POPULAR COUPLE MARRY IN TEMPE

TEMPE, April 24.—A wedding of no small interest to residents of the state, particularly those of Maricopa and Gila counties where both of the young people have lived for a number of years, was performed in Tempe Sunday uniting Professor John L. Spikes and Miss Gladys Murchison, both teachers in the school at Winkelman, as man and wife.

COMMITTEE ASKS TOWN TO CLEAN UP

TEMPE, April 24.—The Chautauqua committee of fifty, the men who are behind the seven days of enjoyment for the people of this vicinity, are out with a request that the town be generally cleaned up before next week, which is Chautauqua week.

THE many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Spikes in Tempe, their marriage came as a complete surprise. They arrived in the valley Saturday evening and all unknown to largely any one outside of the family, arrangements were made, the wedding consummated, and their departure taken, before friends got wise.

THE young people have returned to Winkelman to finish out the school term of several weeks, after which it is understood they will move to Globe, where Prof. Spikes is engaged to teach next year.

WILL TAKE CONTRACTS to do engine plying. Griffing Cotton Co., Tempe. Phone 1284.

MAGNETIC PROGRESSING With the shaft now sunk to a depth of more than ninety feet and the men working in a manganese composition, still better indications of ore are being encountered at the Magnetic mine, according to Superintendent T. J. Goodwin who arrived in the valley Sunday for a few days' stay.

THE hoist has been erected over the shaft and operations are being conducted in the tunnel which has been started about 1000 feet from the main shaft. Mr. Goodwin expects to return to the mine on Thursday.

THIRD DEGREE The Knights of Pythias are urging all of their members to be present at the regular meeting tonight when the third degree will be conferred on a candidate.

EASTERN STAR The Order of Eastern Star will hold a special meeting tomorrow evening in the Masonic hall for initiation work.

RETURN TO COLORADO Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hollenbeck departed yesterday after several months' visit in Tempe with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Walker. They are returning to their home at Salida, Colorado, and will visit several weeks at various points along the way.

"THE PULSE OF LIFE" Sensational entertainment will be in order at the opera house when "The Pulse of Life" is given by the two photoplays, Wedgewood Nowell and Gypsy Harte will play the leading roles in this Rex Ingram production, with Nicholas Duvall, William Dyer, Millard K. Wilson and Dorothy Barr, leading an excellent supporting company. The plot deals with the decision of a peasant girl to come to America from an Italian fishing village in the hope of finding her desire for pleasure and happiness satisfied. There is a lesson for girls who are discontented with their present surroundings—and a moral that will long be retained in the memory of those who witness "The Pulse of Life."

LOST—Black Waterman fountain pen between Tempe and Mesa. Reward, return to Republican, Tempe.

TEMPE GIRL WEETS Miss Nevada Turner, daughter of G. F. Turner, was married last Saturday evening to Louis T. Staluth of Christman, Arizona. The ceremony was performed at the Christian church parsonage, Rev. L. B. Buntree officiating and the young people were attended by the bride's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bradley. Mr. and Mrs. Staluth are spending a few days in the valley, after which they will make their permanent home at Christman.

WILL OBSERVE K. P. MEMORIAL The local lodge of Knights of Pythias and Victory temple Pythian sisters will observe Memorial Day for deceased members, on Sunday, April 29. The service will take place in the afternoon and consists of decorating the graves of departed members, appropriate ceremonies and music.

A YEAR IN CALIFORNIA Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metz will leave Saturday for a year's stay in California. Mr. Metz has been a sufferer from rheumatism through the winter and while considerably improved, hopes that a year on the coast will further benefit him. The attractive bungalow will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Grigsby during the absence of the owners.

WAR FILMS AT MAJESTIC The Chicago Tribune sent its own photographer to the battle grounds of World War I. The movie camera was under fire for ten days, a part of the time in a steel cage for safety, but he kept the camera grinding away and now the Mesa public may see what war really is. The movie camera work, the charge of thousands of infantry, the wounded and dying, war in all its horrors through six thousand feet of film, can be looked upon as though one were on the battle ground. This picture is a wonderful argument for the final world's peace for which our president is working.
