

TRIED SEVEN DOCTORS

My Life Saved by Pe-ru-na.

Mr. S. S. Johnson, Greenville, Ill., writes: "I was for five years troubled with catarrh. Two years ago I had one foot in the grave. I had tried seven doctors and all went to a catarrh specialist in St. Louis, and took several kinds of medicine a day. I could not walk more than a hundred yards without resting."

Mr. S. S. Johnson.

"My friends told me to take Peruna and I did so. I now feel that Peruna has saved my life. It is the best medicine on earth, and I would not be without it."

Smile Sold Tickets.

A young woman who occupies a ticket box in front of a 10-cent theatre on Broadway every afternoon is a very pretty girl. In addition to her comeliness, she is pleasant to everybody who approaches the window. Recently a ruralist stepped up to the window and, grinning, bought a ticket. She thanked him and he slowly left. There was a line in front of the ticket box. Five minutes later the girl saw the same fellow standing before her.

"Another ticket, please," he said, wearing the grin. She sold it to him, and he stepped aside. It wasn't ten minutes till he had worked his way up in the line again. "Say," the girl said, recognizing him, "I've sold you two tickets. What are you going to do with them all?" "I dunno," he replied foolishly, "but it's with the money to come up here and get a smile from you."

He didn't appear any more, and, to tell the truth, the girl was slightly disappointed.

NOT SO BAD.

"I once got a man to take out a $25,000 life policy, and he met with a fatal accident within a week." "You must have washed your persimmons had been less successful." "Oh, I don't know. You see, I married the widow."—London Opinion.

HE HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH WARRINER SHORTAGE

Jury Finds Verdict of Not Guilty for Cooke.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 17.—"Not guilty" was the verdict returned here today by the jury trying the case of Edgar S. Cooke, who is charged with having embezzled $24,000 from the Big Four railroad. It required a few minutes less than two hours for the twelve arbiters to reach a decision. The trial was the last of three in connection with the $642,000 shortage of Charles L. Warriner of Cincinnati, treasurer of the road, who is now serving a six-year sentence in the Ohio penitentiary. The second trial was that of Mrs. Jeannette Stewart Ford, the "woman in the case," and in this trial the jury disagreed. Mrs. Ford was charged with blackmail.

SUBSTITUTE FOR OPIUM.

A Deadly Indian Weed That is Cheap and Can Easily be Smuggled.

The Indian weed is being largely imported into Indo-China at the present moment, says our informant, who holds a high position in the military world. He has given us a sprig or two of the hemp plant, which obviously lends itself to the uses of smugglers. With first hand knowledge of his subject he declared that this weed, more pernicious than opium or alcohol, will in the near future take the place of opium in the far east.

It is of small bulk, this deadly weed, is cheap in comparison with its elder brother, opium, and can be smuggled easily. The opium convention does not as far as we know, take account of the danger which threatens from the importation of this drug. The French authorities in Indo-China absolutely prohibit the hemp plant, but nevertheless, it is being taken into the country in ever increasing quantities. It can be used as a drink, can be smoked or chewed, and the physical and mental effects are deadly.

We have not been able to ascertain as yet whether this noxious drug has made its appearance in Hongkong, but we take this opportunity of calling the attention of the authorities to the danger of it doing so. It is a danger that should exercise the thoughts of the legislative council.

This noxious weed is smoked much by the lowest class of natives in South Africa, where it is known under the name of dabgha, and causes many crimes, the Bushmen and Hottentots running amuck when saturated with its hellish effects.

WHERE POWER IS ABSOLUTE.

King George would be an extraordinary power if his political leadership were as unquestionable as the social authority of Queen Mary.—Washington Star.

ANAEMIA AND WEAKNESS

Constantly Being Cured by Vinol. An Interesting Case Reported.

Greensboro, N. C.—"I would not take a thousand dollars for the good Vinol has done me."

"I was told that cod liver oil was the medicine I needed for poor blood and my weakened condition. I could not take the greasy mixture, but when my druggist explained to me that Vinol contained all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, without the grease, and tonic iron added, I made up my mind that Vinol was the medicine for me."

"I tried it, and today am strong and well—Mrs. J. T. Snider." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol is a specific for impure, impoverished blood and it is the greatest tonic we know of.

We sell Vinol always with the understanding that if the purchaser is not satisfied with the result it gives we will cheerfully refund his money. That seems fair. A. L. Boehmer, Center and Wash. Sts. Phoenix, Ariz.

MEXICO SATISFIED WITH CHAMIZAL VERDICT

Decision Gives It Three-fourths of Territory in Dispute.

Mexico City, June 17.—Mexico is pleased with the decision rendered by the international arbitration court sitting at El Paso in the so-called Chamizal boundary case, because, according to a telegram received here today from Alberto Carrero, secretary of Senator Belran y Puga, Mexico's representative, this country is awarded practically four-fifths of the tract in dispute.

Senator Carrero's telegram reads: "The committee's decision is undoubtedly favorable to Mexico, since we ought to have claimed since 1867 the territory which we lost as a consequence of the floods in 1864."

"A majority of the commission decided that the treaties of 1848 and 1853 do not lay down an invariable boundary line, and therefore it is necessary to replace the line as it ran when the first loss of Mexican territory took place owing to the violent erosion of the Mexican bank of the Rio Grande."

She Was Particular, All Right.

Mrs. William Sulzer, wife of the congressman, was telling recently of an effort she made to engage a servant. Mrs. Sulzer said she went to an agency for a West Indian neerness. The same day a young woman of ebony hue called. She was just simply all dolled up. She even wore long white gloves.

"Mrs. Sulzer," said the girl, "does you entertain much?" "A little," replied the congressman's wife, "but we have a Jap who helps out on such occasions."

"Well, is the family large?" "No."

"I presume you has a nice room for a lady servant?"

"Yes."

The girl asked half a dozen other questions along the same line. "Well," she said finally, "I'll take the job. What would you like to have me do first?"

"First I want you to go out and hunt another job. After that I don't care what you do."—New York Telegraph.

An Englishman and an Irishman were having a discussion on the subject of Shakespeare. "I defy you," said the Englishman, "to find a single Irish character in the whole of his work."

"Well, I can give you two, at all events," replied the Hibernian, "Miss O'Phelia and Cory O'Lanus."

$3.50 Recipe Free For Weak Kidneys

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of the urine, the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids, or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath, sleeplessness, and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $2.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K496, Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.
