

SCALPERS' TICKETS!

Discussion Before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Fatal Shooting Affray in a Saloon in Chicago.

Congressman Grosvenor Denounces Carl Schurz and the Civil Service Law.

INDIAN SHOW AT OMAHA.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The interstate commerce commission to-day resumed the hearing on the anti-scalper bill. Mr.
McKenzie, president of the American Ticket Brokers' association, said that he had received affidavits from a number of ticket brokers confirming his statement that the brokers secured ninety-five per cent of the tickets sold by them from the railroad companies. When Senator Calton asked for names, McKenzie declined to give them except under summons.

E. J. Thiele, of the Illinois Commercial Men's association, opposed the bill as an unjust, claiming that the owner of a railroad ticket should be allowed to dispose of it as he might see fit, as would the owner of any other commodity.

Senator Wolcott made the point that no honorable man would be caught traveling around on another man's name on a non-transferable ticket.

Thiele said that he had known men whom he believed to be honest, doing that very thing. He said what the traveling men wanted was a uniform flat $20 thousand rate.

F. K. Dow, president of the Commercial Travelers' National League, also appeared in antagonism to the bill.

William S. King, president of the Merchants' association of New York, spoke for the bill. He characterized as forgery the dealing in railroad tickets which, he said, was opposed to the constitution of the United States.

GROSVENOR SPEAKS.

The Ohio Congressman Denounces the Civil Service Law.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The house to-day promptly resumed the debate of the civil service question. Grosvenor, Ohio, took the floor with an elaborate speech in opposition to the law. Grosvenor disclaimed any leadership of the anti-civil service reform forces and any purpose to speak for any officer of the government, except legislative or judicial.

"All efforts to entangle me in collision with the president," said he, "were as much powder wasted. If I believed my relations to the executive to be changed or modified because I differ with him in my representative capacity I would despise him as he would despise me if I faltered in my convictions."

Grosvenor proceeded to pay his respects to the national civil service reform league and to Carl Schurz, its president.
His exhortation of the latter was the most scathing heard on the floor of the house in months. He denounced unparalleled those who sought to read out of the republican party those who disbelieved in the civil service law.

With strong language he sketched the political career of Schurz, which he characterized as the "checkered, spotted, leprous career of one who betrayed every party and every duty to which he was bound and whose betrayals have been his only stock in trade in the arena of politics."

Grosvenor denounced George William Curtis and other high priests of civil service reform who, he said, had been traitors to the republican party, and argued that as Cleveland had extended the civil service enormously after the St. Louis platform was adopted, the republicans were not bound by the platform as regarded these extensions. He warned the republicans that the people overwhelmed by Johnson (republican) followed Grosvenor with an elaborate argument in defense of the merit system.

Johnson and his colleagues, Landis (republican, Indiana), had a hot cross-debate, and the galleries so hysterically applauded the latter's opposition to the present system that the chair had to suspend the debate and admonish the gal-eries that demonstrations must cease.

Omaha Indian Show.
Washington, Jan. 6.—In the senate today, Allen, of Nebraska, called up and the senate passed a bill providing for the holding of a congress of representatives of the different Indian tribes at Omaha, in 1898, and appropriating $100, 000 therefor. A bill to protect the name and insignia of the red cross was passed.
The senate then went into executive session.

Robbery Discovers.
Kansas City, Jan. 6.—The detective department of the Missouri Pacific railway has unearthed a conspiracy at Kansas City stock yards, by which, it is alleged, it has been robbed of thousands of dollars on live stock shipments. False affravils of shortage in number of live stock received here, have come to the claim department of the Missouri Pacific and shippers have been paid for the number of head of stock reported missing. It has been going on for years.

BIG ROBBERY.
American Express Company Robbed of One Million Dollars.
New York, Jan. 6.—The Evening Telegram prints a report, which has not been verified, that the American Express company was robbed last night of $1,000,000 given it for transportation.

