HIGHLAND-Lovely Red-Daisy Restaurant. Fine Sample Room.

Tin work. Whitney Co. Stove repairs at Putrelle's. Floor matting. Whitney Co. Curios and drawn work at Matson's. Bicycles on installments. Hahn & Co. Plumbing and gas fitting. Whitney Co. Special hosiery sale at The Economist this week.

Wall paper at Putrelle's from 12 1/2c. per double roll and up. Ladies, it will pay you to see the spring wraps at Life's.

Attend the special sale of shirt waists at the Economist this week. Why, certainly, we keep everything in the way of notions, at Life's.

Latest novelties in pompadour and side combs. Rosenwald Brothers. Men's, ladies' and children's straw hats in all the latest styles at Life's.

This is the week to buy corsets at Life's. Special sale of summer corsets. The only trust to wear—THE AMERICAN SILVER TRUSS, at Huppé's Prescription Pharmacy.

Yard wide percales, only seven cents a yard. Match it if you can. Golden Rule Dry Goods Company.

Good goods at lowest prices at Geo. C. Gainsley & Co., 122 South Second street, reliable shoe dealers.

Thirty bicycle suits closing out at cost, all new goods. Also fifty bicycle pants. E. L. Washburn & Co.

It is impossible to make a mistake in your spring buying, if you select from the great fair priced stock of The Economist.

"Here is a lesson that he who runs may read; the man on the Columbia is always in the lead." $70 and $120. Hahn & Co.

Just received a large assignment of fine California Grape brandy, spring '92, which we will sell to saloon keepers at $2.25 per gallon. Original package. O. Bachechi & G. Giomi.

There are only fifty pair of ladies' common sense high blousing shoes left at Simpson's great closing out sale. They must be disposed of and the regular $5 shoes are going at $2 per pair.

Railroad Men—We have the Henderson Coat skin shoes. You know what they are, best wearing shoe made. We can please you. Geo. C. Gainsley & Co., reliable shoe dealers, 122 South Second street.

A Madam purchased a pair of overalls the other day and in one of the pockets she found a slip of paper giving the following feminine names with their addresses: Miss Linnie Bridge, box 308, Wappingers Falls, New York; Miss Rosa

Coffey, Wappingers Falls, New York; Miss Linnie River, box 302, Wappingers Falls, New York; Miss Nancy Kirvan, Wappingers Falls, New York. At the bottom of the slip the following announcement is made: "We are all young and pretty."

Bicycle riders interested in the chainless pattern, will now be able to make comparison with the first one shown, by examining the present chainless, which is now being sold by C. B. Hopping. The wheel is a beauty and is sold at a much less figure than any other wheel on the market.

The cycling season is now opening and the prevailing question is, "Where can I get the best wheel for the money I care to invest?" Let us know your price. We are certain to have a wheel that will fit it. We have good wheels only, but have many styles at many prices. Hahn & Co. Just received—a car of the celebrated American Brewing Company St. Louis Bohemian beer, the peer of all pale bottled beers, brewed from the choicest Bohemian hops. Unequaled for family use. Distributors in charge. Lowenthal & Meyers, sole agents.

Shop Men—We want you to see our Casco Calif $2.50 shoe. All styles in low and high congress. They are the best $2.50 shoe to be had anywhere. Geo. C. Gainsley & Co., reliable shoe dealers, 122 South Second street.

We will continue our special sale on silks, dress goods, embroideries, Oxford shoes and percales this week. Read our advertisement on fourth page. Golden Rule Dry Goods company. Postmaster Grunfeld announces that unless dress goods box rents are placed in the general delivery.

If you ride a bicycle or ever intend to, go at once to E. L. Washburn & Co. for a bicycle suit, or odd pants, as they are closing their entire line at cost. If you want to save from $5 to $15 on your spring suit and have the nicest in the town to be had anywhere, call on Haldeman, 213 South Second street.

Dr. Alger, the dentist, has removed his office from the Whiting building to the new Armijo building, opposite the opera house, on Railroad avenue. If you cannot find the goods at the Economist it is no use looking elsewhere in the common expression amongst the ladies of Albuquerque. Remember that you will find only reliable, union made shoes, at Geo. C. Gainsley & Co.'s, reliable shoe dealers, 122 South Second street.

Lowest prices ever made in city on silks, dress goods, embroideries and percales this week at Golden Rule Dry Goods company's. Just arrived at Lowenthal & Meyers another car of the famous Schlitz beer, "the beer that made Milwaukee famous."

