TEMPE

REMARKABLE ESCAPE; AUTO TURNS TURTLE

That John Ahlquist manager of the Tempe garage here, and Frank Linstron, a mechanic employed in the shop, were not seriously injured when their machine, driven at a rate of speed close to forty miles an hour, turned turtle on the Tempe highway three miles north of here late Friday night, is regarded as nothing short of a miracle.

With Ahlquist at the wheel, the two left Phoenix homeward bound about eleven o'clock Friday night in the familiar old "Redstreak," the same car that Ahlquist just covered about a thousand miles with on his tour through northern Arizona.

The machine suffered a broken wheel, a badly demolished steering wheel and one or two minor mishaps. It was towed into the shop during the wee small hours yesterday morning with a team of horses.

PLAN BIG HOSPITAL ON SOUTHSIDE SITE

Mesa Physicians Will Develop Hospital to Fullest Possibilities

A professional partnership has been effected whereby Dr. R. F. Palmer, of the Southside hospital, has associated with him Dr. J. M. Greer, who came here from St. Louis a few weeks ago. It is the purpose of the doctors to develop the hospital into one of the most efficient and up-to-date institutions for the treatment of medical and surgical cases in the southwest.

Dr. Greer is a graduate of Washington University Medical school, of St. Louis. He was associated with Drs. Bartlett and Blair in surgical practice at St. Anthony's hospital in St. Louis and was a resident physician at St. Mark's in Salt Lake City, later becoming surgeon for the hospitals of the Electric Bond and Share company.

CELEBRATE PIONEER DAY

The celebration of Pioneer Day was fittingly observed Friday night at the tabernacle of the Latter Day Saints in Mesa, with a most elaborate program of music, which was richly enjoyed, and an address by Hon. Reese M. Ling, of Phoenix.

The musical program under the direction of Director Lee, of the State, was rendered by the State choir and was of an exceptionally high order. There were several anthems, every one of which was rendered with a perfection that demonstrated the remarkable training of this choir.

THOMPSON CASE POSTPONED

The preliminary hearing of the case of W. C. Thompson which was set for Monday, has been postponed to some date to be set later. The reason for the continuance was due to the inability of the district attorney to be here at that time.

AL COMER DISCHARGED

The case against Al Comer, who was charged with selling intoxicating liquors, etc., was heard yesterday and resulted in the defendant being discharged, the evidence being insufficient to warrant the finding of guilt.

ROSS PAYS FINE

Everett Ross, who appealed when fined $29 by Justice Irwin Thursday for fighting on the streets of Mesa some two weeks ago, decided to withdraw his appeal and pay the fine. The case was thereupon forever dismissed by Judge Irwin yesterday.

A QUESTION OF CLIMATE

Miss Josie M. Trinkle, formerly of Nebraska, writes to the commercial club, asking that booklets descriptive of Mesa and vicinity be mailed certain Genevans who are interested in leaving this part of the Salt River valley.

Miss Trinkle says that "The wheat crop was a heavy one here and the corn crop will be as abundant if rain comes soon. Some of the farmers are getting rather dubious about the corn for rain is a scarce article in these parts again. I suppose Mesa is as noted for big crops and hot weather as ever! But I believe Nebraska comes up to Arizona on the latter respect! It was 115 degrees here one day last week."

FOUND THE EVIDENCE

George Holland this morning found a bottle, carefully wrapped, deposited in the back room of his establishment. Mr. Holland examined the label and found that it said "beer" in small type, in one place. Believing that he had found evidence of a crime against the local option law, he hastened to the nearest official and displayed the find. However, when it was pointed out that the principal label read "Arizona Fizz" and "carries less than 2 per cent alcohol," Mr. Holland lost all interest in the subject and relegated the bottle and contents to the scrap heap.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF PHOENIX PUBLIC MARKET COMPANY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, Fred H. Sears and James Westervelt, citizens and residents of Maricopa County, in the State of Arizona, desiring to form a corporation under the laws of said state, for the purposes and under the conditions hereinafter set forth, do adopt, ordain and publish these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the proposed corporation is and shall be PHOENIX PUBLIC MARKET COMPANY and its principal place of business shall be in the City of Phoenix, County of Maricopa, and State of Arizona.

ARTICLE II

The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted is as follows:

(a) To purchase, or otherwise acquire, lease, hold, occupy and operate premises suitable for use as a public market and to sublet the same or any part thereof to producers, retailers or other sub-tenants from time to time and upon such terms as shall seem advisable for use for market purposes or for any other lawful business.

(b) To buy, or otherwise acquire, to manufacture, market, prepare for market, sell, deal in and deal with, import and export food and food products of every class and description, fresh, canned or preserved or otherwise, and all food and other preparations;

To engage in any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem advantageous or useful to the community, and to manufacture, market or prepare for market any article or thing which the company may use in connection with its business;

To purchase all kinds of fruit, vegetables and grains and manufacture and sell extracts and food products from the same, or any article of commerce of allied nature, or pertaining to the business of preserving, canning and preparing for the market fruit, vegetables and grain products;

In connection with the foregoing, to manufacture, market and prepare for market, buy, sell, deal in and deal with, import and export tin, and any products of tin, glassware, and any article of glassware, or any other article, receptacle, package or thing which may be useful in connection with the manufacture or marketing, vending or shipping of the products of the company, or like products;

(c) To buy, sell, import, export and generally deal in fruits and fruit products. To buy, sell, lease, or otherwise acquire, mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of real estate to any amount except as limited by law;

To engage in the cultivation, planting and production of fruits and agricultural products. To prepare and manufacture fruit and vegetable products and kindred goods of every class and description.

