ALBUQUERQUE, — — DEC. 20, 1898

THE territorial assembly convenes at Santa Fe, January 16.

THE territorial board of equalization will meet at Santa Fe, January 9.

QUIT slandering New Mexico and give the territory a chance to grow and prosper.

THE election for justices of the peace will be held in the several precincts of territory on January 9.

THE navy department is hopeful of being able to raise the Maine and have it once more in commission.

LIEUT. HOBSON is a hero in war and peace. He kissed 267 women at a reception in his honor in Kansas City.

THE democratic party stands ready to be captured by any new idea in opposition to the growth and expansion of the United States.

THE Japanese government is now negotiating for the installation of a complete pneumatic mail delivery service in Tokio, under American direction.

THE cost of the wars of the world since the Crimean war has been $13,265,000,000, or enough to give $10 to every man, woman and child on the globe.

LAST year Japan exported nearly $6,000,000 worth of coal. There are 120 coal mines, fifty of which are important. One of them, in Chikugo, yields 600,000 tons a year.

THE number of slaves exported from Africa during the eighteenth century is calculated at 6,000,000. In 1748 nearly 100,000 were shipped from the west coast alone.

THE railways of the country are said to be contemplating a unique exhibition at the Paris fair in the shape of an enormous map of the United States, 230 feet long by 140 feet high.

ONLY seventy years have elapsed since the first railway in the world was finished. During that comparatively brief period 400,000 miles have been constructed, the British empire accounting for about a sixth.

"WE have nothing to take back for 1861," said the governor of Alabama to the president of the United States. "And we have nothing to take back for keeping you in the Union," replied the president. Tremendous applause at this point was appropriate.

GENERAL JACOB COXEY of Ohio declares that the election of President McKinley was one of the best things that ever happened to the country, that the free silver issue is dead and that W. J. Bryan is a back number. Thus General Coxey drags in three great truths at a single cast of the net.

CHRISTMAS is at hand with all its joyful expectations. No doubt most of our readers are looking forward to it with pleasure and thinking of all the presents they expect to give and receive. You are trying to find out what father and mother would like to have, and contriving how to spend, in the best way, the pocket money you have been saving. That is all right. Christmas presents are very nice things, if they are given in the right spirit—not for show, not because you hope to receive something in return, but to give pleasure and to show your affection.

PROSPEROUS COUNTRY.

From all over the country come tidings of great joy in a commercial sense. Dun's weekly review of trade says that December will close the most surprising year in the trade history of America. Chicago reports that her steel mills have been compelled to refuse a foreign order for 75,000 tons of rails, and St. Louis has use for 1,000 railway cars which she is unable to obtain. The present year holds promise of being followed by an era of unequaled prosperity.

A WISE RULER.

President William McKinley has made many notable addresses in his time, but it is doubtful if he ever made one of more impressive character than that which he delivered recently in Atlanta.

Nothing can be more conducive to national tranquility than solidification of the diverse elements in our policy, and that is the present aim of our prerident.

This nation is great and vigorous. In times of emergency it stands together, resolute and indomitable. In more pacific times agencies are at work that are not promotive of that serenity of purpose which should be desired by patriotic citizens.

It is to bring about that consummation that the president seems to be intent, and the speeches he has delivered in the south all have been prepared with that in view. They have been received in a manner that will be highly gratifying to the whole nation. To the sentiments expressed by the president there has been the warmest response.

FRIEND OF NEW MEXICO.

The Durango, Colo., Herald says: "On our return from a little trip we find a number of New Mexico exchanges on our desk, all favoring statehood. We lived in New Mexico for eight years and invariably found the citizens, both American and Castilian origin, courtons, intelligent, a citizenship in fact that will favorably compare with that of any part of the east or west. New Mexico has many able men, both Mexicans and Americans. In fact, some of the ablest men in the west are to be found in that territory. We heartily favor statehood for New Mexico, and in addition thereto we assert that it is the refinement of bad treatment not to admit that territory into the Union as a state."

NEEDS REVISION.

The Rio Grande Republican, of Las Cruces, says that the New Mexico coal oil law needs revision. The people of the southern end of the territory want permission to ship in coal oil from El Paso, oil that has been inspected there, and not have to send for the New Mexico inspector every time a one or five gallon tank is shipped up here. If this is done the oil trust will send better oil to this section.

MURDER ALLEY.

Horrible Condition of an Alley in Old Albuquerque.

"Murderer's Corral" should be the appellation of the location in the old town of Albuquerque where the murder took place last night, instead of "Fighting Corral," by which name it has been known for half a century. The killing last night is the second at the same Martinez wine shop within a year. The "vinata" is in a very unsavory neighborhood. There are a few, very few, decent families in the vicinity. Over the way from the scene of the murder is probably the worst dive in New Mexico. Its proprietors began in a small, modest (?) way—a little music, a little wine, a little something else. Now they own a great co-operative establishment, consisting of store, restaurant, wine rooms, lodgings with or without companions, harem, etc. Rumors of knock-out drops, rolling of railroad men and others are frequent; also of innocent girls seduced to lives of debauchery. This beastly concern is within 300 or 400 feet of a public school and is also about that distance from a temple of religious worship. It cannot but taint the morals of children whose minds are so receptive Outside of this notorious concern are many smaller ones near the scene of the murder. Here herd promiscuously together the most depraved of both sexes, and here and in the more pretentious establishment are bred the crimes of night and the shocking exhibits so often witnessed by day in the streets in that part of the town—the town noted all over Spanish America in the days that are gone for its culture and refinement. Alas! Albuquerque, the old! that the misdoings, the unpunished misdoings of a few should have bedraggled your fair fame in these later days! Capital flees from your doors and decency from many of your portals.

