

A new treat for lovers of the dainty and delicious—our new offering—

French Pastry

made according to the best approved European recipes by our own experienced chef.

Only the finest of materials used and you'll say these cakes are perfectly delicious. When at Donofrio's, order some cake with your ice cream or sherbet—a delightful surprise awaits you.

- French Mocha
- French Chocolate
- White Mountain Cake
- Sunshine Cake
- Vienna Lady Fingers
- Macaroons

Special Today
French Orange Cake and Orange Ice Cream

Donofrio's

Cactus Way and Washington

Telephone 509 and we will deliver a pastry order with the same promptness as has made our other departments so popular.

WILSON TO WAIT FOR REPLY FROM GEN. CARRANZA

(Continued from Page One)

Military style were given out during the day by Secretary Baker's new military aide, Major MacArthur. They told of the movement of various unnamed national guard regiments to the border, of plans and regulations under which regular officers would be assigned to aid in the training of state troops and of other matters connected with the mobilization of 100,000 men to reinforce General Funston's lines.

In congress, the senate military committee prepared to increase by probably more than $100,000,000 the army appropriation bill as it passed the house. The committee now has approved increases totalling $75,000,000. It is expected that the $125,000,000 measure passed by the house will reach a total of more than $200,000,000 when reported to the senate.

Among items added today were $12,000,000 for the army aviation service, including provision for equipping twelve national guard aviation squadrons; $1,545,490 for the signal corps; $12,200,000 for national guard field artillery and ammunition; $4,586,900 for machine guns; $1,000,000 for armored

THREE WHITE SPOTS ON GIRL'S COAT FIGURE LARGELY IN TRIAL

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

WAIKEGAN, Ill., July 1.—The apparently powerful evidence of the three white spots alleged to have been left on the overcoat of Marion Lambert by cyanide of potassium in solution was the subject of attack at the trial of William H. Orpet, college student charged with her murder, today.

Marion Lambert, a high school girl who had been Orpet's sweetheart, died of cyanide of potassium poisoning in Helm's woods, February 9. Her body was recovered the next morning and an inquest held that night. Two members of the coroner's jury, Alexander Allen and George L. Blanchard, testified with regard to the coat today. They impeached to an extent the testimony of Fred I. Wenban, the undertaker who cared for Marion's body.

Wenban testified that at about 4 p. m. on February 10, the three white spots were observed by him, although he had not noticed them in the forenoon. Chemists testified that the spots were left by a solution of potassium cyanide, and that in this form the spots would not appear until after evaporation of the liquid.

Allen and Blanchard testified that at 8 o'clock that night, as jurors, they examined the coat and there were no spots on it. The coat was not sent to the chemists for examination until several weeks after the inquest.

H. J. Carlin, investigator for the defense, and Miss Dorothy Mason, a school girl, friend of Marion's, also were witnesses today, and Irwin N. Clow, a 16-year-old high school freshman to whom Marion occasionally wrote, also appeared for a few minutes. Miss Mason, a pretty girl with "bobbed hair," confessed to a conversation with Marion without which, according to one of the two theories of the prosecution, there might have been no tragedy in Helm's woods last winter.

"My mother," said Dorothy, "had been at Lake Forest visiting my sister, who is married to a brother of Celestia Youker. Mother told me that Will Orpet was engaged to Celestia."

"A few days before Marion died I was talking with her in the wash room at school and mentioned what my mother had said. We were looking out of the window at the time, and we noticed a poor, crippled old woman hobbling along."

"What did Marion say?" asked Attorney Potter.

"She said, 'Is that so?' Then she said, 'Do you know what I think? Sometimes I think life isn't worth living.'"

On cross examination, Attorney Potter repeatedly asked the witness if p. m. on February 10, the three white spots were observed by him, although he had not noticed them in the forenoon. Chemists testified that the spots were left by a solution of potassium cyanide, and that in this form the spots would not appear until after evaporation of the liquid.

Allen and Blanchard testified that at 8 o'clock that night, as jurors, they examined the coat and there were no spots on it. The coat was not sent to the chemists for examination until several weeks after the inquest.

H. J. Carlin, investigator for the defense, and Miss Dorothy Mason, a school girl, friend of Marion's, also were witnesses today, and Irwin N. Clow, a 16-year-old high school freshman to whom Marion occasionally wrote, also appeared for a few minutes.

Miss Mason, a pretty girl with "bobbed hair," confessed to a conversation with Marion without which, according to one of the two theories of the prosecution, there might have been no tragedy in Helm's woods last winter.

