Case, state superintendent of education, member of the board who has been ill, announced last night that he would attend the sessions, providing he was able. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, Mrs. Oscar Howard, feel through the columns of your paper you unjustly published the proceedings of yesterday's case, so I wish to make this statement.

I did not persecute defendant because he charged $8.00 for two sodas, but the manner in which he ordered me out of the drug store—the place I have been trading for five years. It was more than embarrassing to me to be dragged through court, but a law-abiding citizen and a taxpayer asked the county for protection. And when Judge Parker asked the defendant to stand, and reprimanded him for his actions and asked if the loss of his job would compensate me for my ill treatment, of course this did.

But I see there is little need for people of my color to ask for protection. When our noble Tenth Cavalry rode away to the front, it was not our people who were involved, but they went to protect your wives and children. The Mexicans have never done anything to our people.

I guess, on account of my color the warrant wasn't made out as instructed, attempted assault.

I have been a business woman in this town for five years and known by the business people, and I'm sure I have been of more service to the community than a mere soda dispenser.

I can see the day coming when the stars and stripes will be a joke to our people, as was the soda for $8.00. (Adv.)—11
