"THE U. P. TRAIL" IS AT COLUMBIA

The super-production, "The U. P. Trail," opened at Mauk's Columbia theater yesterday for a three-day engagement.

This splendid, virile story of pioneer days of adventure along the Union Pacific railroad, where men from all over the world came to try their luck at gold-getting and gold-making, has lent itself remarkably well to the screen.

And in this atmosphere of contrasts "Beauty Stanton" herself presents the greatest contrast of all. A woman of evident refinement and good ancestry, she came to the town of Benton, "a roaring hell of lust and greed and gold and death" on the U. P. railroad, and established herself as owner and proprietress of the greatest dance hall and gambling saloon in the country.

music has even started it seems that all Phoenix has decided that there is only one bright spot in the city and that an evening's amusement at the American is complete.

"WAY DOWN EAST" TO BE AT THE ELKS ALL COMING WEEK

"Way Down East" with its pretty story and quaint characters of New England life is coming to the Elks theater for an engagement of one week starting with the Sunday matinee January 9.

Of course it is an old time story, yet is delightfully told. The pathos, humor and genuineness and the lovable everyday characters have combined to make "Way Down East" the everlasting success that it is and it is with a feeling of genuine delight that playgoers anticipate renewing the acquaintance of the kindly "down east" folks at the Elks next week.

The Brandon Stock company has an admirable cast for "Way Down East." Ray V. Brandon will be back in the cast as Hi Holler, Mr. Redmond will play Seth Holcomb, with menarch for "long life bitters," Eddie Young will be seen as Rube Whipple, George Banta, David Bartlett, James Hughes, plays Squire Bartlett, Marie Rieh is a good type for Anna Moore and "Bobbie" Deane will have one of the best parts in the play, that of Kate Brewster, the Squire's niece.

Mr. Redmond has spent much time on the direction and staging of "Way Down East" and promises an elaborate production. All the cows, calves, horses, sheep and chickens will be used in the original production and the wonderful snowstorm and blizzard will be exceedingly ingenious and effective.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED times each day in the United States the greedy hand of Fire seizes some home, some factory—snatches away, destroys forever some part of the nation's wealth.

How about your property? Is it adequately insured—is it properly safeguarded? Today, a fire loss entails the highest replacement cost in history. Therefore, be vigilant—for Carelessness and Fire are allies.

In addition to fire insurance, and without cost, the Hartford gives expert fire prevention service.