Ladies' Oxford shoes, all styles and sizes, special this week; $1.40 a pair. Golden Rule Dry Goods Company. Putrelle, corner of Third and First streets, will sell you good wall paper at 12 1/2c double roll and up. The prettiest line of High Grade and Monarch shirts in the west at $1 and $1.25 at Life's.

Found—On the Mountain road, a fine overcoat. Owner can call at this office for information. Good all wool boys' school suits, all new goods at $3.50. E. L. Washburn & Co. Columbia and Hartford bicycles at all prices from $35 up. Hahn & Co. Fresh, pure Persian insect powder at Huppé's Prescription Pharmacy. Picture frames. Whitney Co.

Old Fellows' Anniversary. Tuesday, April 24, is the 70th anniversary of the founding of American Odd Fellowship, and the local bodies of the order will celebrate in a fitting manner by a ball and banquet in Odd Fellows' hall. The affair is in the hands of a competent committee, and everything is being prepared in the usual complete and thorough manner for which the members of the order are noted in carrying out their celebrations. The ladies of the Rebekah lodge have charge of the banquet, and will make a success of it without a doubt. The order has grown considerably during the past year, and has cause to feel very contented over the progress made.

The Library. There are many attractions during this month for society people of Albuquerque. Prominent among them is the Library, which is now open in the new building. Every one who has the good of the library at heart should attend. Every dollar spent for a ticket means so much advance in the work of this fine institution. The entertainment will be well worth the price of admission. For those who do not dance, the specialties on the stage will be attractive, and there is the supper, which will be served to you any time you wish, after the program is finished.

For the dancers—it is only necessary to say that the best music that Albuquerque affords is being provided and that the program of dances is in the hands of a committee that knows what the people like. Tickets on sale at Walton's drug store. Price, $1.

Postmaster Grunfeld has received a new United States flag—a large handsome one, and he has stated this morning that as soon as war is declared and the "flying squadron" starts out to do battle against the Spanish fleet, he will hold the new flag to the top of the pole at the postoffice building.

A value belonging to J. W. Hanson, the traveling representative of the Giant Powder company of San Francisco, was stolen from a chair car last night. The thief is believed to be the notorious Oscar Raymond, who served a term in the penitentiary for robbing the office at the stock yards a couple of years ago. Suspicion now points to Raymond for

ROSENWALD BROS.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Personal and General Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There. This is the anniversary of the battle of Lexington. Let the war go on! Fifty-one laborers from Denver passed through the city last night to work on the Santa Fe Pacific at San Jose.

J. J. Behr has severed his connection with the mercantile establishment of John Becker at Belen. He is at the European to-day. The ladies who had charge of the Catholic Kirmis are holding a meeting at Rev. Mandelaria's parsonage on West Copper avenue this afternoon.

Engineer Harroun is still working on the plans for the low-line canal, and will have them finished by May 1. The injunction case is set for hearing on April 25. J. Felipe Hubbell and Antonio Armijo, of Pajarito, are in the city to-day, for the purpose of hearing the very latest news about the impending hostilities between the United States and Spain.

The Adah Chapter, No. 5, O. E. S., will give a grand ball at the Armory hall this evening, and the ladies, in charge of all the arrangements, guarantee a splendid time to those who will attend. Johnston & Finical are thoroughly renovating their law offices in the First National Bank building. Under the new arrangement the office will be partitioned off into three rooms, two small ones to be used as private offices and one large one to be used as a library.

Postmaster Grunfeld has received a new United States flag—a large handsome one, and he has stated this morning that as soon as war is declared and the "flying squadron" starts out to do battle against the Spanish fleet, he will hold the new flag to the top of the pole at the postoffice building. A value belonging to J. W. Hanson, the traveling representative of the Giant Powder company of San Francisco, was stolen from a chair car last night. The thief is believed to be the notorious Oscar Raymond, who served a term in the penitentiary for robbing the office at the stock yards a couple of years ago. Suspicion now points to Raymond for the reason that he was seen lurking around the city for the past few days. The office used the stock yards was robbed again Sunday and the deed furnished many evidences of being the work of Raymond's hand. Officers are in pursuit of Raymond to-day but have not been able to find him yet. The value was found this morning in a box car riddled of its contents.

A. A. Grant, owner of several important corporations and also of the Morning Democrat, came in from Los Angeles last night, accompanied by B. F. Davis, his ex-manager. Mr. Grant is also president of the Low Line Ditch company, and is here looking over prospects for immediate work on that enterprise. Mr. Davis is visiting his old friends; he expects to return west in a few days. Mrs. Walton takes this method, through Tex Cruzes, to invite those of her pupils who have not been seen, verbally, to attend her soiree on Friday night at the Armory hall. The soiree will be a most pleasant affair, and those who have received invitations are promised a grand time by this popular dancing teacher.