The money was said to have been taken from one car of the through western express while the train was being made up in the yards at Forty-eighth street. Officers of the company refuse to talk regarding the robbery.

The money was said to have been in bags ready to place in a safe. The Western Express train leaves the Grand Central yards at 8:15. It goes through to Chicago, dropping off cars at intermediate cities. There are eleven cars in the train usually, which carries nothing but express shipments. Large sums of money are frequently sent west in this train.

According to a report received by the Evening Telegram, the clerks found the money bags filled when they reached the car. The robbers evidently had been watching the methods of handling money shipped on this train.

At the office of the president of the American Express company, the Associated Press reporter was told that no robbery had been heard of. The president, however, refused to deny the truth of the story, merely confining himself to the statement that he had not been advised of any such occurrence.

The story as printed by the Evening Telegram was denied at the Grand Central depot and all accessible sources of information. It was learned, however, that a detective agency reported that Clark Braden, Jr., night clerk, employed at the branch office of the American Express company, had to day stolen five $1,000 bonds of the Consumers' Gas company, of Chicago. The bankers and brokers were notified not to accept these bonds, and if possible to arrest the person presenting them. Whether Braden took more than this amount is not positively known.

Besides taking $5,000 bonds, Braden is alleged to have taken $5,000 cash, making a total robbery of $10,000.

GASHEWER KILLED.
Fatal Shooting Affray in a Tough Chicago Saloon.
Chicago, Jan. 6.—"Kid" Murphy, a noted Chicago gambler of the shell-worker variety, was shot dead, and Frank, alias Dickey Dean and Martin Donahue were shot, probably fatally, during a quarrel last night in a saloon at No. 117 north Clark street. The affair is said to be the result of a feud of several months' standing. The police information is that Murphy entered the saloon evidently in search of trouble, and immediately upon seeing Donahue stepped between the men and received the second shot, the first going wide. Donahue and Murphy fired three shots each. Donahue is a saloon keeper and Dean a constable. Thirteen men were arrested in the saloon, among them being "Major" Sampson, who was suspected of complicity in the murder of Gus Collander during the election riot three years ago.

The general theory is that the trouble originated in the stabbing affray in Donahue's saloon about three months ago between Murphy and Joe Kehoe. Murphy was stabbed over the eye and blamed Martin Donahue for causing the trouble.
Murphy and Dean were the leaders of a gang of toughs, who, three years ago, beat Lieutenant Collander, now Captain Collera, chief of detectives and threw him over the Randolph street viaduct.

HANNA BEATEN!

The Opposition to Him Claim a Big Majority.

Republicans of Ohio Bitterly Denounce Bushnell and Kurtz.

Durrant, the Murderer, Will Surely Be Hanged To-morrow Morning.

RANDSBURG RAILROAD BEING OPERATED.

Columbus, O., Jan. 6.—As the "count of nooses" stands now with the steering committee, Senator Hanna is beaten. The opposition has a majority on joint ballot of three or four on concessions of republican members who are supporting Hanna.
The opposition claims six to seven majority, and is secretly making concessions, but will be required to keep up the closest vigilance for a week or more to hold their men in line. The pressure from constituents of the bolting republican members is increasing every day, and is likely to be overwhelming next week.

Republican papers are full of accounts of proceedings and resolutions of republican committees, clubs and other organizations denouncing Gov. Bushnell and the republicans. One paper at Springfield, in which the governor is interested, is said to be the only republican newspaper in the state that is not denouncing the republican opponents of Hanna.

The most important development today was a conference in favor of Jephtha Garrard, silver republican, as the man on whom the opposition will try to concentrate against Hanna.

DURRANT DOOMED.

The San Francisco Murderer Will Surely Hang To-morrow.

San Quentin Prison, Cal., Jan. 6.— Theodore Durrant has but a few more hours of life. Governor Ridd has instructed Warden Hale to go ahead with the execution on Friday and use extraordinary care to prevent an attempt at suicide by the condemned man. Durrant is breaking down rapidly.

