CHAS. MOYER RELEASED UNDER BOND OF $25,000

Order Made Today After Conference of Attorneys For State and Defense.

HAYWOOD WILL GO TO DENVER TO LIVE

Western Federation Will Secure Train on Which He Was Taken to Boise, and He Will be Returned in State.

Boise, Idaho, July 29.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and co-defendant with William D. Haywood, who yesterday was acquitted of the murder of former Governor Steiwer, will be admitted to bail in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, and released this afternoon.

An agreement to this effect was reached this morning between the counsel for the state and the defense, but the making of the formal application and entry was postponed from 10 o'clock, at which hour court reconvened today, until 2 p. m. The delay was asked for to allow a further conference between counsel as to what action shall be taken in the case of Pettibone and the attorneys for the state will oppose bail for Pettibone in any sum whatever.

Boise continues quietly to discuss the verdict, and apparently the people are taking but little interest as to the future course of the prosecution.

Haywood Quietly Rejoices

William D. Haywood spent Sunday in a quiet Denver as frequent visits from his friends would permit, and today a repetition of the congratulations is in progress at his modest home. His invalid wife and his daughters are participants in the joy over the acquittal of the husband and father, and his aged mother, who has returned from her hospital where a breakdown following the giving of the case to the jury Saturday had sent her, hovered around "her boy" with all the genuine love of one of those excellent creatures, a mother.

Haywood will probably remain here for several days, attending to affairs, and preparing to return with his family to Denver. He has a message from the miners at Denver telling him to wait for their special train, as they want to "take him back in style."

Will Hire "Kidnapper Train." Denver, Colo., July 29.—"We will hire from the Union Pacific, the same special train in which Bill Haywood was taken to Boise after being kidnaped, and in this train we will bring him back to Denver," declared James Kirwan, acting secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, today.

"This great victory for the good name of the Federation will be followed by an immediate agreement of enough organizers to double the membership of the Western Federation of Miners in the next three months.

"We will not have any more secret meetings of the various local unions, because there is nothing to hide. Then there will be no work for the detectives, who have been getting money from the mine owners to spy upon our meetings."

Demonstration at Butte. Butte, Mont., July 29.—Seven thousand stalwart miners and other union workers paraded the streets here last evening as an expression of gratification at the acquittal of Haywood. American flags were carried by the paraders. It was one of the greatest demonstrations ever seen here.

Congratulates Haywood. Chicago, Ill., July 29.—Mahlon Barnes, national secretary of the Socialist party, sent the following telegram to Haywood at Boise: "Greetings and congratulations. Your vindication brings inexpressible joy to your comrades and fellow workers everywhere. The verdict is a complete rout for the conspirators and a signal victory for the working class. Greeting to your companions, the 'understandable' citizens, Moyer and Pettibone."

DYING GENERAL HAS BEEN PRISONER FOR YEARS

Recommended For Bravery After Arrest on Field of Battle.

Worcester, Mass., July 29.—General Joshua Pickett, 85 years of age and a veteran of the Civil war, is said to be dying here. He is technically a military prisoner.

At the battle of Cold Harbor, when colonel of the 5th Massachusetts regiment, in a fit of anger, he replied roughly to General Stannard, his superior, who placed him under arrest and took his sword.

The record of the arrest was never changed, though General Pickett was commended by General Stannard for valor on the field, and Pickett declares that he will die under arrest.

England's Cassie Used Name of American Financier J. P. Morgan

MRS. JOSEPHINE LESLIE, who imitated Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, with one of her dogs.

London, July 29.—Imitating the methods of Cassie Chadwick, and using the name of J. Pierpont Morgan as a decoy, a woman known as Mrs. Josephine Leslie, employed as an English kennel maid, succeeded in obtaining from a rich Irish woman, Miss Annie Blount, $25,000, and from an English widow, Mrs. Maria Stokes, $15,000. According to the police, she also secured large sums from other people.

Frenzied Finance Fraud Game Successfully Worked In British Isle.

