REAL BARGAINS are quickly picked up by women that know. It does not take long for the thrifty and shrewd housekeeper to detect a REAL BARGAIN when she sees one. Notwithstanding the very warm weather of last week Albuquerque women showed unusual interest in our Linen Sale. We are certainly more than pleased with the result and, we venture to say, folks that attended this sale are likewise satisfied with their purchases. The Linen sale will continue another week with additional offerings in Sheets, Sheetings, Bed Spreads, etc.

KING LARRY AND THE FOOT THAT WORRIES ALL CLEVELAND

NEW COPYRIGHT 1905 BY L. VAN OYEEN

LARRY ON HIS FRONT PORCH.

Nap Lajole, the king of binglemakers and second baseman, captain and manager of the Cleveland American league team, has been out of the game for the past ten days suffering from an attack of blood poisoning resulting from being spiked. During Larry's absence Cleveland's playing has lost some of its dash and considerable of its brilliancy. The games have been like Hamlet with the Dane in the tall timbers, dodging a sheriff's posse.

For a time it was thought the accident might affect Lajole permanently, but the best of care and a magnificent constitution have overcome this fear. The photograph of the king was made at his residence, upon his first appearance out of doors since the accident.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS FOR POSTOFFICE VACANCIES than 125 pounds in weight. It will not be necessary to take a medical examination at this time.

Applicants should at once apply either to the local secretary, W. H.
Long, at the postoffice, or to the district secretary at Denver, Colo. for application form No. 1371.
Applications will not be accepted unless received by the district secretary before 5 o'clock p. m. August 1, 1906.

MANY GAMES ARE SCHEDULED

Manager Houston Says Browns Will Be Busy for Next Six Weeks.

TEAM IS IN FINE CONDITION

Manager F. J. Houston, of the Browns, is busily engaged in arranging a schedule of games for the Browns, which will keep the team busy for the next six weeks. He stated that the local team is in the best kind of shape and that it is his opinion that Albuquerque has the best ball team in the southwest this season.

The first games of the schedule just arranged will be played in this city Saturday and Sunday. The opposing team will be the El Paso Browns. This team has been reorganized lately and is said to be very strong. Last Sunday the El Paso team played two games with the strong Sioux Indian base ball team and the Indians won both games. The scores were as follows: First game, Sioux Indians 12, El Paso 5; second game, Sioux Indians 4, El Paso 3.

The local team will play two games in this city on the 29th and 30th, with the Las Vegas Blues. On these dates two very interesting games are promised, as Manager Blood of the Las Vegas aggregation, has commenced to completely reorganize the Blues. Several of the players are to be released at once and some of the stars of the Colorado Springs team, which recently dropped out of the Western league, will take their places.

On August 5th, the Browns will leave for a trip. They will play at El Paso on the 6th and 7th; Clifton 8th, 9th and 10th, and Moreton on the 11th, 12th and 13th. It is also quite possible that a series of three games will be played at Bisbee.

Manager Houston is now arranging for a series of three games with the fast Schmelzer team of Kansas City, Mo. This team will make a tour of the southwest in August for the purpose of advertising the Schmelzer Arms company. This team will probably play the Browns in this city on August 20th, 21st and 23d. The Schmelzer team will practically be what is now known as the Kansas City Blues, of the American association.

The above schedule will be good news to the local fans who have been clamoring for a few more games at home and with other teams outside of the Las Vegas Blues.

The El Paso Herald says: The Browns have perfected arrangements with the Albuquerque team, whereby the former will leave for the Duke City Friday night for two games with the New Mexico team, Saturday and Sunday, July 22 and 23. At least, this was the determination before the press issued their challenge. What action they will take now has not as yet been announced.

Dr. Moffatt, who has been around Alamosordo for the past several years, died at the hospital there Saturday morning of dropsy. Recently he had been at Cloudcroft and was brought down to the hospital Friday evening.
The body is at Buck's undertaking rooms, and it is not known what disposition will be made of it until relatives or friends are heard from.

Mrs. Thomas Johnson and children, Mrs. Chamberlain and Miss Angle Powers, left yesterday for Camp Whitcomb, where they will go into camp for about two weeks.

BALL PLAYERS AFRAID OF DEADLY HOODOO

Speaking of superstition among ball players, "Billy" Earle says: "In 1894 I played with four clubs. I began as manager of the Birmingham team, and the Southern league blew up July 4th. I was then signed by Buckenberger for Pittsburg and was loaned to help out Louisville.

"Just for a joke one day on the train I hypnotized a woman. The players saw me and began to freeze me out.
My roommate passed me up and refused to have anything to do with me. Jack Grim hadn't hit even a foul for three weeks and yet he declared that I had hoodooed him.

"One of our pitchers lost his arm. They said I was the hoodoo. I was sent back to Pittsburg. Up to that time the Pirates had been playing great ball, but when I rejoined they went to pieces and played miserably.

"Buckenberger declared the hoodoo and fired me—although I was playing the best game of my career.

"Finally Tom Burns, center fielder of Brooklyn, told me this hoodoo business was all tommyrot, was simply a terrible conspiracy against a ball player, and he gave me a job. We were to room together. The first night I accidentally touched Burns' arm. He jumped out of bed with a yell and wild with fear, saying I was trying to hoodoo even him. I had to leave the team. All the rest of the year I was boycotted by ball players and couldn't get a job."
