REPUBLICAN WOMEN TO MEET—The afternoon division of the Republican Women's league will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at K. P. hall. An interesting program has been arranged by the president, Mrs. J. L. B. Alexander, and the legislative ticket will be taken up. Several candidates for office will appear and present their cases.

OUTING GIRLS' CLUB—The Outing Girls' club will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the parlors of the Presbyterian church for a social entertainment and to plan for the winter's work. It is requested that women having Indian girls in their employ bring their attention to this notice.

LADIES' AID MEETING—The Ladies' Aid of the Grace Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. M. Williams, 1118 North Ninth street, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A short business meeting will be followed by a social hour. An invitation is extended to all friends of the church.

PREPARING BALLOTS—A copy of the official ballot for the general election to be held November 2 will be turned over to the printer today, according to Clarence L. Standage, clerk of the board of supervisors. As soon as possible sample copies of the ballot will be mailed to the candidates for checking, Mr. Standage said. About 40,000 ballots for the county will be printed, including the official ballots and the sample ballots.

SPECIAL LECTURES—The Rev. F. O. Fuerholzer, D. D., formerly a European army officer, who has recently returned from missionary work in South America, will give a series of special lectures at the Church of God chapel, Ninth and Madison streets, beginning tonight and ending Sunday. He is on his way to the Philippine Islands to resume his missionary work.

RELIEF CORPS MEETING—The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held at the W. C. T. U. building, 1601 West Monroe street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

BALZ P. T. A. TO MEET—The regular meeting of the Balz Parent-Teacher association will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the school. All parents of the district are invited to attend. A special program will be given.

COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN—The first fall meeting of the Council of Jewish Women will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Woman's club.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS WILL MEET—Pioneer Camp No. 5848, Royal Neighbors of America, will meet this evening. All members are requested to be present as important business is to be transacted. Refreshments will be served. Visitors are given a cordial invitation to be present.

Y. W. C. A. GYM CLASS—The gymnasium class of the Y. W. C. A. will hold its first meeting of the season at the Y. M. C. A. this evening when an hour's instruction will be given by Mrs. Oscar Mumbaugh. The class will meet from 8 until 9 o'clock. Mrs. Mumbaugh in announcing the opening of the course for the season stated that the full gym course of volleyball, basketball, drills, folk dances and aesthetic dancing would be featured. She requests that anyone desiring any information get in touch with her at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters on North Central avenue.

O. E. S. TO MEET—An auxiliary meeting of Phoenix chapter, No. 5, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held at Masonic hall Thursday afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock. Cards and refreshments will be enjoyed. All visiting members are cordially invited.

WILL HOLD HEARING—D. F. Johnson, member of the corporation commission, will preside at a hearing in Tucson today instituted by Charles Olson, who claims that the Tucson Farms and Silver Lake Water company refused to deliver water to him.

IS VISITING HERE—Mrs. Henry B. Shepard of Des Moines is a recent arrival who will pass several days here the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Stevens of 901 East Brill street. On her departure for the coast next week Mrs. Shepard will be accompanied by Mrs. Stevens, who will remain in California a fortnight.

CAN SELL STOCK—The corporation commission yesterday granted a permit to the Pinal County Abstract and Realty company to sell 51 shares of its treasury stock at $110 a share. The company's place of business is in Phoenix.

AUXILIARY MEETING—The women's auxiliary of the Frank Luke post, American Legion, will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at Legion headquarters, 643 North Seventh avenue.

GOES TO CELEBRATION—R. W. Lecher, vice president of the chamber of commerce, left last evening for El Paso where he will attend the international celebration now being held there and will also confer with the governors of the Kiwanis clubs, who are also in session in the East City.

WANT DIRECTORIES—Because of the demand for the volumes from out-of-town sources the chamber of commerce is requesting that all who have no further use for their 1919 city directories turn them over to the chamber, where good use can be made of them.

RECEIVE BOOKLETS—The chamber of commerce is in receipt of a number of booklets from the Northern Arizona State college, including carrying the lists of awards for contests and exhibits at the Prescott classic. The fair will open on October 14 and will continue for three days.

