riggins, the permanent member. They have succeeded in doing some effective work thus far. The wholesale price for this week was put at 27 cents which means 25 cents for the dairymen. Twenty-five cents is considered good as the Elgin market runs firm at 27 cents for the week beginning with June 8.

Ned Cagle arrived home last Thursday and this time he brought his wife with him. They are at the parsonage where they will remain for a time. Mr. and Mrs. Cagle drove to Phoenix Friday of this week to meet Mrs. Cagle's father, Mr. Ford who has agreed to give them no further trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Root spent the evening Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau.

Among those who attended high school commencement exercises Friday evening from Cartwright were Mrs. Rousseau, Willie Rousseau, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Riggins, Mrs. Embuff, Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Cagle, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Doyle, Miss Margaret Howard and Morley Howard.

Miss Fannie Brooks was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Bruce Brooks at Fowler from Monday until Wednesday.

Mrs. Charlie Tacket and children of Miami are the guests of her father, J. A. Vinson, since Saturday. Mr. Tacket is working in the mines at Miami. Mrs. Tacket has rented her house until September 1 and has come to spend sometime in the valley.

Mrs. Rogers was the guest of Mrs. Rousseau Thursday afternoon.

Miss Katherine Corseil who has been visiting in Phoenix is again at Mrs. Riggins' where she will spend the summer.

Miss Fannie Breedlove one of our Cartwright girls was among the graduates of the Normal school at Tempe Thursday evening. Miss Breedlove was one of the four-year pupils, having gone to the Normal school after finishing the eighth grade in Phoenix. Among those from Cartwright who attended commencement exercises at Tempe were Mr. and Mrs. Vinson, Mr. English, Miss Nettie Cagle, Alfred and Stokely Vinson. Mrs. Vinson went over Wednesday and remained a few days the guest of her daughter, Miss Breedlove.

The Cartwright boys finished up their spring rodeo and came in last week with 200 head of cattle. They made two drives this spring, the first time bringing down 234 head of cattle. This has been a very successful year for the C. C. range. Mr. Cartwright
