

Comfort and Qualities

In shoes are first consideration with people careful about their health, and they are our first thoughts in designing our shoes, no matter how low the price or how dainty the design. And the stocks of shoes that we have here at the present time prove that these qualities need not be costly, nor need they be absent from the smartest and most stylish shoes that are made.

Ladies' Dress Shoes$2.50 to $4.00

Ladies' Street Shoes$1.65 to $3.50

Ladies' House Shoes$1.25 to $2.00

Men's Dress Shoes$3.00 to $4.00

Men's Heavy Shoes$2.00 to $3.40

Shoes for Boys and Girls $1.25 to $2.25

A FALL IN CANNED GOODS.

Especially as to prices—is certain to please you. With the incoming tide of fresh vegetables and fruits, we must get rid of our canned stock—fine as it is—and our reduced prices will make them move in a hurry. Mark you; they're just as good and sweet as the day they were "put up," but out they must go, to your great benefit. Hurry up if you want any.

M. K. McMillan, of Socorro, passed through the city this morning, en route to Las Vegas, where he was called on business.

Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld has returned from an extended visit to her daughter, Miss Reina, who is attending school at Chicago.

Governor Otero, who has been east on a pleasure trip, is scheduled to return to the territorial capital Wednesday of this week.

C. B. Ellis and wife, of Corydon, Ind., arrived Saturday night to spend the winter in the climate that makes New Mexico famous.

Charles E. Ross, of Santa Fe, assistant territorial auditor, spent the day in Albuquerque attending to official business.

A. Barnmann, superintendent of the water system on the Santa Fe coast line, was in the city today from his headquarters at Los Angeles.

J. H. O'Reilly and W. S. Bowen, both life insurance agents, but soliciting for two different companies, did the towns of western Arizona last week.

One of the most important meetings of the year will be held tonight upstairs, over Zeiger's cafe, the meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps at Red Men's hall on Gold avenue tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. By order of the president.

Superintendent John W. Sullivan, of the coal mines of the New Mexico Fuel & Iron company at Hagan, spent yesterday in the city and returned to Hagan this morning.

James Bridgeworth, the bricklayer, returned to the city this morning from Belen, where he has been attending to some building contracts he has at that point.

Colonel Max Frost, editor of the New Mexican, and Mrs. Frost, who have been east the past month, are expected to return to Santa Fe Wednesday evening of this week.

Chief Engineer J. R. Farwell, of the Albuquerque Eastern, accompanied by Mrs. Farwell, returned to the city last night from a two week's visit to Antelope Springs and Santa Fe.

Colonel Charles F. Hunt, formerly sheriff of Bernalillo county, but now a resident of El Paso, where he is engaged in the cattle business, was in the city yesterday on his way to Denver.

Superintendent James K. Allen, of the local Indian school, reports the arrival of nine new pupils from the Navajo Indian reservation. There are now 298 pupils enrolled at the school.

J. A. Johnson, formerly engaged in cattle raising the Rio Puerco valley, and at one time a resident of Albuquerque, but now residing in Idaho, is spending a few days in the city on a visit to old friends.

The Whitney company has completed overhauling the heating apparatus in the Elks' theater, and it is now in good running over and there will be no difficulty in keeping the big play house warm during this winter.

Miss Margaret Oren celebrated her 14th birthday on Saturday afternoon with a party at the home of Mrs. F. J. Thomas, 111 South 14th street. Quite a number of the young lady's friends were her guests for the afternoon.

Charles Smith, an engineer on the Santa Fe, who ran out of Argentine, Kan., who arrived in the city a few days ago in charge of an oil burned, left last night for the east. The oil burner will be put into service on the coal lines.

One of the most important meetings of the year will be held upstairs over Zeiger's cafe tonight at 8 o'clock. It will be a fair meeting, and every cash subscriber, creditor and all others interested in the fair, are urged to attend. Let everybody be present, and let all speak "out."

Superintendent James Kurn, of the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe, with headquarters at San Marcial, has returned from a trip to Topeka where he went to meet with the officials who had the work of arranging the winter train card, which will go into effect on November 12.