TOWN MEETING—The "Town Meeting" scheduled by the chamber of commerce for Friday evening at the Woman's club building will be held in some other place, it was announced, due to conflicting dates. There is no intention, however, of abandoning the meeting and announcement of the place in which it will be held will be made in plenty of time to permit those interested to make arrangements to attend. The subject of discussion will be the cotton situation in the Salt River valley, and much interest is said to be evinced in the affair. The hour at which the meeting will open is 7:30 o'clock.

DOG POISONER AT WORK—That most despicable of human beings, the dog poisoner, is said to have become active in the residence districts. The latest reports are of the death of two dogs, both children's pets, in the 1500 block on West Monroe street. One of the dogs belonged to Dr. H. W. Krotzer and the other to J. W. Bell. The pets were poisoned late Tuesday night or early yesterday morning and were in such condition when discovered by their owners that police officers were called to kill them.

THESE WILL MARRY—Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Joseph W. Burke, 22, of Mesa, and Fritzie Barone, 22, of Phoenix; Thomas Martinez, 35, and Juana Juarez, 19, both of Gila Bend; and Albert Attaway, 21, and Bessie McCullum, 17, both of Phoenix.

SUES FOR DIVORCE—His wife left him in May, 1920, and went away with another man, says Jose Quijada in his suit for a decree of divorce from suit yesterday against Andrew Baumert, Jr., Lloyd B. Christy and J. L. Crismon for a judgment. Baumert and Christy, he says, were connected with the commission of state institutions and had charge of the construction of the addition to the capitol. Crismon, he says, was the superintendent of the job. Young Sharp alleges that he was employed on the derrick and was lifting rocks to a wagon when the derrick broke. His injuries, he says, will render him unable to work at his vocation in the future.

SELLS HOME HERE—Clay F. Leonard, clerk of the supreme court, has sold his attractive home at 1012 West Washington street to Jacob Stephenson a wealthy cattleman of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard will take up their residence at the New Haven apartments at Fifth avenue and Roosevelt street.

TAKE EXAMINATION—Even applicants for certificates to practice medicine in this state are taking the medical examination which is being conducted at the state house. The examination, which began yesterday, will be concluded today. The state board of examiners is composed of Dr. Ancel Martin, Dr. Charles S. Vivian, Dr. John Wix Thomas, Dr. Paul R. Collins of Douglas and Dr. A. L. Gustetter of Nogales.

CONCERNING HEARING—A delegation representing the common council of Clifton appeared before the corporation commission yesterday in the interests of the Clifton Water company hearing, which has been set for October 20. The company is seeking to establish a water system and a meter rate. The hearing will be held in Clifton before Commissioner David F. Johnson, H. M. Barry, auditor of the commission, and Ben Ferguson, engineer of the department.

GOING INTO ARMY—Frank LaRue, who recently resigned as inspector-instructor of cadets in the high school and normal schools of the state, will leave this evening for Nogales, where he will be sworn in by the commanding officer of the 25th infantry. LaRue, who held a captain's commission during the war, will re-enter the army as a second lieutenant. Mrs. LaRue will accompany her husband to the border town, where he will be stationed for the present.

Bulbs! Bulbs!

Now Is the Time to Plant Them

We have surely gotten together a wonderful selection to choose from, and we'll be glad to tell you how to plant them to get the big perfect flowers.

- | | |
| SPECIAL SELECTED HYACINTHS
These are the biggest bulbs and produce the largest flowers. All colors. | EARLY TULIPS
We have found these to be the earliest varieties that do well in Arizona. |
| SELECTED HYACINTHS
These are a good standard size, and the price is especially attractive. All colors. | DOUBLE TULIPS
We have three special varieties of these that are very proud of. |
| BEDDING HYACINTHS
These are the lowest priced of these bulbs that it pays to plant and they produce a very satisfactory flower. | DARWIN TULIPS
These beautiful tulips come in all of the colors. Especially large flowers. |
| RANUNCULUS
These make a dandy border for the winter bulb bed. | PAPER WHITE NARCISSUS
Put several of these bulbs in one of our Lilly Bowls and fill the bowl with pebbles and water. An ideal house flower. |
| POETICUS ORNATUS
This is a beautiful early variety of Narcissus. | JONQUILS
These are the old-fashioned jonquill which grow in clusters. Very fragrant. |
