Sheriff Kinell came down from Santa Fe last night with Sheriff Hubbell arrested Elias Chavez while working at the Crystal Ice company's plant, who was indicted by the Santa Fe county grand jury for stealing some horses from Mr. Humphrey at Gallisteo. The crime is alleged to have taken place some time back. Chavez accompanied Sheriff Kinell to Santa Fe and he will soon have his trial before the petit jury.

Superintendent Trimble, of the street railway, came over to this side at 11 o'clock this morning, and on seeing THE CITIZEN representative announced that "the grand free concert at Orchestra hall last night was a blooming success. The professors rendered a half a dozen or more new pieces, which delighted those in attendance, and this was followed by a dance lasting fully two hours." The superintendent also stated that there would be another free concert at Orchestra hall on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

"Everybody, except a few who are always behind in meeting their obligations," said a well-known bill collector this morning, "are paying up their accounts, but even these few," continued the talker, "expect to be on the good list in a very short time, and have renewed their promises, 'I will see you soon,' thus giving encouragement and making the 'good times' assertion doubly sure."

Chas. Hubbell, from the west, is in the city, and is enjoying himself in a grand style. He is a brother of Frank, Felipe and Thos. Hubbell, and is a "chip off the old block." Charles has prospered in the sheep raising business the past year, and is here to prove conclusively that there are good times.

P. K. Harroun and wife are now located at Mrs. Maloy's place on south Third street. Mr. Harroun is fitting up an engineering office in room 13, Grant building. He expects to start the work of surveying for the low-line canal tomorrow.

Harry Fleischman, who has been holding down a clerkship at the H. D. Becker store in Laleta, has returned to the city and will remain in the city in the future. Mr. Fleischman is a former clerk at "The Racket."

CONTINUATION OF SPECIAL SALE

FOR ONE WEEK LONGER!

Until Saturday, Jan. 8, Inclusive

Ladies' Capes and Jackets—We still have an immense stock of these goods on hand. We don't want to keep one over. There is only one way to gain this end—Cut the Price. We're doing this with vim. Capes worth $2, now $1.25; capes worth $3, now $2.50; capes worth $4, now $2.50; jackets worth $4, now $3.50; jackets worth $8, now $5; jackets worth $10, now $6.50. We are not giving fictional values on the goods, but prices at which they sold.

Ladies' Kid Gloves—We have been selling them for $1.25 to introduce them. They are splendid $1.50 value. Four money back if they burst. During this sale at $1 per pair.

Underwear—For the whole family, 20 per cent off our regular prices. These regular prices must have been way down, judging by the underwear we sold, and the public's verdict of sales. This brings our $1.50 garments to $1.20; our $1.25 garments to $1; our $1.75 garments to 70c; our 75c garments to 60c; our 50c garments to 40c. And others at same rate.

Ladies' Belts, Pocket Books, Linen and Silk Handkerchiefs at equally reduced prices. White Hemstitched and Scalloped Handkerchiefs at 3 for 25c

ROSENWALD BROS.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Personal and General Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There.

Jose Santos Equibel, of Las Vegas, so says the Optic, is in the city.

The ladies of the Children's Home held a regular meeting at the home this afternoon.

Mrs. E. W. Franz, of this city, is at Santa Fe on a visit to Mrs. Frank S. Davis, and will remain there several weeks.

W. H. Constable, of El Paso, and Julius Sues, of St. Louis, two well-known southwestern drummers, are in the city with their samples.

The New Mexican says: "Martin Wells and Frank Burnett came in last night from Albuquerque to attend court. They registered at the Bon-Ton."

City Engineer E. A. Pearson is laying out some lots in Santa Barbara cemetery to-day besides doing some survey work looking to the improvement of the cemetery.

Mrs. W. L. Crockett, of Las Vegas, passed through the city Tuesday night for Los Angeles, in response to a telegram announcing the illness of her husband, Col. Crockett.

