

Hats From Fifth Avenue And Across The Sea

Come as Messengers of the New Modes—The stories they tell are many and varied. Entrancing, bewildering, irresistible—their complete significance is told in four words.

VISIT OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Read in the wonder-modes. They will delight your sense of the exquisitely beautiful. You will experience a pleasure of appreciation akin to hearing good music—of seeing rare pictures. For these hats are also masterpieces—evolved to create living pictures. Evelyn Varon sends a brief note in the Bondeaux Sailor. A wreath of variegated roses have their shadow in leaves that blend in color. Other articles—names to conjure with—are represented with their best.
