

ANNUAL FAIR MEETING LAST NIGHT

But no New Officers Elected, This Matter Being Left to a Committee of 15.

ANOTHER MEETING THIS EVENING

Pursuant to call, issued in The Citizen a few days ago, the annual meeting of the New Mexico Territorial Fair association met last night at stairs over Zeiger's cafe, and while not as largely attended as a previous meeting, at least fifty representative citizens were present and much enthusiasm was manifested.

W. H. Groer, president of the twenty-fifth annual fair, presided, and D. K. B. Sellers officiated as secretary.

After order had been observed the secretary arose and addressed the meeting on the subject of incorporating the association. His remarks were to the point, were opportune, and elicited favorable comment from those present.

The suggestion was discussed by others, and it was finally agreed to incorporate as soon as possible, or rather immediately following the election of officers and board of directors for the next annual fair.

The secretary then read the resignation of J. B. Herndon as treasurer, and on motion it was accepted. The meeting also accepted the resignations of George L. Brooks, president, H. Spitz, vice president and D. S. Rosenwald, secretary, which had previously been submitted, but had not come before the meeting in official form until last night.

This was followed by a motion, which was seconded, that a committee of fifteen be chosen, with power to elect the new officers of the next annual fair.

Before this motion was put it was moved and seconded that the chair appoint a committee of three, who should retire and select twenty-five names from which fifteen were to be selected whose duties it should be to choose the new officers.

Messrs. E. J. Washburn, H. D. Wellter and Joseph Walker were chosen a committee of three, and they soon returned with a list of twenty-five names. Balloting then proceeded, and the following were elected as the committee of fifteen:

B. H. Briggs, P. F. McCanna, D. A. Macpherson, W. T. McCright, Felix H. Lester, Thomas S. Hubbell, M. Mandell, B. Spitz, W. H. Greer, G. P. Learnard, David S. Rosenwald, E. Newcomer, Dr. J. F. Pearce, O. N. Marron and J. H. O'Reilly.

The meeting then adjourned and the committee of fifteen went into session, organizing by electing Mr. McCanna, chairman, and Mr. McCright secretary.

The qualifications of several gentlemen for president and secretary for the next year's fair were fully discussed, and the names of several present were suggested for the offices, but they declined the honors.

It was finally moved and seconded that a committee of three be named by the chair to see as to the selection of a president and secretary for the next fair, first meeting this morning at the office of W. H. Greer, and to report tonight to the committee of fifteen at another meeting up stairs over Zeiger's cafe. The chair appointed as that committee, Messrs. W. H. Greer, B. Spitz and D. A. Macpherson, after which the general committee meeting adjourned.

In accordance with adjournment, the committee of three met this morning at the office of W. H. Greer and discussed the availability of several well known gentlemen for the offices, and in the language of Mr. Spitz: "The town is absolutely full of good timber for all the offices."

Plans for the conduct of the fair next year were discussed, pro and con, and the committee will no doubt have its report ready for the meeting of the general committee this evening at 8 o'clock over Zeiger's cafe, when the names of new officers and other details for the carrying on of next year's fair will be submitted for approval or rejection.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

There will be a meeting of the Woman's Guild of St. John's church tomorrow afternoon, in the Guild hall, at 2:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

A. M. Lambright, a prominent attorney of Las Animas, Colo., is in the city on matters pertaining to some Indian deputation claims. The gentleman was introduced at The Citizen office by Prof. G. S. Ramsay.

Colonel W. S. Hopewell, accompanied by John W. Sullivan, superintendent of the coal mines of the New Mexico Fuel & Iron company at Hagan, left this morning for that point, driving overland. He will be absent from the city for several days.

Mrs. Charlotte Belle Roberts, aged 21 years, died this morning at the family home, 115 South Arno street, after a lingering illness. The deceased came to Albuquerque a month ago from California and is survived by a husband and two children. The remains have been taken in charge by the Fisher Undertaking company, and will be shipped to the old home of the deceased in Manchester, Iowa, tomorrow morning. The bereaved husband and children will accompany the body.

B. IFFELD & COMPANY'S NOVEMBER OPPORTUNITY SALE COMMENCES TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14.

GET A NUMBER ON YOUR HOUSE

City Council Seems Disposed to Enforce House Numbering Ordinance.

CITY SOLONS MEANS BUSINESS

At last the city council has made an effort toward renumbering the city, and placing new street signs at all the street corners. The concession of furnishing the house numbers has been let to E. N. Ferrill, an expert at the business, and in return for the concession, Mr. Ferrill is to furnish the street signs free of charge to the city. The work is to begin at once.

In accordance with the ordinance governing the numbering of houses and the placarding of the streets, the city is to furnish the street signs and the property owners are to furnish their own house numbers, the correct numbers to be furnished by the city through the city engineer or otherwise, and the law provides a penalty for the property owner failing to comply with the provisions of the ordinance.

In its agreement with Mr. Ferrill, the city practically complies with that part of the ordinance which applies to street signs, and at the same time passes the "back" up to the property owners. Mr. Ferrill will canvas every house in the city and will be equipped with plans showing just what number each house in the city should be. He is instructed to furnish the property owners their correct numbers, whether they desire to purchase their house numbers from him or not. By this systematic canvass of the city, no house will escape the canvasser, as the selling of the sign will make a visit to each house worth while. It will also place the property owner at the mercy of the law, which will probably have more to do with getting the city well numbered than anything else.

Most people are morally afraid of the law, and in this case there is reason for them to be a little anxious, as the city council, since it has complied with its part of the ordinance, feels disposed to enforce the part applying to property owners.