"My mother," said Dorothy, "had been at Lake Forest visiting my sister, who is married to a brother of Celestia Youker. Mother told me that Will Orpet was engaged to Celestia."

"A few days before Marion died I was talking with her in the wash room at school and mentioned what my mother had said. We were looking out of the window at the time, and we noticed a poor, crippled old woman hobbling along."

"What did Marion say?" asked Attorney Potter.

"She said, 'Is that so?' Then she said, 'Do you know what I think? Sometimes I think life isn't worth living.'"

On cross examination, Attorney Potter repeatedly asked the witness if p. m. on February 10, the three white spots were observed by him, although he had not noticed them in the forenoon.

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

NOGALLES, Ariz., July 1.—Frederick Smapite, United States consul to Nogales, Sonora, announced here tonight that he would make a formal demand tomorrow upon General P. Elias Calles, military governor of Sonora, for the safe transport out of Mexico of Mrs. C. E. Ballow, wife of C. E. Ballow, of 225 West Forty-sixth street, Los Angeles, their two sons and five grandchildren. The family is at a mine in southwestern Chihuahua, 20 miles from Chihuahua, a four and one-half days' journey from the nearest railroad.

Ballow, who is here, tried unsuccessfully to obtain permission from the Mexican authorities to go for his family. However, in response to an appeal for permission to send a message urging their immediate departure for the United States and telling them of the Mexican consulate allowed him to send a dispatch which said only that he was in Nogales and was well.

Special trains carrying national guardsmen from California and Washington to augment the garrison here are expected to arrive before daybreak tomorrow.

That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

TO DEMAND SAFE TRANSPORT HOME

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

NOGALLES, Ariz., July 1.—Frederick Smapite, United States consul to Nogales, Sonora, announced here tonight that he would make a formal demand tomorrow upon General P. Elias Calles, military governor of Sonora, for the safe transport out of Mexico of Mrs. C. E. Ballow, wife of C. E. Ballow, of 225 West Forty-sixth street, Los Angeles, their two sons and five grandchildren. The family is at a mine in southwestern Chihuahua, 20 miles from Chihuahua, a four and one-half days' journey from the nearest railroad.

Ballow, who is here, tried unsuccessfully to obtain permission from the Mexican authorities to go for his family. However, in response to an appeal for permission to send a message urging their immediate departure for the United States and telling them of the Mexican consulate allowed him to send a dispatch which said only that he was in Nogales and was well.

Special trains carrying national guardsmen from California and Washington to augment the garrison here are expected to arrive before daybreak tomorrow.

That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

Mr. Carlin in his testimony said that he led a party of searchers which found a bottle of molasses and water where Orpet had flung it just after emerging from the woods, after Marion's death. That it was Ballow, and not placed there, he said, was proved by the fact that there were no footprints around it when found. Other members of the party corroborated him.

FRUIT DONATION STARTED FOR TUCSON; SOLDIERS ARE "FED"

Tucson Receives California Cavalrymen With Much Eclat At Depot; 2,200 More Will Pass Through Old Pueblo Today

(Special to The Republican)

TUCSON, July 1.—Flocking around Wells-Fargo trucks in the Southern Pacific station, 285 members of the First California cavalry, commanded by Major Kay, received the first Red Cross dinner this evening under the plan of the Arizona chapter to supplement the army rations on which guardsmen are subsisting in transit. Tucson has been designated by the National Red Cross as the distributing station for the southwest.

After a day of hard work, Miss Jane Ryker, Tucson head of the Red Cross, handled her first soldier-aid dinner tonight. Viands, provided by the people of Tucson, were spread on Wells-Fargo trucks. The soldiers arrived at 6:40 with their heads out of the windows, and cheering. They had learned of the colation, and it was with difficulty that they were formed in lines for roll call, before detaching.

The second detachment, consisting of 2,200 troops, will be here sometime tomorrow. Owing to censorship it is impossible to find out when a troop train is due until a few minutes before it arrives. So the Red Cross has secured the loan of the Espee ice house, where it is keeping victuals always on hand and ready for service on a few moments' notice.

Sandwiches, milk, cider and iced tea are kept ready. The chamber of commerce has donated the use of its rooms for offices on a large basement for storage. Today's detachment consisted of troops A, B, C, and D, from Los Angeles, Salinas, Sacramento and Bakersfield.

The thanks of Miss Ryker to the Phoenix Red Cross were expressed in warmest terms to The Republican correspondent tonight. Phoenix's aid is appreciated by us, but you should have heard those soldiers find out what real gratitude is.