FINANCIER SAYS THAT HE NEVER SAW WOMAN

There is much mystery attached to the case for the police say Mrs. Leslie, who is now a prisoner, has relatives worth millions.

Mrs. Leslie displayed worthless checks for amounts up to $1,000,000, in order to show Miss Blount how wealthy she was, and succeeded in persuading the gullible Irish woman that she had Pierpont Morgan under her thumb, and that Morgan was almost on his feet, trying to induce her to invest money in his securities.

The two women met while Miss Blount was on a visit to some country friends, where Mrs. Leslie was employed to look after the dogs. The visitor from Ireland was impressed by the culture and gentility shown by Mrs. Leslie, who appeared to be much superior to the ordinary run of English servants.

She Got the Cash. When Miss Blount terminated her visit, she and the kennel maid were best friends, and later met frequently. The Mrs. Leslie threw up her dog job and devoted herself to the Cassie Chadwick brand of high finance.

She started in by blinding her connection with a great American money king, and then gradually worked up to mentioning Morgan as her financial adviser. One evening at dinner with Miss Blount, a large basket of flowers came to Mrs. Leslie with a card on which was written: "Can you not trust a friend? J. P. M. Leslie said Morgan had sent the flowers to her as a make up gift because he had lately been disagreeable to her.

"I wish he wouldn't do these things," said Mrs. Leslie. Then she began to dig into Miss Blount's purse, Morgan she said, had let her into a good thing, promising that for every $5,000 she invested she would receive 12 per cent interest and $25,000. Miss Blount passed over $5,000 in a check drawn to Mrs. Leslie's order, who explained that this was necessary because she did not want Morgan to know she was giving away her tip to her friends.

On another occasion the Irish woman handed over $12,500 for investment with Morgan on the same terms as the first. Then she secured $25,000 more, promising 500 per cent return in seven months. Finally this game flattened out.

Then the Leslie woman began operating on Mrs. Stokes. She told the same tale about Morgan, and got first $2,500 from her. Then she secured $5,000 more, promising 500 per cent return in seven months. Finally this game flattened out.

When she was arraigned in police court J. Pierpont Morgan was placed upon the witness stand.

"Do you know Mrs. Leslie?" asked Mr. Sims, the public prosecutor. "Not so far as I can remember," answered Mr. Morgan. He also denied all knowledge of any financial dealings with her.

SON SHOTS FOUR AT DEATHBED OF FATHER

Two Sisters and Two Brothers Seriously Wounded As They Knelt In Grief.

HENRY HUNTINGTON MAY BE INSANE

As Major Douglas George Huntington Lay Dying, Young Man Drew Revolver and Suddenly Fired at Members of the Family.

Versailles, France, July 29.—Grief and sorrow reign in the residence of the stricken Huntington family, where last night Henry Huntington, a son of Major Douglas George Huntington, shot down his two sisters and two brothers at the moment when the members of the family gathered around the death-bed of their father. Major Huntington is breathing his last. The condition of Elizabeth and Alonso is today declared desperate, but not hopeless, while the wounds inflicted upon Edith and Douglas are not serious. Mrs. Huntington, their mother, is completely prostrated from the shock and confined to her bed.

Son in Jail. A few blocks away, Henry, who is regarded by the family and friends as demented, is in jail. He is dazed and confused, and hardly realizes the terrible thing he has done.

Major Huntington is one of the best known Americans in Paris, and he and his family have long taken a prominent part in the social and official gaiety of the French capital. He is a retired army officer, and prior to taking up his residence abroad, lived in Chicago.

Grouped Around Deathbed. For some days it has been known that Major Huntington could live but a short time, and last night his family was hastily summoned by his nurse, as worn out by constant watching, they lay asleep for the first time in several days, a sudden change for the worst caused the nurse to call them, and the mother, three sons and two daughters grouped round the father, kneeling in their sorrow and attempting to comfort each other.

