WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight; colder in south portion, with frost. Wednesday, fair and warmer.

"The Man From Mexico," is the bill at the Elks' opera house tonight.

A. J. Sels, merchant at Isleta, has been appointed postmaster of the village.

There will be a meeting of the vestry at St. John's church at 7:30 tonight at the rectory.

Captain B. Ruppe returned last night from a short business trip to the northern part of the territory.

Richard Campbell, of Columbus, Ohio, is in the city, and will probably remain here in the future. He is a poster painter.

Miss Mabel Strong arrived from California this morning and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Strong, of West Railroad avenue.

Charles E. Ross, of Santa Fe, assistant territorial coal oil inspector, was in the city yesterday and today attending to official business.

Mrs. Anna Gray, a dressmaker, residing at 319 North Fifth street, is at St. Joseph's hospital, where she is recovering from an operation.

J. E. Hains, Roderick Stover, Fred Fisher and Herbert Brooks will leave Saturday for the Pecos country, where they will hunt for a few days.

Harry Kelly and F. H. Pierce, who accompanied the congressional party from Las Vegas to this city yesterday afternoon, returned to the Meadow City last night.

Richard Armstrong and Miss Fannie Mims, both residents of Albuquerque, were married yesterday by Justice of the Peace Jose Miguel Chavez, of Old Albuquerque.

The Guild meeting of St. John's church, announced for Wednesday, is postponed until Thursday at 3 p. m., on account of the concert at the Elks' ball rooms on Wednesday evening.

Rev. J. P. Moog, of Sabinal, passed through the city this morning, en route east. Mr. Moog is taking a little vacation from his parish at Sabinal. He will visit Oklahoma and be absent from the territory a couple of weeks.

The initial performance of the George Samuels company, "A Deserted Bride," was played to a large and well pleased audience at Elks' theater last night. The play was very clever and well staged. "The Man From Mexico" is the bill for tonight.

Eugene Lyon manager of the lithographing supply department of the Ault & Wiborg ink company of Cincinnati, Ohio, is in the city, coming in from southern California this morning. His company has a big branch house at Mexico City, and Mr. Lyon will go south tonight.

Rev. J. M. Sollie, pastor of the Methodist church, south, of this city, left this morning on a journey of two months' duration, which will carry him through Alabama and other southern states. Rev. Sollie's mission is to secure funds with which to build a new church for the local congregation.

Dan Padilla and brother have taken a lease on the Casino for the winter months, and will give dances three times a week—Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The Padilla boys will also conduct a skating rink at the Casino, they having sent an order to Chicago for a number of pairs of skates.

Dr. W. N. Macbeth, the well known dentist, is at Paywood hot springs, receiving benefit from the hot baths and the eating of good meals. The doctor has been under the weather for some time, but he writes back to his city friends that he hopes to return soon feeling as well as he did when he was doing stunts in wrestling matches away back in Scotland many years ago.

B. H. Hubbard, the southwestern representative for Taylor & Williams, of Louisville, Ky., the "Yellowstone" dealers, has returned to the city from southern California and western Arizona, where he did a fine business for his firm. He is calling on local customers today, and will leave either this evening or tomorrow morning for Denver and the Black Hills on business.

Oreste Bachechi, who has been in Italy visiting relatives and friends for the past few months, writes to the Citizen to "stop his paper," as he is about ready to start for his home in New Mexico. Mr. Bachechi writes that he has had a fine time, but will be glad when he reaches Albuquerque, where he is a member of the firm of Bachechi & Glom, and doing a fine business.

The St. Elmo stables, composed of Stranger O. Hallina Morgan and Young Hal, arrived this morning from Kansas, and the swift pacers were at once taken out of the car and stabled at the "Red barn" on West Copper avenue. Owner Barnett and Trainer Frost were at the depot to meet the horses, and they report the animals in pretty good condition, considering their long travel from Kansas to this city.

C. T. Brown, the well known mining man of Socorro, accompanied by his wife, passed through the city this morning on his way to Washington. At Lamy Mr. and Mrs. Brown were joined by Colonel Max Frost, editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican, and wife. In Washington Mr. Brown and Colonel Frost will attend the sessions of the supreme council of the thirty-third degree of Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry.

