A FALL IN CANNED GOODS.
Especially as to prices—is certain to please you. With the incoming tide of fresh vegetables and fruits, we must get rid of our canned stock—fine as it is—and our reduced prices will make them move in a hurry. Mark you: they're just as good and sweet as the day they were "put up," but out they must go, to your great benefit. Hurry up if you want any.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.
Generally fair tonight and Saturday; rising temperature.

Don't forget the fair meeting next Monday night.

Dr. C. H. Conner is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. D. N. Combs is seriously ill at her home on West Railroad avenue.

W. T. Lee and Jack Green, of this city, were in Santa Fe yesterday on business and pleasure.

Mrs. Nelson Drew, of Denver, Colo., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary S. Swan, of North Second street.

Learnard & Lindemann expect to get into their new store room, on Gold avenue, near Second street, in about a week or ten days.

Manuel Sanchez, of Atrisco, who was recently adjudged insane, was conveyed today from the county jail to the territorial asylum at Las Vegas.

Miss Alice Bailey, teacher of Spanish at the Silver City normal, has been given a year's vacation, and has gone on a visit to relatives at Cadillac, Mich.

County Commissioners Alfred Grunfeld and M. R. Springer went to Santa Fe this morning on business of a public nature. District Attorney Clancy accompanied them.

S. E. Newcomer has returned from San Francisco, where he went several weeks ago with a party of children who had been deported from the United States.

Mrs. M. K. Garden of 402 West Silver avenue, has as a visitor for a few days, Miss Ella Carr, of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. Mary Scott, a former resident of Albuquerque.

Dr. Earl McCracken, a prominent osteopath physician of Shreveport, La., is in the city, the guest of Dr. C. H. Conner, of the Barnett building. Dr. McCracken is seeing the southwest on a pleasure trip.

Percy Hawley returned this morning from a hunting trip to the Rio Grande valley in the vicinity of Sabinas, forty miles south of this city. He reports duck plentiful on the lower Rio Grande.

The Woman's club held a meeting this afternoon at the club rooms in the Commercial club building. The meeting was largely attended and was under the auspices of the literary department.

A. J. Loomis, the popular deputy internal revenue collector, with headquarters at Santa Fe, is in the city today on business with those who do patronize Uncle Sam's revenue department.

N. A. Lewis is in the city. He is returning to Bisbee, Arizona, after attending the funeral and burial of his mother, Mrs. E. Lewis, at Salt Lake City, Utah. The deceased was about forty-five years of age.

H. H. Betts, city clerk of Silver City, passed through the city this morning en route to Boston, where Mrs. Betts has been visiting the past month. They will return to New Mexico within a couple of weeks.

One of the most important meetings of the year—the territorial fair meeting—will be held at the room upstairs over Zeiger's cafe next Monday evening. All citizens having the city at heart are requested to attend.

Ladies appointed to solicit funds for the Associated Charities will please not forget the meeting called for tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Rabbi Kaplan on South Seventh street. Every church in the city should have representatives present.

Fred Scholle, of Belen, is in the city looking after the transfer of 3,500 lambs, which he sold to W. H. Lyles, of Socorro. Mr. Lyles is shipping a large number of sheep from the local Santa Fe stock yards. Mr. Scholle will remain in the city a couple of days.

B. Davidson, who about five years ago was the hydraulic/mechanical engineer at the Albemarle mill and mine in the Cochiti mountains, is in the city and has met many old friends. Mr. Davidson, on leaving here went to the state of Guerrero, Mexico, where he became the general manager of the Trinidad Mining and Smelting company, and where he successfully operated several mines for himself. For the past two months he visited relatives and friends near Toronto, Canada, Niagara Falls and Chicago. He will remain here a couple of days and then continue south to Mexico. He says he has made considerable money in Mexico mines, and will continue to operate down in that republic.

A fine piece to white away the hours—at the pool hall, No. 115 West Railroad avenue.