(d) To purchase, sell as owners, consignees, mortgagees, pledge and generally to deal in, poultry, horses, cows, swine, sheep and all other kinds and species of live stock, wheat, rye, barley, oats, corn, milk, butter, eggs, vegetables and fruit of every name and nature, and all other products of the farm and dairy, all articles, goods and merchandise produced, prepared or manufactured from any of the above named products and live stock; to acquire by purchase or otherwise, lease, sell, build and equip with furnishings, apparatus and machinery, and operate (for the handling, reception, storage on commission, or as owners, of all agricultural or other products and merchandise, and all kinds and species of livestock above referred to) warehouses for general use or for cold storage with power to issue proper receipts and certificates, business blocks, shops, factories, stockyards, grain elevators and appliances incidental to the operation of any of the same, and also to acquire by lease, purchase or otherwise, and to operate any and all means and methods of transportation by vehicles or by vessels, but not to operate a railroad.

(e) To acquire to the same extent as natural persons and without limit as to amount, by purchase, lease, exchange, hire or otherwise, lands, improved or unimproved, tenements, hereditaments, chattels, real or personal, or any interest therein; to erect and construct houses, buildings, sewers, drains or works of every description on any land of the company or upon other lands; to rebuild, enlarge, alter or improve existing houses, buildings or works thereon; to sub-divide, improve and develop lands for purposes of sale or otherwise; and to do and perform all things needful and lawful for the development and improvement of the same for any lawful purpose, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the company and of other parties; to own, hold and maintain any property acquired by the company; to sell, convey, lease, release, let, mortgage, mortgage or otherwise encumber or dispose of the lands, houses, buildings, hereditaments, appurtenances, leases, chattels and other property of the company; to equip, furnish, conduct, operate, manage, lease and maintain any kind of building for dwelling, amusement, recreation, charitable, religious or business purposes; to undertake or direct the management and sale or disposition of the property of the company, real and personal; to sell, assign, release, hold or satisfy mortgages which may become the property of the company; to loan on bond or mortgage or otherwise, or to advance money to, and to enter into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with contractors, laborers, skilled or otherwise, builders, property owners and others; to carry on in all their respective branches the business of builders or contractors; to make, enter into, perform, carry out or cancel contracts for constructing, demolishing, altering, decorating, equipping, fitting up and improving buildings of every description; to do a general real estate business on commission or otherwise, and to transact all such business as may be incidental thereto, or arise therefrom, the same as an individual or natural person.

(f) To lend money for itself or as agent, on notes or bonds secured by mortgages on real estate or upon personal property, or to lend money and make advances from time to time on bonds secured by mortgages for future advances on real estate or upon personal property. (But not to do any business under Chapter VIII of Title 3 of the Civil Code, R. S. Arizona, 1913.)

(g) To purchase, acquire, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, in the ordinary course of business (but not to sell or offer for sale under Chapter IX of Title 9 of the Civil Code, R. S. Ariz., 1913), shares of the capital stock of any other corporation or corporations created under the laws of this state, or of any other state or country, and to exercise while the owner of such stock all the rights, powers and privilege, including the right to vote thereon, which natural persons, being the owners of such stock, might, could or would exercise, and to issue in exchange therefor its own stock, bonds and other obligations.

(h) To acquire, complete or dispose of contracts or agreements relating to or connected with the acquiring, buying, selling, leasing, letting, disposing of, or mortgaging real estate or buildings and improvements in connection therewith; to negotiate and make, either as principal or broker or agent, contracts or other agreements relating to the making, taking or placing of building and other loans in connection with real estate, and with improvements thereon or to be placed thereon.

(i) To do and transact all acts, business and things incident to, or relating to, or convenient in, the above things, as principals, agents or contractors, and by or through agents, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

(j) To do and perform any or all of the aforesaid acts and things and transact any or all of the aforesaid businesses, objects, or purposes in any part of the world where the same may be lawfully transacted as fully and freely, and with like effect as the same may or might be done or transacted by a natural person.

ARTICLE III

The amount of the capital stock authorized is four hundred thousand ($400,000) Dollars, all of which shall be common stock. All shares shall be of the par value of one hundred ($100.00) Dollars each.

At least two hundred and fifty (250) shares of the total par value of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) Dollars shall be paid in before the commencement of business and the remainder may be paid in and the certificates therefor issued at any time or times thereafter in the discretion of the directors and any of said capital stock may be issued in exchange for any property, contract, cash or services worth the par value of the stock so issued; and the judgment of the directors or a majority thereof as to the value of any property, contract, or service received by the corporation in payment for any such stock, shall, in the absence of actual fraud, be conclusive.

ARTICLE IV

The time of the commencement of the corporation shall be the date of the receipt of its license to do business from the Arizona Corporation Commission, and the date of its termination shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

ARTICLE V

The officers by whom the affairs of the corporation are to be conducted shall be a Board of not less than three nor more than seven directors. The directors shall choose a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, and such other officers or agents as the By-laws may prescribe. The president and vice president shall be members of the Board of Directors. Any two officers except president and vice president may be filled by one and the same person. A majority of the directors in office shall constitute a quorum.

The Board of Directors may create from its own number an Executive Committee, to consist of two or more of the Directors. Such executive committee shall have, when the Board is not in session, all the powers of the Board of Directors.

All directors shall be elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting which shall be held at the offices of the corporation in the City of Phoenix aforesaid, on the second Monday in July in each and every year at two o'clock P. M. But vacancies arising or created by or from any cause, thereof as to the value of any property, contract, or service received by the corporation in payment for any such stock, shall, in the absence of actual fraud, be conclusive.
