GIFT HANGERS FREE
AT SWITZER'S
How many women always have enough hangers in the wardrobe? This shop wanted to show in some practical way its appreciation of the splendid business its blouse and sweater section has done during the year and these dainty but practical garment hangers (enameled in "Boudoir Blue") are the result. One of the hangers will be given free with every waist and sweater selected at this shop between now and Christmas, regardless of purchase price.
A survey of this exclusive shop's stock of waists shows one rack crowded with beautiful georgette and tricolette waists on which the sign reads—"Choice $2.95 and $3.95." Even at these low prices a hanger is included. Another rack includes sweaters from $4.95 to $9.95 and the stock cases are full of blouses at all prices up to $29.95. The sweater tables feature wool "tricotons" and tuxedos at $4.95, $6.95, $8.95 and $9.95. All the higher priced sweaters are being sold at a discount of 20 percent. "Switzer's" is known as "Arizona's Smartest Shop for Women" and is located on the corner of Adams at First avenue.—Adv. 11

PLAN STATE WIDE ORGANIZATION OF THE BOY SCOUTS
Affiliation Of All Scout Troops in Arizona Is To Be Effected At Meeting In This City On Friday

A state wide organization of boy scouts will be formed Friday when a meeting of leading men of the state interested in the movement will be held in the city. The meeting, which will be held in the afternoon, will culminate in a banquet at the Hotel Adams which will be tendered the boy scout leaders of Arizona by J. E. Thompson, prime mover in the campaign for state affiliation of the different boy scout troops.
This program was mapped out yesterday at a noon luncheon given by Mr. Thompson at Hotel Adams as a courtesy to C. N. Miller, national field scout executive, who is here to launch the state organization. Among the men who took part in the discussion and planning for the state organization were Norman Carmichael of Clifton, Dean Scarlett, Joe V. Prochaska, Colonel James H. McClintock and L. C. Snow.
Banquet In Evening
It was decided to wire invitations to the banquet that every section of the state may be represented at the gathering. While the list is not complete, among others who were asked to participate are Charles Solomon of Tucson, J. E. Pollock and M. J. Riordan of Flagstaff, Judge Baughn of Florence, Joseph W. Smith of Snowflake, M. B. Hazeltine, Judge Wells and E. S. Clark of Prescott, R. E. Talley and George Kingdom of Jerome, Lalo Ferrin of Williams, W. A. Parr of Winslow and W. H. Neill of Clifton.
While there are numerous boy scout organizations scattered throughout the state, there is no affiliation between the different troops which will be brought about if the organization is perfected. Mr. Thompson has planned a summer camp in the White mountains which will be his personal gift to the scouts.