That part of the ordinance applying to the penalty for not numbering houses is as follows:

"In case any owner, occupant, or agent of any building in this city, shall refuse, fail or neglect to number such building within the time specified in the next preceding section, or number or attempt to number, such building otherwise than in conformity with the provisions herein, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars; and when such fine is paid, the chairman of the street committee shall have such building correctly numbered at the expense of the city."

A foregoing section of the ordinance provides that a house or building shall be numbered within ten days after its completion.

NO BURGLARIES LAST NIGHT

Extra Vigilance of Police Put a Damper on Wholesale Thieving.

LANSING AND GALE RELEASED

There was a lull in the burglary epidemic last night and not one robbery of any kind was reported to the police. How long this state of affairs will last is not known, but it is very probable that the burglars have become scared as the result of the narrow escape of one of their number from capture on Sunday night, while in the act of ransacking the Herndon residence. The extra vigilance of the police who have been patrolling the residence portion of the city the past few nights may also have something to do with it.

Two Suspects Released Today. Lansing and Gale, the two men arrested Sunday on suspicion of being the ones who attempted to force an entrance into the office of the Gross, Kelly wholesale house, were released from jail this morning and given hours to leave the city. The release of the men followed a thorough investigation of them by the officers, who failed to find sufficient evidence to warrant holding them for the attempted robbery. Lansing, who was shot in the leg, had so far recovered from the injury as to be able to walk without much difficulty, and when last seen the men were heading for the railway yards to catch a train west.

Another Suspect Arrested. Because he persisted in wearing false whiskers, and acted in a suspicious manner, Officer Kennedy last night, upon instructions from Chief McMillin, took into custody one E. W. Van Walke, employed in the brass foundry at the Santa Fe shops. After being examined the police were convinced that Van Walke had no connection with the numerous burglaries that have been committed in the last few nights, and he was released with the warning that sufficient evidence had time for a man to be snooping around the residence districts wearing false whiskers. He promised to be good.

Painter Arrested for Theft. Clarence Murphy, a painter in the employ of E. A. Farrell, a contract painter, was arrested last night upon complaint of his employer, who charges Murphy with the theft of a number of paint brushes and other material from his shop. Murphy vigorously denies his guilt and has employed Attorney W. C. Hancock to defend him. His case will be heard at 5 o'clock this evening.

Thought He Had Moral Right. Robert Cain, a stranger in the city, was arrested last night upon the charge of being on the streets and being a vagrant. He was arraigned in police court this morning and pleaded not guilty to the charge. Cain addressed the court in a dignified manner, and carefully weighing his words, replied to the charge as follows: "Your honor, I am not guilty. I consider that I have a moral right to not a legal right to beg. You know I have to live."

The judge's reply was a sentence of ten days in jail, where he will be fed by the city. Cain refused to go to work and was placed in the dark cell in the city bastille.

CLAUDE DOANE TO BE TRIED HERE

Change of Venue Will be Taken From McKinley to Bernalillo County.

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST INDIANS

It is learned from good authority that the trial of Claude Doane, the convict arrested several months ago on the charge of murder and horse stealing, and who is now confined in the penitentiary at Santa Fe awaiting trial, will not be tried in McKinley county, the scene of his alleged crimes, but that his counsel will ask for a change of venue to Bernalillo county. Doane's trial is scheduled to come up for hearing at Gallup on Monday of next week when the district court for that county will be convened by Judge Ira A. Abbott. The attorneys for Doane, it is understood, will ask for a change of venue on the grounds that the feeling in McKinley county is so bitter against their client that it will be impossible to get a jury there that will give him a fair trial.

The crime for which Doane must first stand trial is the wanton murder of Walter Lyons, a school teacher of Ramah, a small settlement near Gallup. It is alleged that Doane followed his victim, who was on his way overland to Colorado with considerable money on his person, caught up with him in the night and after shooting Lyons robbed his person and hid the body in some bushes along the roadside where it was found a week later in a terribly decomposed state.

Territorial officers at once went to work on the case and after many weeks of work, it was ascertained that Doane was seen by Lyons only a short time before his death. Search was then begun for Doane and after a long chase extending over several counties he was captured in Taos county, together with Jesse Baca, an alleged accomplice, by Deputy United States Marshal Fred Fornoff and Special Officer Ben Williams, of the Santa Fe railway. Doane was taken to the penitentiary at Santa Fe after he was given a preliminary trial at Gallup, where he was bound over to await the next term of court for McKinley county on the charge of murder. Baca, who was bound over for horse stealing, has been confined in the Bernalillo county jail awaiting trial.

It is said that the evidence against Doane is very strong, as when captured he was wearing the hat and had the horse and saddle belonging to the dead school teacher. The trial promises to be one of the most interesting ever held in the territory.

Call of Criminal Docket. Judge Abbott having sustained the demurrer filed by District Attorney Frank W. Clancy to the plea in abatement interposed last month to a large number of indictments, it is expected that tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock there will be a call of the criminal docket for the purpose of ascertaining what cases will be called for trial in December when the trial jurors will report for duty.

Obstructed United States Mail. This morning Deputy United States Marshals Harry Cooper and Fred Fornoff arrived in the city from Jemez, where they went a couple of days ago to arrest three Pueblo Indians on the charge of obstructing the United States mails. It is alleged that the Indians got hold of some liquor and while in a drunken frolic held up the stage containing the United States mail. They were turned over to Sheriff Perfecto Armijo and locked up in the county jail, where they will be held to answer to the serious charge filed against them.
