

BACK FINANCE CORPORATION; OPEN PLANTS; A. M. E. A. TOLD

Its Operation Would Find Work For Thousands, Former Cabinet Members Says; Many Orders Available

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CLEVELAND, May 5.—Suspicion, hesitancy and a passive attitude toward subscribing for the stock of the foreign financing corporation are holding up millions of dollars worth of export trade which would open factories and find work for many thousands of unemployed, former Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield today told delegates to the national foreign trades council convention.

Gin-Compress Cotton Rates From Arizona to Mills Held To Be Unreasonable By I. C. C.

(By Republican Associated Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, May 5.—Arizona cotton shippers won a partial victory before the interstate commerce commission today when rates on gin-compress cotton from the state to Pennsylvania and New England mill centers were declared unreasonable.

Military Review By President Is Holiday Feature

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MEXICO CITY, May 5.—One year ago today Alvaro Obregon, with a price fixed on his head, was camped in the outskirts of Mexico City seeking to overthrow the Carranza government. Today, as president, he witnessed a military review on the occasion of the republic's celebration of victory in 1862 over the French at Puebla.

ULSTER PREMIER EXPLAINS IRISH WEAPONS DEAL WITH DE VALERA

Conference at Dublin May Have Important Bearing On Future Of Nation, Observers Assert

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] BELFAST, May 5.—Sir James Craig, premier-designate for Ulster, Professor Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, had a conference in Irish affairs in Dublin today, it was announced officially. It was added that they exchanged their respective viewpoints.

EBERT HAS REAL JOB FINDING MAN TO HEAD CABINET

BERLIN, May 5.—President Ebert was in conference today with the parties comprising the coalition bloc in the reichstag in an effort to find a man willing to organize a new cabinet.

There was talk today of assigning the foreign ministry in the new cabinet either to Dr. Wilhelm Mayer, ambassador to France, or Dr. St. Hamer, ambassador to Great Britain.

The cabinet of Chancellor Fehrenbach was continuing to function today in compliance with the president's request.

While the council has gone on record against wage cuts, he said that the unions were "willing to consider and accept any equitable wage adjustment that would be fitting in view of any reduction in the cost of living."

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

SAYS BUILDING TRADES WILL GO TO ARBITRATION

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Practically all the building trades unions are willing to submit wage reductions to arbitration, William Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, announced tonight after a meeting of the executive council of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor.

While the council has gone on record against wage cuts, he said that the unions were "willing to consider and accept any equitable wage adjustment that would be fitting in view of any reduction in the cost of living."

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

He said he was fair and see building boom," he added. He declared building material concerns were attempting to direct public attention to wages instead of reducing their prices.

CABINET WILL CONSIDER ALLIES' REQUEST FOR U. S. REPRESENTATION ON SUPREME COUNCIL TODAY

WASHINGTON, May 5.—President Harding today before him tonight the invitation to the United States to be represented on the supreme council the reparations commissions and the council of ambassadors. He was expected to bring the question before the cabinet tomorrow.

The invitation, cabled from London last night, was presented to the state department today by Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador, and later Secretary Hughes was in conference for half an hour with the president.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

There were some intimations also that a condition precedent to unreserved participation by the United States in deliberations abroad would be the acceptance by the allies of the principles laid down by Secretary Hughes in respect to mandates. Italy has expressed approval of the American position and France has given assurance that she would lose no time in bringing the status of Yap before the supreme council.

ARIZONA INDUSTRIES SHOW IMPROVEMENT FOR APRIL, REPORT

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Unemployment increased four-tenths of 1 per cent during April, according to the official report tonight by the department of labor.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Unemployment increased four-tenths of 1 per cent during April, according to the official report tonight by the department of labor.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Unemployment increased four-tenths of 1 per cent during April, according to the official report tonight by the department of labor.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Unemployment increased four-tenths of 1 per cent during April, according to the official report tonight by the department of labor.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Unemployment increased four-tenths of 1 per cent during April, according to the official report tonight by the department of labor.

URGES RECOGNITION OF OREGON REGIME BY BRITISH GOV'T

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LONDON, May 5.—Recognition of Mexico, on the ground that Mexico never would become stable until it secured recognition, was advocated in the house of commons by Major Christopher Lowther today during debate on foreign affairs.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LONDON, May 5.—Recognition of Mexico, on the ground that Mexico never would become stable until it secured recognition, was advocated in the house of commons by Major Christopher Lowther today during debate on foreign affairs.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LONDON, May 5.—Recognition of Mexico, on the ground that Mexico never would become stable until it secured recognition, was advocated in the house of commons by Major Christopher Lowther today during debate on foreign affairs.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LONDON, May 5.—Recognition of Mexico, on the ground that Mexico never would become stable until it secured recognition, was advocated in the house of commons by Major Christopher Lowther today during debate on foreign affairs.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LONDON, May 5.—Recognition of Mexico, on the ground that Mexico never would become stable until it secured recognition, was advocated in the house of commons by Major Christopher Lowther today during debate on foreign affairs.

Mrs. Stillman Told Of Her Infidelity Doctor Testifies

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, May 5.—Dr. Hugh Russell, a chiropractor at Buffalo, today testifying today at a hearing of the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, declared Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, his wife, admitted her infidelity in April, 1918, told him her husband was not the father of an expected child. The child, Guy, who is named after his mother and Fred Beauvais, an Indian guide, in the divorce suit, was born the following November.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, May 5.—Dr. Hugh Russell, a chiropractor at Buffalo, today testifying today at a hearing of the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, declared Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, his wife, admitted her infidelity in April, 1918, told him her husband was not the father of an expected child.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, May 5.—Dr. Hugh Russell, a chiropractor at Buffalo, today testifying today at a hearing of the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, declared Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, his wife, admitted her infidelity in April, 1918, told him her husband was not the father of an expected child.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, May 5.—Dr. Hugh Russell, a chiropractor at Buffalo, today testifying today at a hearing of the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, declared Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, his wife, admitted her infidelity in April, 1918, told him her husband was not the father of an expected child.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, May 5.—Dr. Hugh Russell, a chiropractor at Buffalo, today testifying today at a hearing of the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, declared Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, his wife, admitted her infidelity in April, 1918, told him her husband was not the father of an expected child.