Nearly 200 invitations have been issued for the hanging.

Durrant has rehearsed the scene of his own death. At his own request, made absolutely without motion, he has been told every incident that will mark the minutes of his last hours of life. From the moment that he awakens to-morrow morning until Warden Hale gives the signal to spring the trap, Theodore Dur-rant knows what is expected of him.

The condemned man has made the following requests concerning his execution: First, that the rope used to hang him shall be destroyed immediately after his death, so that no person can say that he holds a piece of it as a memento.
Second, that none of the spectators shall be allowed to gaze upon his face after he is executed. Third, that no autopsy shall be held after death, and that no physician be allowed to examine his body. Fourth, that after he is pronounced dead his remains shall be delivered to his parents as soon as possible.

SPECIAL SERVICES.
The Prayer Meetings of the Week Filled With Interest.
There was a great deal of interest manifested in the first prayer meeting of the week, held in the Congregational church last evening, with Rev. A. C. Welch, of the Lead Avenue Methodist church, as leader.

The church was nearly filled, and many took part in the service with a word of testimony for the Lord and Master in prayer.

The meeting this evening will be held in the Lead Avenue Methodist church, Rev. D. Y. Bagby, of the Baptist church, leading, subject, "The Holy Spirit, Grief-ing Him."
Everyone is cordially invited to attend.
Come and bring a friend.

Made Adverse Report.
Washington, Jan. 6.—In the executive session to-day Senator Pettigrew, chairman of the committee on Indian affairs, made adverse report for "home rule" reasons upon the following named persons to be Indian agents: Charles Mc-Nichols, Colorado River agency, Cal.; Edward Goldberg, Quapaw, I. T.; Chas.
G. Keyse, Fort Apache, Arizona; Fred B.
Spriggs, Nevada agency, Nevada.

Bought Railroad Stock.
New York, Jan. 6.—J. P. Morgan & Co. have purchased majority stock in the Susquehanna and Western railroad. It is understood that the purchase has been made in the interest of the Erie road.

Attention, Woodmen!
A general attendance is respectfully desired at our public installation of officers to-morrow evening at our camp in Knights of Pythias hall. Come and bring your families and invited guests.
Let us make the occasion a delightful one. An elaborate program will be rendered. By order of D. E. PHILLIPS, Consul Commander.

W. H. H. ALLISON, Clerk.
More Checks Appear.
The attachment case of Wetman & Lewinson against Miles Allen was adjudged yesterday afternoon until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Horton Moore completed the argument for the defense and T. N. Wilkerson asked the court for time to look up some authorities, so the matter was adjourned.

Justice Crawford has received a letter from B. F. Forsythe, a saloon man of Las Vegas, with a check enclosed for $76 and identical in every respect to the one cashied by Wetman & Lewinson. Forsythe is the last one heard from and he will have considerable trouble in recovering any of his wasted shekels.

MASON AND HAYERFORD.
They Indulge in a Flat Fight First, Followed by Knife Cutting.
One of the most vicious personal encounters that has occurred in this city for some time took place last evening when William Hayerford, the carpenter, and Billy Mason became involved in a misunderstanding as to who was to pay for a couple of drinks at the Montezuma saloon.

Hayerford had been trying his luck at some of the games of chance and had come out winner. As he stepped up to the bar and called for the drinks, Billy Mason asked if he wasn't going to be in on the treat. Hayerford replied in the affirmative whereupon Mason called up a few of his friends.

When the time came for settling Hayerford refused to pay for the drinks of Mason's friends as he had not invited them.
A hot dispute followed which soon led to blows.

Hayerford knocked Mason down three times in succession and then Mason's friends interfered and tried to stop the fight.

They held Mason and Hayerford walked out.

Mason broke away from his friends and the fight was renewed on Second street and the encounter that followed was much more bloody than the one which occurred in the saloon.

Both of the combatants seem to have used knives, for the marks on their faces are any evidence.