In a few days a sheep dipping plant, which has been erected by the government at McCarty's station on the Santa Fe Pacific, will be opened for business. The plant contains three large vats, the largest of which has a capacity of 20,000 gallons. It is for the use of the Acoma Indian sheep raisers.

Joseph Patina, an Indian pupil from the Haskell Indian institute at Lawrence, Kan., is at the local Indian school in charge of Superintendent Allen. Patina was en route to Clifton, Ariz., but lost his ticket, and is held awaiting the arrival of transportation from the Haskell authorities, when he will be sent home.

W. H. Byert, a general merchant of Socorro, was in the city this morning between trains, while en route on a trip which will carry him to Denver, Salt Lake City, Portland, San Francisco and many other cities of the northwest and west. Mr. Byert is accompanied by his niece, Miss Nettie and Life Byerts, also of Socorro.

K. R. Stewart, the new foreman of the Santa Fe store house, is now installed in his new position. He was for eleven years in charge of the Santa Fe storehouse at Topeka, and was among the most popular railway officials located in that city. Mr. Stewart has already made a great many friends among the railroad men and employees of the store house here, although he has been here but a few weeks.

The management of the American Lumber company has laid down a new rule. It is, that any one wishing to inspect the plant of the company, must first obtain a pass from the general manager of the company, otherwise he will not be admitted. This has been made necessary to avoid the annoyance of bothering with imposters who have no business at the mill. The rule is a neat affair, and on it is printed the rules that the bearer must observe while visiting the plant.

The Elks' will hold a grand smoker tomorrow (Tuesday) night. A member of the invitation committee says: "Invitations were issued for an Elks' smoker to be given tomorrow (Tuesday) night, and sent only to members of the local lodge as enrolled in the secretary's office. The entertainment committee desires to particularly impress upon all members of the order that it is an open house occasion to all Elks and that any visiting brothers will be heartily welcomed and are hereby cordially invited."

The Citizen calls attention to the advertisement of the Belen Town and Improvement company in its columns of today, in which the company places upon the market the lots contained in the Belen townsite. Colonel William M. Berger, who is the secretary of the company, has been very successful in the building up of the cities of New Mexico, he having given Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Silver City and Deming their first start, in the sale of a large number of lots in these cities, is connected with the company, and will forward to any one desirous to have map of the new city, together with the prices. He is a firm believer in printers' ink if he has anything to interest the public. Write to him concerning this Belen property.

Mrs. W. Y. Walton on tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon, at her pleasant home, No. 523 West Tijeras avenue, will celebrate her birthday, and the ladies whom she knew here twenty years ago, will be her invited guests. Mrs. Walton is one of Albuquerque's pioneers, not in age, but work, and The Citizen can only imagine that when Mrs. Walton and her old-time lady friends get together tomorrow night, many interesting reminiscences of twenty years ago in Albuquerque, will be talked over. The writer of this local paragraph knew Mrs. Walton twenty years ago, and even in those early days, she was as active in affairs affecting Albuquerque, as now, and of course The Citizen wishes her many future birthday anniversaries.

Edith B. Schloss, representing Loeb, Fishman & Co., wholesalers of fruit and produce, Los Angeles, is in the city calling on local merchants. Mr. Schloss comes to Albuquerque about twice a year and finds it one of his best markets for fancy fruits and peeled green chilis put up in cans. Loeb, Fishman & Co. is the only company in the west making a specialty of canning these Mexican green peppers.

Ed. Pickard, who is a railroader by profession, will probably leave this city in a few days for El Paso. It is understood that he will go to work on the El Paso & Southwestern road. Much to the inconvenience of its patrons, the Albuquerque street railway was tied up for three-quarters of an hour this afternoon by a disabled car on South Third street.

E. C. Newcomer, recently under sheriff of Bernalillo county, has returned from a business trip to Kansas City, Mo.

A regular meeting of the Woodmen Circle will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Odd Fellows' hall.

Attend the meeting this evening, upstairs over Zeiger's Cafe.

The valley was visited by a fine rain, last night.