WHIPPLE BARRACKS EXPANSION ORDERED BY TREASURY DEPT.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 5.—The secretary of the treasury has ordered the expansion of the public health service hospital at Whipple Barracks, according to a message received here today from Secretary Henry P. Ashurst at Washington.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 5.—The secretary of the treasury has ordered the expansion of the public health service hospital at Whipple Barracks, according to a message received here today from Secretary Henry P. Ashurst at Washington.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 5.—The secretary of the treasury has ordered the expansion of the public health service hospital at Whipple Barracks, according to a message received here today from Secretary Henry P. Ashurst at Washington.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 5.—The secretary of the treasury has ordered the expansion of the public health service hospital at Whipple Barracks, according to a message received here today from Secretary Henry P. Ashurst at Washington.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 5.—The secretary of the treasury has ordered the expansion of the public health service hospital at Whipple Barracks, according to a message received here today from Secretary Henry P. Ashurst at Washington.

REPEAL OF EXCESS PROFITS TAX URGED BY BANKERS' ASSO.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PINEBURST, N. C., May 5.—Reports of committees bearing on financial problems in relation to publication of the annual report of the American Bankers' association in session here.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PINEBURST, N. C., May 5.—Reports of committees bearing on financial problems in relation to publication of the annual report of the American Bankers' association in session here.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PINEBURST, N. C., May 5.—Reports of committees bearing on financial problems in relation to publication of the annual report of the American Bankers' association in session here.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PINEBURST, N. C., May 5.—Reports of committees bearing on financial problems in relation to publication of the annual report of the American Bankers' association in session here.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PINEBURST, N. C., May 5.—Reports of committees bearing on financial problems in relation to publication of the annual report of the American Bankers' association in session here.

SENATE DEMOCRATS CONTINUE FIGHT ON EMERGENCY TARIFF

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate democratic leaders continued their attack on the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill today, although the majority of the senate is in favor of the measure.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate democratic leaders continued their attack on the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill today, although the majority of the senate is in favor of the measure.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate democratic leaders continued their attack on the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill today, although the majority of the senate is in favor of the measure.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate democratic leaders continued their attack on the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill today, although the majority of the senate is in favor of the measure.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate democratic leaders continued their attack on the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill today, although the majority of the senate is in favor of the measure.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate democratic leaders continued their attack on the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill today, although the majority of the senate is in favor of the measure.

CONGRESS TO PRINT ALL SLACKER LISTS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—The war department slackers lists as issued from time to time will be published in the congressional records. Requests for such publication were made in the house today by Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, a former service man, and there was no objection.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—The war department slackers lists as issued from time to time will be published in the congressional records. Requests for such publication were made in the house today by Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, a former service man, and there was no objection.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—The war department slackers lists as issued from time to time will be published in the congressional records. Requests for such publication were made in the house today by Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, a former service man, and there was no objection.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—The war department slackers lists as issued from time to time will be published in the congressional records. Requests for such publication were made in the house today by Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, a former service man, and there was no objection.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—The war department slackers lists as issued from time to time will be published in the congressional records. Requests for such publication were made in the house today by Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, a former service man, and there was no objection.

AN AUDIENCE OF TEN MILLION

The readers of The Republican are among the ten million who are inspired daily by an article by Dr. Frank Crane.

HOUSE PASSES BUDGET BILL; VOTE IS 344-9

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, May 5.—The budget bill was passed today by the house but with some changes as adopted by the senate. It now goes to conference.

TWO LINERS CLEAR PORT AS TIUP OF SHIPPING BREAKS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, May 5.—Two American passenger liners, the Callao for South America and the Potomac for Bremen and Danzig, were loaded today with passengers and cargo and were moved from their docks to an anchorage in the lower harbor. Both ships, owners said, are fully manned with replacement crews and will sail within 24 hours. Union leaders asserted that the men were ready for sailing today, according to the shipping board officials. Union officials declared none of them are fully manned and that the men were not ready to sail today. The men were not ready to sail today, according to the shipping board officials. Union officials declared none of them are fully manned and that the men were not ready to sail today.

NEGROES ASK EQUAL PRIVILEGES

WASHINGTON, May 5.—A memorial asking that race segregation be abolished in the executive department of the government, was presented to President Harding today by a delegation of negroes representing the National Race Congress of America. The appeal also asked that the federal government exercise its powers over lynching, peonage, restriction of negro suffrage and Jim Crow regulations.

POLISH WOMEN SOUND APPEAL

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Polish women of Upper Silesia in a declaration addressed to American women received today, declare that the Polish insurgent will never permit themselves to be battered like Upper Silesian coal and iron "for which international intrigue and diplomacy are fighting."

YOUTH DROWNED IN GASOLINE CAR

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, May 5.—Marion Bielicker, 17, was found drowned in a car of gasoline on the Kansas City and Southern tracks near here. He evidently had been overcome by fumes and slipped into the liquid.

WILL FINANCE EXPORTS

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The war finance corporation announced tonight it was prepared to make advances for financing exports of California packing products. Banks in that state have been advised, the corporation said, that applications for advances would be considered on the basis of prompt shipment against deferred payments.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)