SOCIETY EDITOR

While town has become depopulated within the last few weeks many fashionable folk remain and anticipate remaining throughout the summer. It is no longer necessary to seek change and relaxation away from home. There are innumerable attractive amusements in Phoenix and in chronicling the events of the smart set dinners, picnic suppers and swimming parties at Riverside park occur with a frequency that leaves no doubt as to the popularity of the nearby pleasure grounds. Altogether delightful from every viewpoint, it is not surprising that it is a favorite rendezvous. In addition to its artistic beauty, the park's perfect management has received society's stamp of approval. Everyone is certain of enjoyment. Swimming, dancing and motion pictures, the original features are now but a few of the many offerings at this interesting resort. Auction that had been regrettably given up for the year, has been revived, and down by the river the card clubs are meeting quite as often as when the season was in full swing. To accommodate the players a card room is shortly to be erected, and afternoons and evenings will find society occupied with this fascinating game. Usually it will precede or follow a picnic supper. A jolly one of Friday evening had as its members Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Noll, Mrs. A. L. Crandall, Mrs. Assa B. Kennan, Miss Ruth Ainsworth, Miss Selma Goldberg, Miss Rena Dorris, Miss Kate Wilson, Miss Katherine Kennan, Miss Harriet Hurley, Miss Jean Ripley, Miss Mabel Hocker, Miss Marion Dorris, Lester Byron, Arthur Haldin, Dan Patch, Frank Lang, Irving de R. Miller, William Placas, Leon Tolleson, John Rinker Kibbey, M. H. McClellan, Ernest Bennett and Harry Hurley.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Gertrude Maud Shapley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Shapley, to Hon. John Waddy Buchanan, which will take place Wednesday evening, June 24, at the First Presbyterian church in Houston, Texas. They will make their home in Tucson.

P. S. This is HIGHLAND LINEN, isn't it lovely? I'm going to give a party next week just to use it. Sincerely, HELEN.

SHE DID, AND EVERY GUEST complimented her on her choice. The shapes and shades of this paper meet every social requirement. Yet its cost is low, in addition to Highland Linen we carry a full line of writing requisites.

work one of true charity, aside from its educational value.

Another famous woman who has been before the public for a number of years is Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. She is considered by many notorious, rather than noted, but comparatively few have taken the time to study the true conditions which have caused militancy among the suffragettes.

Mrs. Pankhurst is at present the leader of the militant movement in England. She was driven to this position by laws which an American woman would consider the most degrading oppression.

The women of England tried in every legal way to get fair representation. Their delegates were hissed, mobbed and treated with violence. The marriage law gives the mother no right to her child. Children are considered as having one parent, which is the father. The law of inheritance always excludes her in favor of a male relative.

Josephine Daskam Bacon has humorously given us an example of the method unwisely applied in a clever short story called "The Flowering of Felicia," published in the March Home Journal.
