British and French Delegates in Plain-Spoken Exchange of Possibilities of War

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Efforts to limit the naval strength of the powers in submarines and auxiliary warships came to an abrupt end today after they had discussed the French and British arms conference delegates into a plain-spoken exchange of the possibilities of a future war to be helpless voluntarily and by written agreement in the presence of Great Britain. Members of the delegation headed by M. Balfour, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Sarraut, on reparations and associated economic will touch Washington conference questions. The question of submarines and other light tonnage vessels is believed by the French to go far deeper than current financial problems and having in it something fundamental and traditional reaching back into the long rivalry which has existed more or less since 1818 between Great Britain and France.

REGULATION OF SUBWARFARE PROPOSED BY DELEGATE ROOT

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—A proposal for regulation of submarine warfare was introduced today by Delegate Root to the naval committee when it resumed its session this afternoon to apply certain rules of international law to the use of submarines in warfare was referred to a sub-committee for consideration.

The Root proposals were said to contain no provisions which had not been outlined, but were not made public immediately when the committee adjourned late tonight.

The French delegates objected to the American proposal for a maximum of 10,000 tons for auxiliary vessels, their spokesmen saying they could not accept a limitation without express authority from their government. They agreed to refer the question to Paris with the expectation of an answer possibly by tomorrow when the committee resumes its discussions.

Definite agreement however, was said to have been reached to limit the size of guns on auxiliary ships to eight inches, proposed at the morning session. The size of guns on capital ships, not previously disposed of, it was agreed, should be limited to sixteen-inch guns.

Great Britain and Japan, it was said, offered however, no objections to the American suggestion for a 10,000 ton limit on auxiliary craft. In American quarters, it was said that the French attitude on auxiliary vessels, as on submarines, was holding up a possible agreement.

The question of limitation of auxiliary vessels also was taken up for consideration late in the day. The American limitation proposals given in Secretary Hughes' opening address, were laid before the committee but further consideration went over until tomorrow.

Late it was explained that the Root resolutions to require observance of civilized rules in submarine warfare, provide that submarine commanders should be prohibited from capturing merchant vessels without warning and should be required to observe the usual rules of visit and search in dealing with such craft.

BRITISH DEPLORE FRENCH STAND ON SUBMARINE LIMIT

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Surprise was expressed by British delegates tonight over developments in today's meetings of the conference naval committee when it was announced that the French refusal to limit tonnage of submarines.

"It is sad," a British spokesman said, "it is deplorable that any nation should have taken such a position as we have seen taken. There can be no limitation now on the number of craft that we must build for anti-submarine purposes." It was fortunate for Great Britain, he continued, if there was to be unlimited submarine construction that she possessed a great fleet of trawlers and other steel fishing craft which could be used for anti-submarine purposes.

Although it was said that the British were not in a position to build to the same extent as other nations.

He declared that the British were in hearty sympathy with the resolution proposed by Mr. Root regarding use of submarines, but he said a plan to restrict submarine attacks to naval vessels would have no effect on Great Britain. She would build anti-submarine craft, he said, as no nation could be trusted to abide by such rules when its back was against the wall. The British case would be fully set forth at the next plenary session, he added.

Although the conference had failed to stop expenditures for submarine fleets, he continued, it would be in error to regard the conference as a failure. The British case would be fully set forth at the next plenary session, he added.

It was further said by the spokesman that the failure to fix a limit on the size and character of auxiliaries, particularly aircraft,

JUSSERAND ASSERTS ASSEMBLY BRINGING NATIONS TOGETHER

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 28.—The arms conference is bringing the nations closer together, and formation of the league of nations shows the world is on the verge of peace, Jusserand, French delegate, asserted tonight before the convention of the American Historical association of which he is president.

"Honest nations," he said, "have been considering what could be tried to prevent recurrence of catastrophes like the present one, and the smaller nations. And they thought themselves of that organism which we see struggling for a useful existence, the league of nations, with its permanent tribunal. Many disagree with the plan, but all agree with its object.

"Years may elapse before the goal is reached; but a great thing is that the goal stands visible, as a beacon, before the world. The Washington conference is just now causing us to come nearer.

"Secret treaties already forbidden by the league covenant will cease to be secret. Actual armistices, however, will be initiated and conducted in public in all their phases only when humanity is composed of nations impervious to the deceptions, the exigencies, the fury, the ridicule, the idolatry of the agora."

Having to keep their governments well informed, he emphasized that ambassadors should keep themselves well informed so as to make their reports more frank and less contemptible.

"Use of spies is utterly contemptible," he declared. "The envoy should have recourse, for information not furnished by the host, to his own eyes and ears. There is no safety in using a traitor."

In an address this afternoon, the ambassador affirmed that France needed submarines for its protection, but added the French naval situation had been misunderstood by many.
