SENSATIONAL MURDER CASE IS NOW ENDED

Williams in Trial of Alleged Slayer Caused Former to be Indicted--False Affidavit Said to Have Eeen Made.

Tombstone, Ariz., June 4.-After deliberating twenty-four hours, the jury in the case of Star K. Williams, on trial for subordination of perjury, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

This is the ending of one of the incidents of a most sensational case which followed a crime committed in night. Bisbee, April 25, 1906, when J. C. Campbell, a transfer man, shot and killed a competitor in business named James C. McLaughlin, Campbell being 25 years old and McLaughlin 48 years old. The killing was the out-growth of a controversy between Campbell and McLaughlin the night

Outgrowth of Murder Trial. Star K. Williams was employed as counsel for Campbell during his ensuing battle with the law. In the course of the trial he introduced an affidavit of a man named C. E. > Boise, Idaho, June 4 .- The court room filled quickly this morning with persons who came to hear the open-ing statement of the prosecution in the famous Haywood case.

Haywood was a trifle pale as be took his place near his counsels' table, but declared that he felt quite well after his brief illness of last night. Mrs. Haywood was wheeled into the court room in her invalid chair.

Hawley Begins Address.

James H. Hawley commenced his address to the jury at 9:46 o'clock. He declared that he had no intention of going into the details of the state's case to any great extent.

He told of the positions in the Western Federation held by Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, and said that Harry Orchard, who confessed to
