FINANCES and MARKETS
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Nov. 29. (Wall Street)—A fresh element of uncertainty was injected into the financial situation today by the news that the Canadian government had commandeered 20,000,000 bushels of high grade wheat at home ports and probably would reserve the total wheat surplus of the Dominion amounting to over 200,000,000 bushels.

TEN TONS OF TURKS SENT OUT OF MESA
Mesa Becoming Important Turkey Market—More Birds Should Be Raised, Says Coast Buyer

LIKE NAT WILLIS TELEGRAM.
The sort of this war excitement is the vertigo with which it affects innocent bystanders. For instance, in the McAlpin lobby a highly respectable man with a fine rating in the commercial agencies, showed me a confidential telegram announcing that the Safety Car Lighting and Heating company had just received an order for fifteen million dollars' worth of time fuses for big shells. "Now watch that company's stock go up," he said.

He was rather offended when I laughed. I explained to him that I couldn't help it. "You made me think of one of Nat Willis' jokes at the Hippodrome," I said. "He reads a telegram from the czar of Russia. It says: 'Send me two million pampas at once. The Russian army is going to retire again.'"—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Chandler News Notes
CHRISTIAN LADIES' AID
The Christian Ladies' Aid will meet on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. D. E. Pierpont.

SPEND FEW DAYS AT HOME
Miss Nellie Morgan, who is attending school in Mesa, spent the week-end at her home in Chandler.

CONTEST SUPPER
About forty of the Christian Endeavorers attended the entertainment given to the Purples by the Girls on Saturday night in the Monroe hall. A number of games were played, a few musical selections given, after which all sat down to supper, which consisted of sandwiches, pickles, salad, coffee, cocoa and cake.

LATTER DAY SAINTS
The Stallo choir met last night, being a splendid success. The new leader has a decided faculty for awakening interest among musical lines, partly because of his own personality and partly by reason of his understandable and authoritative instruction. He is himself a composer and a composer whose work is already attracting attention in the highest musical circles.

MONRAD'S CYCLEERY, Mesa, Bicycles repairing, supplies and sundries. —Adv. 11

JUST ARRIVED
Last Saturday night there was a late born to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lavis—the very first one. Immediately after seeing the father the mother was just as plain as day. It was a boy! Never was such a child!

ALMA WARD CONFERENCE
The conference at the Alma Ward, L. I. S., last Sunday was most successful. There being a large attendance and reports of the historic and ward officials were interesting and encouraging. It was announced that the weekly meeting of the priesthood would hereafter be held on Wednesday nights.

HORNE & RIGGS
A change in the conduct of the affairs of Horne & Riggs has been deemed desirable by the partners, and hereafter John Riggs will have personal charge of the work of the blacksmithing shop while Mr. Horne will have the supervision of the farm implements and machinery. This is not a case of "a house divided against itself," but both gentlemen being experts in the special departments they are hereafter to give their attention to the work was plainly expedient and to the best interests of the firm as well as the trade which it serves.

REBEKAH LODGE
The ladies of the Rebekah lodge will give a masquerade ball at the K. of P. hall on Tuesday night, December 14, upon which occasion the Collins orchestra will furnish the music.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY
The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold an election of officers at 41 minutes to be held in the church parlors on Wednesday of this week. All members are requested to make it a point to be present. Other business will also be taken up.

LIBRARY OPENS
The Tempe Normal training school library will open all of tomorrow afternoon and parents interested in the selection of books for Christmas presents to children are invited in. The Normal librarian will be present and data on price lists, houses, etc., will be available.

ADDRESSED STUDENTS
Rev. Clifford Nott Hand, the new pastor of the Congregational church, addressed the students of the Normal school at the usual weekly assembly held yesterday morning.

COMMERCIAL CLUB
Members of the Commercial club are again urged to attend the meeting tonight at which time election of officers for the coming year will take place.

Hire a little salesman at the Republican office. A want Ad will see more customers than you can.

MRS. MORTON ILL
Mrs. A. J. Morton was taken to the hospital at Phoenix last week. After coming out of the Sisters hospital at Phoenix nearly a year ago, she went to California in hopes of benefiting her health. She improved for a time, but overtaxed her strength and took a relapse. After returning home, she felt better for a few days, but was again taken ill and has been confined to her bed for over two months. She is said to be in a critical condition.

PARAMOUNT TONIGHT
"Trees of the Storm Country," the play that is being staged by the Ed. Reimond company at the Elks this week in Phoenix, will be seen as the Paramount bill at the opera house this evening. The film is in six parts and is one of the best mass-pictures being shown in the Paramount series.

VISITED AT SONOITA
Frank LaMont and Mrs. LaMont's children returned Sunday night from a visit over the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Faucett at Sonoita, in the southern part of the state. The Faucetts lived in Tempe several years ago, when Mr. Faucett was the local exchange manager for the Mountain States Telephone company. Mr. LaMont says that it is not in the mountains, ice every morning and occasionally snow. Their outing, the trip made both going and coming by machine, was a pleasant one.

TO WINTER HERE
Sam J. Carter and family of Visconia, Ill., arrived in the valley yesterday morning and will make Tempe their home this winter. Mr. Carter is a brother-in-law of Dr. J. J. High, and the doctor is a convert to the valley, after a number of years' residence in Visconia, and is of the opinion that Mr. Carter, too, will settle upon this as his permanent home after a few months' stay.