A couple of coats were stolen from the European hotel yesterday. One of them was the property of Ed. O. Hughes, of the Palestine Insurance company, of Denver. This coat was found at T. A. Whitten's second hand store where it had been sold by an elderly appearing man. Capt. H. V. Smith, the well-known handler of teams of horses, came in from the Cochiti district the other day, and expects to return to his home this evening. Mr. Smith has charge of moving the Oshemans mill machinery from Thornton to Hland.

There may be a special meeting of the council this evening to approve of Fred. Fornoff's bond as marshal. Pending the approval of his bond Marshal Cobert continues to act. Tickets for the soiree to be given by Mrs. Walton, on Friday evening, are on sale at the stores of O. E. Matson & Co., S. E. Newcomer and W. Y. Walton. Max B. Fitch, son of Capt. A. B. Fitch, the Graphic smelter manager at Magdalena, has his signature on the register at the Hotel Highland. Fine stationary at Matson's.

Summer Garden. Joe. Badaracco has opened his popular summer resort on the Mountain road north of the city, and patronage is invited. It will be kept orderly and the bar is supplied with the best of liquors and cigars. G. K. Hopkins, the local railroad contractor and excavator, has secured a contract to do some work for the Santa Fe railway in the vicinity of Fulton station, up north, and is moving his outfit there to-day.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Hon. M. S. Otero was a passenger from Hland last night. Dr. J. H. Elder, assistant surgeon at the railway hospital, left last night for Needles. Judge W. C. Heseock and daughter, Helen, have returned to the city from Santa Fe. Bert. Baker, one of the city's most excellent young gentlemen, is reported on the sick list. Hon. W. R. Childers, who was at Las Cruces on the Fountain murder case, returned to the city last night. Ed. Farr, one of the buyers of the Farr's meat market, left last night for Kansas City, where he will purchase several car loads of fat cattle. W. N. Parkhurst, the general agent of the Equitable Life Assurance society, accompanied by his estimable wife, left last night for Arizona towns. John Snyder, the fireman who was injured south of the city Saturday night and had his leg amputated at the Santa Fe Pacific hospital on Sunday, is getting along nicely. John Brookman, the ex-banker of Silver City, now one of the owners of the famous Commonwealth mines at Pearce, passed through the city last night for the eastern cities. R. H. Fiddick and wife, who have enjoyed the winter here and stopped at the Grand Central, left last night for Denver, and from there they will return to their home at Galena, Ill. Thos. R. Gabel, an ex-Albuquerquean, is again in the city, and this morning met many warm friends. Mr. Gabel was for several years the popular general superintendent of the Atlantic & Pacific. He came in from Los Angeles last night and will remain a few days. Capt. Cooke and Lieuts. Blow and Moore, in charge of Co. E, Fifteenth infantry, came in from Fort Bayard last night, and continued west to Fort Wingate. The cavalry troops at the latter fort will not pass through the city, en route east until sometime to-morrow, so it is reported this afternoon.

KISSED AND MADE UP. Mrs. T. H. Jones Reconciled to Her Husband and Will Not Prosecute.

City Marshal Findley, of Tucson, accompanied by Mrs. T. H. Jones, the wife of the man arrested here Sunday night on the strength of a telegram from Tucson, saying that he was wanted for embezzlement, arrived in the city last night. Mrs. Jones claimed that her husband had left her last winter and taken all of the funds with him. About two weeks ago she started out to pursue him, and finally traced him to Tucson. When she arrived there, however, he had just left. She consulted Marshal Findley, who interested himself in her behalf, and telegraphed Marshal Cobert in this city to look out for Jones. The latter was arrested Sunday night as he stepped off the train in this city. He had in his possession $500 in cash and a draft for $2,600 on a San Francisco bank. As soon as Findley and Mrs. Jones arrived last night they took themselves to the county jail, where the meeting between the husband and wife was of a gushing nature, and a spirit of forgiveness prevailed. They were completely reconciled, and the wife agreed to withdraw her complaint, and the husband in turn smoothed matters over by paying for all the expenses of his own pursuit and capture. After spending a few days in this city, registered at Sturges' European. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will return to their home in Aspen, Colo.

REMEMBER THE MAINE and also remember Geo. C. Gainsley & Co. when in need of shoes.