If the stockholders' notice in the Democrat is correct, the First National bank will not hold that stockholders' meeting until the 11th of January, 1908. Horse and horse, eh!

The Prescott Journal says: "J. D. Kakin, of the wholesale liquor firm of Melini & Kakin, of Albuquerque, is in town taking orders for his house and attending to some mining interests owned by the firm here."

Joseph C. Moore and wife, and A. H. Danforth and wife, of Charleston, Mo., came in from the north last night and are among the arrivals at Sturges' European. They are excellent people, and will probably remain here for a few days.

P. M. Sandoval, the outside rustler for Bachechi & Giomi, returned to the city last night, after a very successful trip through the southern counties of New Mexico and Arizona. After informing the newspaper scribe that he found business good, which made general Joe wear a huge smile for a long time, Mr. Sandoval stated that the town of Morenci, Arizona, was coming to the front Phoenix-like since the disastrous fire of a few weeks ago, and that Morenci is enjoying one of the greatest booms ever known in Arizona. "The busy hum of the hammer is heard all over the Morenci precinct," said Mr. Sandoval, "and the big mining company will soon resume work with a 1000 men on its pay roll."

H. T. McKinney, resident manager of the Alton Mining and Milling company, out in Hell canyon, drove in from the canyon late yesterday afternoon, and will rusticate at his valley ranch south of the city for a few days, although he came up to enjoy a few hours with his city friends today. Mr. McKinney states that his company is still experiencing some trouble in getting their big mill in operation, but he asserts emphatically that everything will be working in good order in a very short time.

Dr. S. Aubright will deliver a free lecture at the opera house next Tuesday night, January 11, at 8 p. m., on "The Public Health of the United States; and the Reasons why a Sanitarium should be Established at Albuquerque." Arrangements have been made for the use of the hall. Everybody, ladies and gentlemen, are cordially invited to attend.

J. E. Hurley, division superintendent; J. M. Meade, division engineer, and Stenographer Kitor, came in from the north last night, and continued south this morning, to look over the road south of the city. McCoy, Key and Gibson, of the engineering corps, returned south with Messrs. Meade and Hurley.

Bob Lody, the teamster between this city and Jemez hot springs, drove in from the springs yesterday afternoon, and will load up with merchandise to-day for the general merchants at the springs.

Paul Frisari, with two wagons loaded with ranch supplies and provisions, left for the mountains east of the city this morning.

"Mrs. Chas. Stucke, who was at Albuquerque attending her sick mother, has returned to her home in Needles," says the Key.

Rev. Doreber, the parish priest of Laleta, who was at El Paso, returned to Laleta yesterday afternoon.

True to our well established custom never to carry over goods from one season to another, we will start in next week to close out all of our Winter Goods at prices never before approached. Wait for announcement in next issue of this paper. SIMON STERN, The R. R. Ave. Clothier

G. K. Ayer, the popular trainmaster, is in the city to-day from San Marcial.

C. E. Hallston, the cattle inspector south of the city, is here to-day from King.

Judge W. C. Heacock and E. V. Chavez, attorneys, who were at Socorro on legal matters, returned to the city last night.

Ernest Meyers, the junior member of the liquor establishment of Lowenthal & Meyers, was a passenger for Santa Fe last night.

C. F. Kautchley and Charles Ray were found guilty of vagrancy by Justice Crawford this morning and given ten days apiece on the street force.

Hon. W. B. Childers, United States attorney, and S. B. Gillett, junior member of the law firm of Warren, Ferguson & Gillett, are at Socorro to-day attending court.

Jas. D. Eakin, the junior member and traveling man for the liquor firm of Melini & Kakin, who has been out west the past few weeks, is expected to arrive this evening.

Judge Quarton, of Iowa, and Ephraim Ryan, of Leavenworth, Kan., passed through the city last night on their way to Jerome, Arizona, where they are interested in mining.

