Dr. Edison Cushion Shoe for Women

This shoe is made with a live, wool felt, cushion insole, which absorbs moisture, prevents dampness, increases blood circulation and forms a soft place for the foot to rest upon. This takes the jar off the body, thereby preventing nervousness, and doing away with that tired, burning feeling.

Made with an extra flexible sole, and the felt lining is a non-conductor of heat or cold, can be worn the year round, which makes it an ideal shoe for teachers, clerks, and others who are on their feet most of the time.