GOVERNMENT ENDS FISCAL YEAR WITH EXCESS OF $78,737,810

(Continued from Page One)

previous estimates by many millions. Ordinarily internal revenue receipts amounted to $257,873,328.30 and excluding the emergency revenue from this amount, these receipts were approximately $204,066,000 or $52,000,000 better than had been estimated.

WOMAN GIVEN NEW TRIAL. FORT WORTH, July 1.—Mrs. Katherine Vance Harrison, found guilty on Wednesday on a charge of murdering W. L. Warren and sentenced to a penitentiary term of five years, was given a new trial in the district court here today.

REFUGEES ON SUMMER. VERA CRUZ, July 1.—Nearly six hundred American refugees from various parts of Southern Mexico now are on board the transport Summer. The Summer probably will leave here for Galveston tomorrow.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.—Two auto loads of Phoenix Odd Fellows went to Tempe last night to attend the semi-annual installation of officers of Temple Lodge No. 8. Tempe Odd Fellows are noted for their hospitality and always have a large turnout on such occasions. J. H. Cummings, new district deputy grand master, assisted by his suite, installed the following officers: N. G. George E. Stacie, V. G. Jos. A. Blakely, Secretary G. M. Fritzel, Treasurer Henry Sandoz, Warden T. P. Berleson, Conductor O. H. Bransford, I. S. G. E. S. Johnson, O. S. G. Bert Franzen, R. S. N. L. V. Stewart. Other officers installed last night were Charles W. Zimmerman, W. J. Williams. Refreshments were served in the banquet room.

EIGHT NEW MOTOR TRUCK COMPANIES

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., July 1.—Eight complete motor truck companies, each to consist of thirty-three machines, are to be added to the military equipment of Brigadier General James Parker, commanding the Brownsville district, according to announcement made at army headquarters here today.

With these machines, it was said, a mobile force of between 4,000 and 5,000 men with all necessary equipment for effective work at considerable distance from supply bases, can be handled.

It was pointed out that in operating against an enemy depending on a line of railroad for sustenance, the motor companies would be markedly effective, as with their use extensive flank movements can be made. It is also anticipated by officers that the motor companies will be used in connection with possible cavalry expeditions.

Plans now are to use twenty-eight trucks in each company to carry gasoline and supplies. When the trucks will arrive or where they are coming from was not divulged.

M. P. REFUSES MEN'S DEMANDS

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—The Missouri Pacific Railway company today refused to grant any of the demands submitted by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees or to arbitrate the matter. Secretary of Labor Wilson was asked by union officials to send two commissioners to St. Louis to mediate.

J. A. Petree, of Winston-Salem, N. C., representative of the Brotherhood, said the men asked a ten per cent wage increase for practically all the 12,000 employees of the maintenance of every department.

J. P. Murphy, general manager of the railroad, said that the Brotherhood represented but ten per cent of the maintenance of way employes. He said that four other unions of maintenance of way employes had demanded new contracts. The Missouri Pacific employes who belong to the Brotherhood do not work for the Missouri Pacific proper but for the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern, which is a part of the Missouri Pacific system.

brother hat which an actress held for him. He dropped a coin into the large son-

BOY SCOUTS ARE READY

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, July 1.—In the event of war with Mexico, nearly 200,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America are prepared to offer their services through co-operation with municipal authorities in the various communities where boy troops exist, it was announced here today at the national headquarters of the organization.

WILSON AIDS FUND

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, July 1.—While attending a theater tonight President Wilson contributed to a fund for the relief of dependent families of the District of Columbia National Guardsmen called to the border service. It was explained from the stage that immediate relief was necessary because the president had not had time to make the required appropriation and that actors and actresses would take up a collection. The president smiled as las of Carranza's cabinet. Vice counsel Sarabia said that Major Palma refused to permit her to proceed north because she had no papers showing that she was the wife of an American.

THOUSANDS MILITIA MOVING TOWARD MEXICAN BORDER

(Continued from Page One)

Miles of barbed wire fence decorated with drying beef from thousands of slaughtered cattle were reported today by Mexican railroad employes arriving from Hermosillo.

Utah Mobilized

SALT LAKE CITY, July 1.—The ar-

Utah Mobilized

SALT LAKE CITY, July 1.—The ar-

Utah Mobilized

SALT LAKE CITY, July 1.—The ar-

Utah Mobilized

SALT LAKE CITY, July 1.—The ar-

Utah Mobilized

SALT LAKE CITY