Miss Zilla Weidner, who left a short time ago on a visit to relatives and friends in Iowa, is reported to be quite ill, and her mother, Mrs. E. C. Weidner, fears a telegram calling her to the bedside of her sick daughter.

Hon. Sol. Luna, the well-known collector of Valencia county, and Hon. A. M. Bergere, the treasurer who aspires to the clerkship of the First judicial district, under Judge McFie, are here to-day from Los Lunas. Mrs. Bergere accompanied her husband to the city.

R. H. Shaw, one of the best known handlines in the Cochiti district, is to-day enjoying himself among his many Albuquerque friends. He states that the Cochitis will blossom into genuine property during this year, and the development of some of the mines will prove them to be the richest in the southwest country.

GOLDEN RULE DRY GOODS CO.

On account of the big business last week we were unable to take inventory. We will continue our Inventory Sale this week. Remember, this is positively the last week to get the benefit of very low prices.

To Clean up Cloaks and Capes. Many of you have waited for this great sale; you have not waited in vain. The cloaks must go. It isn't a question of less, that's not considered. Stylish, up-to-date garments were never sold at such a sacrifice before in this section. All Cloaks and Capes the Price is cut in two. All go at one-half former price.

That Dress Goods Stock. Is top heavy. We've gone carefully through it and cut prices right and left. There'll be some empty dress goods fixtures in this store a week hence.

Colored Dress Goods. Former price, 35c to 45c per yard. Now 25c.

Another Lot of Novelty Goods. Former price from 50c to 75c per yard. Now 35c.

The Black Goods. Must go along with the rest. Staple as wheat; good as gold, but that won't save them from sacrifice. We said that this sale should reach every corner of the store and we meant it, every word. All profits cut off. These Black Dress Goods at actual cost.

A Silk Slide. Bunched into lots are many of these beauties, some at one-half, some at two-thirds early season's prices. Silks for waists, silks for gowns, silks for any purpose, and priced on a par with ordinary woolsens. Silks at 22c, 25c, 30c, 40c, 55c, 70c and 80c per yard. Who cannot afford a silk dress, waist or skirt at these prices?

A Handkerchief Hustle. Several big lots that were used in the Christmas decorations will be sold. Nothing wrong with them but the price and dust. Be sure any of the lot. Use buys Initial Silk Handkerchiefs.

Here's a Corset Chance. All odd lines, broken assortments of size or color, no matter how staple, stacked upon the counter in lots and reduced to prices that will move them in a jiffy. If your size or style of corset is among them, then you're in luck. All go at 50c each, worth up to $1.50 each.

Housekeeping Goods. At mill prices, but it's only for a week, and we're set out to give our buying public a benefit that they'll talk about. We are going to sell cottons, shirtings, sheetings, outing flannels, towels, crapes, etc., etc., at such prices that you can well afford to replenish your home outfit for months to come. Good Bleached and Unbleached Muslins; 5c; Shirtings, 4c per yard; Sheetings, 12 1/2c to 20c; Outings; Flannels, 5c to 8 1/2c; Towels from 5c upwards; Crapes from 3c upwards.

The Blankets, the Bedspreads, the Comforts. All have been stripped of their legitimate profits and turned loose to swell the procession thus: One-third off Former Prices. A big lot of short length table damasks, lengths from 2 yards to 3 1/2 yards, all grades, bleached and unbleached, at sale prices. From 25c to 65c per yard.

To Close Out the Winter Underwear Stock. Every item of men's, women's and children's warm winter underwear will be offered at prices to crowd the section with eager buyers during the entire week of the sale. One-fourth off Former Prices.

The Hosiery Reductions. We spare nothing, no matter how staple. It's carnival time for dry goods buyers in this store just now and we want your dollars to go further than they ever did before. The best 25c Ladies' Hose at 15c. Wool Hose for Ladies, Misses and Children at 1/3 Former Price.

Golden Rule Dry Goods Co.
