NEW LAND DEPARTMENT HANGS UP RECORD FOR SPEED IN SELECTING

135,000 Acres Selected and Filed Since Work Was Begun Early in July Making Total of 800,000

With the filing in the United States land office yesterday of land selections amounting to 12,900 acres, the total selections made by the state land department since July 1, when the new code became effective reached a total of more than 135,000 acres.

The selection of this amount of land in a little over a month and a half is considered a record in the examination and filing on land by the state, especially in view of the vast amount of other work that had to be done with the opening of the new department, and that much of the work was in the hands of the new force. Most of the land selected lies in Cochise county, although there are several thousand acres in Yavapai county, and the 2000 acres at Fort Grant, Graham county, are included in the selections made to date.

The total selections made by the old land commission and State Land Commissioner Mozer are approximately 800,000 acres. There yet remain about 1,550,000 acres to be selected and it is expected that these will be taken up by the department at the rate of 100,000 acres per month.

IF CIVILIANS LEARN TO SHOOT

Vast Contrast Between U. S. Magazine Rifle and 22-Caliber Gallery Weapon

Civilian rifle clubs are lately receiving much attention. They have developed a number of men who are excellent shots with 22-caliber rifles, indoors, at a distance of fifty to seventy-five feet.

Comparatively few, however, are able to handle the modern high-powered 30-caliber United States magazine rifle and hit a target one thousand yards away. Moreover, even were all our men good shots, it must be remembered that shooting is merely one of the important parts of a soldier's training, and that it is a very small part.

The soldier who can do nothing but shoot has about the same relative value as a polo player who can sit on a fence and wield a mallet skillfully, but who can't ride a horse. —Capt. Richard Stockton, Jr., in Collier's Weekly.

WHISKY SHIPMENTS CAUGHT BY SHERIFF

Case of Liquor and Japanese Landed Last Night

A good deal of whisky may be coming into Arizona under the mask of other commodities but a good deal of it is intercepted. The sheriff's office is taking in about one case a day. They are consigned to residents of the city or the valley who say that they know nothing about the shipments; they have ordered no whisky and they cannot imagine how any stranger on the coast could have come to send any to them.

It is a pretty serious business for the person who sends liquor in this way. He is brought directly to the attention of the federal authorities for this is a violation of the interstate commerce act.

Another case of liquor was brought to the sheriff's office last night along with a Japanese, T. Kadomato. The whisky, marked "Groceries," was received at Glendale yesterday afternoon and was noticed by Deputy Sheriff Rudd. He only suspected that the case was not what it seemed and called the attention of the agent to it. An investigation was made and the contents were found to be "Kentucky" whisky. A telephone message was sent to the office of the sheriff whence instructions were issued to bring the case and the man to whom it was consigned.

In a little while the Japanese called for the box and when he found what the consequences of receiving it would be, said that he knew nothing about it. He had ordered no liquor and he could only surmise that some admiring friend in Los Angeles had sent it to him. He was taken into custody and his house was searched. Empty bottles bearing the same kind of label were found.

A delegation of Japanese called at the sheriff's office last night and asked for an explanation of the arrest of their countryman. They were told that the same thing had happened to white men who had tried to bring liquor into the state. "And when it comes," said the sheriff, "they say they no savvy. The white men no savvy; the Jap no savvy." "Everybody no savvy," added one of the Japanese gravely.

HE HAD A REASON

It had been their first separation and during one week the young husband had sent his dear little wife ten letters, fifteen picture postcards and four telegrams.

Why, then, this touch of coldness in her welcome on his return?

"Dearest," he whispered, as he drew her to his manly bosom, "what is wrong? What have I done to upset my duckey-woppy?"

"George," she replied in broken tones, "you didn't send me a kiss in your seventh letter!"

George thought like lightning for a moment before he replied: "I know I didn't pety, but I had steak and onions that night for supper and you wouldn't like me to kiss you after eating onions, would you?"

