

BLOODY BATTLE AT SANTIAGO!

Rough Riders Lead the Advance of the American Army.

Many Killed and Wounded Storming the Spanish Entrenchments.

OUR TROOPS STEADILY ADVANCE ON THE FOE.

Santiago, July 1, 8 p. m., via Playa del Este, (Delayed in transmission).—At this hour fighting still continues. The entire reserves of the American army have been ordered to the front at once, apparently with the intention of forcing our way to Santiago. The troops advanced early to the city, but the fortifications are very strong. Our losses are heavy. An officer from the field estimates our killed and wounded at over 1,000 men. Shells, supposedly from the Spanish fleet, did heavy execution among our troops. During a lull in the fighting an impressive incident occurred. The 21st infantry was out in front and suffered loss from the fire, but the men sang "The Star Spangled Banner," even the wounded joining in the singing.

At 7:15 the Spanish battery opened on the Spanish troops to the right of the San Juan blockhouse. The common powder used by our troops smoked and was a fine target for the Spanish field battery, which was probably served by Admiral Cerros's marines, judging by the accuracy of the aim. While our smoke gave the enemy our range guns could not locate the enemy's guns, which used smokeless powder, except approximately. But satisfied as to the Spanish position our men worked like mad. The Spanish fire gradually slackened and in less than an hour ceased altogether. Battery A, Second artillery, deserves great credit for the victory, for it was a case of blindside against sight.

The battery's losses, the officers state, are as follows: Killed—Underwood, private; Hain, private. Wounded—Heary, George C., first sergeant; Vette, sergeant; Cornford, sergeant; Keene, corporal.

The battery was supported by the Rough Riders, about 100 Cubans with a Hotchkiss gun, a detachment of the Tenth cavalry and a squad from Company C, Second cavalry.

Most of the Spanish shells flew low over the crest of the battery's position and exploded. Through them the Rough Riders had about ten wounded, among them R. Chaplain, whose left wrist was smashed. The Cuban leader, General, reports that the Cubans lost twenty killed and wounded. The details of General Lawton's losses have not arrived.

Heavy firing has been heard for three hours. It seems to indicate a strong American advance. There is no artillery firing from El Caney, and only scattering shots came from San Juan, which has a slope of fifteen feet in a hundred. Both divisions are really in battle. The day is clear and a moderate breeze is blowing.

CUBANS WIN VICTORY! Spanish Force in Cuba Defeated by the Insurgents.

Russia, Germany and France May Try to Get into the War. Gen. Pando, With Six Thousand Spanish Troops, Arrives at Santiago. CAMARA'S FLEET IN THE SUEZ CANAL.

New York, July 2.—According to advices received by the Cuban Junta, General Diaz, in command of the Sixth Cuban army corps in Pinar del Rio in the western part of the province in which he came off victory, taking a great many prisoners. The Spanish loss was a slight loss, but the Cubans lost less than fifty men.

It would be a World's War. Berlin, July 2.—Correspondent Associated Press is informed that Germany, France and Russia have reached an agreement to interfere in the Philippines when hostilities cease, to prevent the United States or Great Britain from gaining possession of the whole of the islands.

TELEGRAM FROM SHAFER. He Calls for a Hospital Ship and Medical Concerns. Washington, July 2.—The following was received this morning: "Santiago, July 1, via Playa del Este, July 1.—Adjutant General, Washington, I fear I am in a bad way. I have a fever, a large and thoroughly equipped hospital ship should be sent here at once to care for the wounded. The chief surgeon says that he has no more medicine, and would like to see some of the officers. The ship must bring a launch and boats for conveying the wounded."

Wants Europe to Intervene. Paris, July 2.—The Matin says that the queen regent of Spain desires the intervention of Europe, and would willingly sacrifice the throne for a peace which is imperative in the interests and for the honor of Spain.

TERRIBLE BATTLE. Storm of Shot and Shell All To-Day at Santiago. Washington, July 2.—The president and secretary of war, through a private dispatch coming from the battlefield, learn that the engagement was resumed this morning and has continued all day. The wounded are coming in rapidly, and indications point to heavy losses. The fight does not indicate a decisive result in any direction.

In Deep Suspense. Washington, July 2.—The deepest suspense existed throughout military and official circles as the day progressed and news came from Shafter. At 2:30 o'clock nothing was forthcoming as to the situation on the field.

PANAMA ARMY. His Army Has Not Tried to Reach Santiago. (Copyright Associated Press.) Montejo Bay, Jamaica, July 1—9:30 p. m.—A Cuban messenger from the insurgents near Manzanillo, province of Santiago de Cuba, landed here today from the island and brought the intelligence that the Spanish troops, numbering about 8,000, which left Manzanillo on June 24 to march to Santiago, were called back to that place and the intelligence that they were not with the troops as reported. He is in Havana. The relieving army, the Cuban says, was supplied with food, and the troops were almost impudently firing artillery could not be dragged along with them. This getting to Santiago in time to succor the garrison there appeared impossible, hence the recall of his troops.

No Official Information. Washington, July 2.—War department officials are not in possession at this hour of any information to show that fighting at Santiago was resumed today, but they believe such to be the case.

Camara's Fleet Coming. London, July 2.—Lord's agent at Port Said, telegraphing at 1:30 p. m. today, says that the Spanish fleet is anchored outside of Egyptian and engaged in sailing.

Spanish Colliers Return. St. Paul, July 2.—The Spanish colliers which entered the canal yesterday arrived here today.
