LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight and Sunday.

To "hop" a moving train one day Young Willie Jones did try. He'll never do it any more— You know the reason why.

The Rev. Wm. Wylie of Winslow is in town on important business.

W. L. Bradley, the mine promoter, who has been here the past few days, left last night for El Paso.

Jimmy Bentley, the Cochiti miner who can imitate the braying of a burro, is in the city, having fun.

S. E. Aldrich, the merchant out at Gallup, who has been here the past week, will return west tonight.

R. L. Heller, the general merchant of Catezon, is here today, and his friends are seeing to it that he enjoys himself.

Fred Russell, the well known rail-roader, who does business south of the city, is here to enjoy the last day of the fair.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Jones, residing at No. 317 North Eighth street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith of Socorro.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ireland, popular folks from Santa Fe, after a couple of days here, returned to Santa Fe this morning.

Merchant Cartwright, of the territorial capital, will remain over to see the end of the base ball tournament. He is an admirer of the national game.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Bittner, accompanied by their son and Miss Nell Wetter, left today for the Grand Canyon. They will be absent several days.

S. G. Hanna, a well known merchant of San Marcial, who was here the past few days, enjoying himself, has returned to his home at the "bend in the Rio Grande."

Dan Scruggs, who is one of the outside rustlers for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, has returned to the city from the Pecos Valley. He reports doing a good business.

Julius Ubfelder, a general merchant, and S. A. Bond, a miner both from Elizabethtown, up north, are in the city visiting friends, buying goods and taking in the last day of the fair.

Miss Shirley Kunz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Kunz, formerly of this city, but now of Los Angeles, passed through the city yesterday, en route home. The young lady had been visiting friends in Kansas City.

George Craig, justice of the peace, precinct 26, returned last night from a six weeks' visit to the east. He visited Boston, New York, and, of course, Coney Island, where he took in "Dreamland" and "Luna Place." He reports having had a fine time.

M. W. Browne, a big man physically and otherwise, of Las Vegas, is here, and he is a ball rooster from away back in the old days. He believes the Las Vegas team will win first money in the base ball tournament, and will remain over to see the finish.

Hon. H. O. Bursum, the chairman of the territorial republican central committee, and Attorney and Mrs. E. C. Abbott, came in from Santa Fe last night, and are mingling with the visitors still in the city. They will probably return to Santa Fe tomorrow morning.

William Shaw yesterday leased of M. Gussaroff the rear of the store, 115 West Railroad avenue, and will put in one of the most up-to-date pool and billiard parlors. Mr. Shaw conducts a like business in Trinidad, and returned home last night. He hopes to have his Albuquerque parlors ready for business by the first of October.

Comrade F. W. Woodrow, of Oklahoma, will preach both morning and evening at the Woman's Club rooms tomorrow, Sunday, the 24th. You are invited to come and hear Bahylor fall. It will be a treat to hear a Socialist preacher and one who represents the largest society of co-operative farmers in the world.

Conductor H. F. Griffith, a popular manipulator of the bell cord between this city and El Paso, will leave tomorrow morning for Kansas City and Chicago on business, to be absent about ten days or two weeks. During his absence, Joseph Harrison, freight conductor, will have charge of the passenger run.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hall and pretty daughter, Miss Vessentia, who have been here for the past few days, will leave tomorrow morning for Chicago, and from there they will visit Mr. Hall's father and relatives at Manitowish, Wis. They will remain in the north for several weeks, when Mr. Hall will return to his foundry business here, and Mrs. Hall and daughter will return to Hollywood, Cal., their home, via the Pacific coast line.

Attractive to the eye, soft and fine to the touch, and endowed with the quality of giving delight and lasting satisfaction to all—our new styles in Patent Colt Shoes for men, women and children. C. May's shoe store, 314 West Railroad avenue.

The excellent music furnished by the First Regiment Band and the Italian Band during the fair, has been the source of much favorable comment, and too much credit cannot be given both bands for the part they have taken in making the fair a success.

Hon. G. A. Richardson, who has been here the past few days attending the Bar Association and the territorial fair, left last night for Las Cruces, where he will meet other members of the board of reports of the Agricultural College, and a meeting of the board will be held. Mrs. Richardson remains at the Alvarado until the return of Mr. Richardson.

One of the prettiest pictures of a very pretty young lady was overlooked in The Citizen's article of yesterday, about the write-up of the Moon-Kelcher exhibit at the fair. This paper refers to the full size picture of Miss Rebecca Pearce, the vivacious and pretty daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Pearce, and the work, which is in water colors, reflects great credit on the work turned out by the Moon-Kelcher studio.

AWARDS FOR FRUIT EXHIBITS

In addition to the awards mentioned in yesterday's Citizen, blue ribbons have been given as follows: A. F. Miller of Farmington, for best plates of Foster peaches, Flemish Beauty peaches, Seckel pears and Concord grapes; L. B. Prince, for best plates of Heath Clark, late Crawford, and Blood Clark peaches, and Louise Honne pears; J. M. Engler of Las Cruces, for best grape exhibit; Juan Samora of Albuquerque, for the largest musk melon.

- The Fair Association requests
- The Evening Citizen to announce
- that no passes will be honored
- at the fair grounds tomorrow.
- A charge of 25 cents, however,
- will be made, which will include
- seats in the grandstand.

"RAMONA" WILL SOON BE SEEN HERE.

"Ramona" a play that has aroused unusual interest, will be seen shortly in this city. "Ramona" is a dramatized version of Helen Hunt Jackson's famous story. It is essentially dramatic in construction, full of power and pathos. Its tragic note is well balanced by a delightful vein of humor, spontaneous and natural. The local color, so characteristic of the book, has been retained, and the picture of mission life are strikingly realistic. Miss Virginia Cathoun will essay the title role, supported by a company of capable players. The scenes and costumes are taken from life on the celebrated Camulos ranch. A feature of the play will be the Spanish songs and dances.