WELLS FARGO REPORT OF ARIZONA BUSINESS

The report of the Wells Fargo Express company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, was filed yesterday with the state tax commission. The report shows gross receipts amounting to $84,963.4, as compared with over $100,000 for the preceding year.

These figures represent the amount received by the express company after paying the railroad companies their percentage of charges. The decrease of over $15,000 in revenue is attributed to the falling off in the money order business at the copper camps during the first half of the year.

TEMPE WOMEN PLAN TO AID SICK AND POOR

Church Benevolent Society Organized by Representative Committees From Tempe Churches

With the idea in view of lending whatever aid possible in the cases of sickness and poverty where outside help is needed, the Church Benevolent Society was organized by twenty-five women of Tempe at a meeting Monday evening. The distressing case of Mrs. G. H. Wykle who has been ill for a long while and who has been very poorly cared for prompted the movement. It was primarily intended to organize the help of such a society in Tempe has been so apparent, at times in the past, that its permanent organization was carried through.

Mrs. Wykle lives with her family of small children and husband in a little shack on west Fifth street. She has been ill for a number of years, this summer more so than ever, and the fact that she has been required to lie all day in bed in the bare shack where the heat at times almost overbearing, was so strikingly inhuman that friends have taken the matter of her relief up in the hopes of providing some better care for the invalid. It is probable that a screen sleeping room will be erected near the home and other accommodations provided where she may at the least rest in some comfort.

The Church Benevolent Society organized Monday evening. At a second meeting last evening completed plans for its future work. The case of Mrs. Wykle will be given attention at once, and as other cases come to the attention of the authorities the society will be called upon for what aid and relief it can give.

A double bill of amusements has been provided for the entertainment of the patronage at the airdome this evening. Four good reels of motion pictures will be shown. "Stronger than Death," a drama, "The Thief Catcher," a comedy and "Florina Hope," a drama. A special program of vaudeville will be also given including some novelty dancing and evening completed plans for its future work. The case of Mrs. Wykle will be given attention at once, and as other cases come to the attention of the authorities the society will be called upon for what aid and relief it can give.

VISITING IN TEMPE

Miss Allen Griswold is here from Nogales, Arizona, and will spend the next three weeks as the guest of the Peter Hansen family.

WILL LOCATE IN TUCSON

T. E. Brinegar, general manager for the Plata Flina Mining company of Old Mexico, left Tempe last evening after a residence of a number of months and will make Tucson his future home. The company interests are located in Southern Sonora, and since the first of February this year, the development of the property has been delayed because of the inability to transport any powder into the state. Mr. Brinegar has kept closely in touch with matters and is now quite confident that he will be able to proceed with the work by the first of October. The Plata Flina interests are quite extensive, the field has just recently been opened and silver and copper ore have both been located in highly valuable quantities. Mr. Brinegar is moving to Tucson to be closer to his field of operations and hopes to find time to work some in the mining department of the University.

IMPROVING

Miss Marie Blount who was operated on at the Sisters' Hospital in Phoenix Sunday night for appendicitis, was somewhat improved according to reports yesterday, though she is not yet entirely out of danger.

CLEAN-UP MOVEMENT

Justice C. O. Austin has a plan whereby this community will be rid of all weeds that grow on highways, private roadways, ditches, canals or laterals, and the country generally will be considerably improved in appearance. A certain state law requires that these public grounds be regularly cleaned by the property owner, canal company, road-overseer and whoever else may be in charge. The manager has taken hold of the movement in town and by way of setting the pace for others to follow he has started a force of men to work on the town property. Justice Austin states that it is a misdemeanor not to comply with this law and he is highly in hopes that the responsible parties will take hold of the movement and push the clean-up work before the force of the law is called into play.

Probably no other war drama ever so conscientiously tried to show both sides of the struggle. It is more than neutral. It takes both sides of the question, showing the sincerity of conviction both on the part of the northern soldiers and their gallant southern adversaries.