I am not a prophet nor the son of one, but I should just here like to intimate that if these disorders and crimes and disorderly places are not suppressed, one of these days, and not far in the future, decent people will take the law into their own hands, and there will be a lynching party the acts of which will be remembered for generations.

NEW MEXICO NEWS!

GALLUP.

From the Gleaner.

Major Green served sixty-two subpoenas at Gibson, Friday, in poll tax suits.

Billy Radcliffe, the Rough Rider, has been sick for several days but is improving. He is a guest at the home of Archie Brown for several days.

Colonel Van Doren was down from Bluewater on Thursday. He was accompanied by his wife and his grand-daughtes and spent several hours in Christmas shopping at the Banner.

Saturday last was the 19th birthday anniversary of Miss Ethel Goings, one of the types in this office. She was the recipient of many handsome presents from her many friends and her illness at that time prevented her friends from giving her a pleasant surprise.

The Odd Fellows held their election on Monday evening last, at which time the following were chosen as the officers for the ensuing term: N. G., Henry Kirch; V. G., E. L. Watkins; R. S., A. J. Mitchell; P. S., W. A. Patching; treasurer, Alex. Bowie. There will be a spread in connection with the installation on the first meeting in January.

The oldest boy of Mr. Cassell, of Fort Wingate, was playing with a cartridge on Wednesday, and it in some manner exploded, mutilating terribly his left hand. Three fingers of the hand were blown off and the hand cut to ribbons, so that it was necessary to have an amputation made. It was done by the post surgeon, the amputation being made at the wrist. At last accounts the little fellow was resting quietly.

Mr. Chenfell, of Gallup, one of the mail carriers to Fort Defiance, had a terrible experience last week. He left Fort Defiance on Friday last for Gallup, and in the blinding storm lost his way and wandered round for two days in the terrible storm. He at length determined to abandon his wagon and horses, and taking the mail on his back he started afoot for home. He finally got his bearings, and on Monday arrived in Gallup utterly exhausted and nearly perished, having gone without food the whole time. One of the horses came in town on Monday and the other has since turned up. The man is to be commended for his grit and loyalty to duty. His hands were frozen from exposure.

On Wednesday Mickey O'Neill went to the Crescent office and drew what he had coming. He then started in to indulge himself in a drunk. He had in the course of time got to feeling scrappy and attacked the pianist in the Arcade saloon. In the mix-up the player, named Watson, being too small to stand a fair show with his assailant took to his childish instinct and commenced to bite. He succeeded in laying hold upon the nose of O'Neill and before letting go he succeeded in biting off a large slice of it. They were separated and O'Neill received the attention he needed, although Watson's finger was also bitten in the struggle.

Mr. FRANK, a Slav, injured by a fall of rock at the mine last week, suffered internal injuries, to which he succumbed on Saturday last. He had a leg broken also. He was given the best of care but never rallied from the time of his arrival at the hospital. He was interred by the slavonic society on Monday from the Catholic church, Father Juillard taking the service. The deceased was a man about 40 years of age, and had a family, all of whom, except one boy, are in the old country.

FORT WINGATE.

Special Correspondence.

Fort Wingate, N. M., Dec. 18.—Rufus Cassell, a son of the post blacksmith had his left hand blown entirely off by the explosion of a Hotchkiss shell, with which he was playing, the hand was amputated at the wrist by the post surgeon.

Frank Grobe, of the Sixteenth cavalry, is at this post on a sick furlough visiting his relatives.

Messrs. Ritchie and Coates, of Gallup, N. M., were visitors at the post Saturday. They came up for the minstrel show and returned that night.

It is reported here, that there are from thirty five to forty cases of small pox in Zuni, N. M.

Mr. Harris, formerly storekeeper for the Post Exchange, has returned from Gallup, N. M., and has taken charge of the Canteen again.

Fred. Riley has been absent from the post several days attending to business at Bluewater, N. M.

Frank Supplee, who has been confined in the post hospital several days with tonsilitis, is much improved and has returned to his home.

The Yeager and Davis Minstrels (home talent) gave an exceedingly good performance last night in the post hall. The program consited of a number of the latest songs, several unique dances, a farce comedy and a cake walk. The above event was followed by an informal "hop," which lasted until 12 o'clock, when all returned to their homes well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

The Navajo Indians held their annual "corn dance" last week at Mr. Supplee's ranch, seven miles east of this post. Three Indian policemen from Fort Defiance were on hand to keep order. Quite a number of people from Gallup and this post witnessed the dance. WINGATE.

Our Postal Facilities.

We have heard a great deal about the excellent postal facilities of Albuquerque. We do not take any stock in it any more. There went out of this office on the 6th of December last two letters for a gentleman in Albuquerque. We find also that a third letter for the same gentleman went from Gallup in the same mail. All the letters reached Albuquerque on the 7th, and yet there were none of them delivered to him until the 16th of December. We want to know why. Such delays of business letters are too much to be quietly borne. How about it, Mr. Grunsfeld.—Gallup Gleaner.