Hayerford seems to have got the worst of it in the cutting match for when it was over he was found to have an ugly gash in the face extending from the cheek bone to the mouth. Dr. Haynes happened to be by and Hayerford was taken to his office and had his cut and bleeding face stitched together again.

Mason was arrested by Marshal Cobert and Deputy Sheriff Fornoff. One of his thumbs were cut and there was a small gash over one eye. His vest was also cut.
No knife was found upon him by the officers, although Hayerford said that he had one in his hand when he came out of the saloon.

Mason is a strong, athletic young man, and well-known in the city.

Hayerford is a carpenter for W. W.
Strong and has always borne a quiet disposition, and is regarded as a very peaceful citizen. Mr. Strong speaks in high terms of him as a workman and as a law-abiding citizen, and, naturally regrets his conflict with Mason last night.

At 10 o'clock this morning Mason appeared before Justice Crawford to answer to the complaint of Hayerford, who charged him with assaulting him with a knife. The preliminary hearing was adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon, and Mason was required to furnish a bond of $500 to appear at that hour. In default of a bond Mason remained in the custody of Officer Rosal until this afternoon.

A large crowd gathered at the police court this afternoon from curiosity in the outcome of the case. Mason appeared, waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury and required to furnish a bond of $500. Justice Crawford turned him over to the sheriff and instructed the latter to approve or disapprove his bond when he offered one.
Mason expects to furnish the required bond this afternoon. He is, at present in, charge of Deputy Sheriff Fornoff.

Currency Reform Bill Introduced in the House of Representatives.

MISSOURI IS A PROSPEROUS STATE.

New York, Jan. 6.—W. T. Buckley, aged 55, a member of the dry goods firm of Latham, Buckley & Co., shot himself in the head at his home, Wave Crest, Long Island, to-day, dying without regaining consciousness.
Buckley is reputed to be a millionaire.
His hunting stable is one of the finest on Long Island.
There does not seem to be any doubt but that Buckley committed suicide on account of business troubles. It is alleged that he had a serious misunderstanding with Mr. Dunham, his business partner, which resulted in Mr. Buckley being forced out of the firm.

Missouri is Prosperous.
Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 6.—State Auditor Sieberts, republican, shows that $4,166,490.35 was received into the state in the year 1897, and that $4,094,947.21 was paid out. Balance in the treasury Jan. 1, 1897, $57,463.05, and on Jan. 1, 1898, $649,006.19, in increase of $71,543.14; and $500,000 in bonds was paid, which leaves the total state debt at $4,500,000 of 3½ per cent coupon bonds.

Currency Reform Bill.
Washington, Jan. 6.—Representative Overstreet, of Indiana, introduced in the house to-day a comprehensive bill for carrying out the plan of the monetary commission for a reform of the currency.
The bill was referred by Speaker Reed to the committee on banking, and Chairman Walker has arranged to give early hearings to Senator Edmunds, chairman of the commission, and other members.

English Secures Ports in China.
London, Jan. 6.—It is learned that in the event of Great Britain's guaranteeing the new Chinese loan the concessions required will be the opening of new treaty ports to all nations alike.
A financial article in the Globe says that it is reported on the stock exchange that the British government has arranged to guarantee a Chinese loan of £10,000,000 at 3 per cent, the price of issue to be annual.

A few days ago George Green, a horseman from Grand Rapids, Mich., arrived in the city with his 2-year-old trotter, "Cimarron Boy," and the animal, a pretty bay, sired by the famous trotter, Joe Patchen, can be seen at Olmsted's livery stables on First street. Mr. Green would like to match his horse against any trotter in this city, for love or money and here is a chance for Phelan's "Billy Granger."

Dr. F. Crosson returned last night from El Paso, where he accompanied an invalid, J. D. Semple, who was to have met relatives from Fort Worth, Texas. He died, however, two hours before they could reach him. Semple came here from Honolulu, Hawaii, but was an old acquaintance of Dr. Crosson, in St. Paul, Minn.