Acting Governor J. W. Reynolds, who accompanied the congressional party down from Santa Fe yesterday, telling the administration's side of the statehood story, returned to the Ancient City this morning. Mr. Reynolds is authority for the statement that a secret poll of the statehood vote is being taken in the territory at present, and that outside of Albuquerque, the large majority will be against the jointure measure. Yet, the opposition to jointure is afraid to let it come to a vote.

J. A. Smith, an old mountaineer and ranchman of the Jemez mountains, located at the forks between the Sulphur and Jemez hot springs, and Leonard Winhofer, another mountaineer, are in the city. It is understood that Mr. Winhofer has sold out his ranch in the mountains, for a good round sum, and will leave in a few days for Washington City, where he will purchase a home and live like a lord for the balance of his life. Mr. Smith is doing some shopping today. He will return to the mountains tomorrow.

A KODEY FRIEND MAKES DIFFERENCE

SAYS THE EX-DELEGATE WAS ENTITLED TO A MUCH BETTER PRESS NOTICE.

To Evening Citizen.

The Las Vegas Optic, in its account of the banquet tendered the visiting congressmen last Sunday night at the Castaneda did not give an impartial resume of what took place. The office holders took possession of the congressional train at Trinidad, and the friends of joint statehood would have known nothing about it, had it not been for the courtesy of Congressman Tawney, who wired Mr. Rodey to meet them at Raton, and the courtesy of Mr. Lathrop, head of the local department of the Santa Fe railroad, who invited him to dine with and accompany the party from Las Vegas to Albuquerque. Mr. G. F. Albright also met the party at Las Vegas, but was forced to return by No. 7 and could not accept the kind invitation extended to him.

The Optic does not mention Mr. Rodey, save as merely being present. Mr. Rodey, much to the chagrin of the anti's, was invited to respond to a toast by Mr. Tawney, and made what is said to have been the speech of the evening. Mr. Rodey came out fearlessly and emphatically in favor of jointure and created a sensation among the anti's; it had more effect because in what he said about things in congress every congressman present knew he told the truth. Judge Mills in his talk did not say a word from which it could be gathered which sort of statehood he favored. Judge Walden was the only speaker who paid his respects to the detractors of our people, but even he did not say a word against jointure. Even the editor of the Optic when welcoming the visitors to the Commercial Club, did not indicate what sort of statehood he was in favor of save in the most shadowy way.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS!

The United States civil service commission announces an examination on November 1, 1905, at Albuquerque and Las Vegas, New Mexico, to secure eligibles from which to make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of railway mail clerk in New Mexico, and similar vacancies as they may occur in that territory. Age limit 18 to 35 years on the date of examination. Applicants must be at least 5 feet 6 inches in height, and weigh not less than 135 in ordinary clothing. Applicants should at once apply to the local secretary at either of the above mentioned places for application form No. 304, and for further information.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR WINNING FOOTBALL TEAM

MANY CANDIDATES READY TO REPORT FOR SCRIMMAGE WORK—MAY ARRANGE GAME FOR NEXT SATURDAY.

The meeting last night at the sporting goods establishment of F. J. Houston, called for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the Albuquerque Athletic club would organize a foot ball team this season, was attended by a number of the members of last year's team and others interested in the sport.

The meeting developed the fact that the prospects were never brighter than at present for Albuquerque to be represented by a winning eleven. Most of the members of last year's eleven are still in the city, and there is much new material to pick from.

Among those who will probably report for scrimmage work in a few days are Mitchell, Hughes, Anderson, Holman, Mitchell, Brown, Stamm, Scott, Strumlat, Myers, Hale, Decker, Fluke, Ciancy, Kunz and Cannon.

SARATOGA CHIPS FRESH EVERY DAY AT MALOY'S.

Don't forget the concert at the Elks' ball rooms tomorrow evening. The solo by M. Leonard Miller, the whistling wonder, will be worth more than the price of admission, which will be fifty cents.

New Tailor Shop.
A. J. Morell, the well known tailor has reopened a tailor shop on North First street, where he is ready to clean, press and repair ladies' and gents' clothing. Suits made to order. Patronage of former customers solicited.