As he spoke in faltering tones, telling them not to grieve over his death, but to comfort each other, Henry was observed to draw a revolver from the bedside. For a number of weeks his strange actions had led to his family having a careful watch established to prevent him doing any harm, though it was generally believed that he was mentally unbalanced, but generally accepted that too much drink was harming him.

Without Warning. Without a word of warning, he suddenly drew a revolver and fired four shots at the kneeling figures and a fifth at his father, the latter shouting in his agony that he was a madman. Mahoney said that he expected to remain on the range for ten days. He said the strike would continue in the same way as it has been conducted up to the present, and that there will be no violence. He deplored the presence of so many armed deputies.

There is determination at Hibbing and elsewhere through the state to show the Federation that the people don't want it to control and for that reason the authorities are taking a strong stand to protect the strike breakers against any violence.

STROKE OF LIGHTNING KILLED FORTY-FIVE SHEEP

Peculiar Accident in Western Socorro County—Herders Escaped Injury.

MR. LUNA SAYS RANGE IS IN FINE CONDITION

"One stroke of lightning on the night of July 22, killed forty-five sheep and shocked severely two herders in charge of the flock," said Hon. Solomon Luna, who reached Albuquerque today from his sheep ranches in western Socorro county.

"The sheep were gathered near the herders' camp when it began to rain and they were huddled together after the fashion of sheep in a storm. A blinding flash of lightning dazed the herders and after they recovered sufficiently to investigate, they found forty-five sheep dead. The lightning leaped from one animal to another, scorching them slightly and killing them instantly.

"I never saw the ranges of western Socorro county in better condition," continued Mr. Luna. "We have rains nearly every day—good soaking showers—and the grass is fresh and green. The indications are that this will be a very successful year for the range."

Mr. Luna will remain here for several days on business.

20 LIVES AND MILLION IN PROPERTY ARE LOST

Fires Created Havoc in New York and Vicinity In Past 24 Hours.

BLACK HAND MAY HAVE CAUSED DEATH

Tenement House Fired by a Bomb Explosion and One Score Killed. Coney Island and Long Beach Hotels Burn.

New York, July 29.—A shocking loss of life and the destruction of property the value of which is estimated at more than a million dollars, was caused by fires in New York and the immediate vicinity in the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock this morning.

Twenty are dead and fifteen are suffering from injuries as a result of the burning of a six-story double tenement house in Chrystie street, and the financial loss resulted from the destruction of the Long Beach hotel at Long Beach, Long Island, today, and at Coney Island yesterday.

In addition the steamship Hamilton, of the old Dominion line, came into port yesterday with part of her hold ablaze. Those flames were extinguished after about fifteen thousand dollars damage was done.

Explosion at Coney Island. The explosion of a bomb placed, the police believe, by the "black hand" in an Italian grocery store on Chrystie street, started a fire which swept through the tenement house tenement and destroyed the lives of a score and injured 15 others. The noise of the explosion caused a panic and the fire escapes and the firemen made many heroic rescues.

A second explosion from a kerosene tank set fire to the whole lower floor and cut off all means of escape of those above. A rush was made for the fire escapes and the firemen made many heroic rescues.

Coney Island Blaze. Coney Island was swept Sunday by a disastrous fire, which destroyed seven blocks in the amusement zone and caused a loss of a million dollars.

The area burned aggregated about 320 acres. Two or three hundred firms were put out of business. Cigarette stumps thrown in some waste paper caused the fire.

The insurance companies to only $180,000. Steeplechase Park and hotel and nearly a score of smaller hotels were burned.

Long Beach Hotel Burns. Long Beach, Cal., July 29.—Eight hundred guests of the Long Beach hotel, one of the largest on the Atlantic coast, had to flee for their lives when the hotel burned to the sands this morning. There was no loss of life, but the guests lost about all their clothing and personal effects.

The fire was discovered on the first floor of the hotel, and the hotel hops and clerks rushed through the house arousing the guests. This prompt action prevented loss of life. The loss is $200,000.

TELEGRAPHERS MAY RESUME STRIKE

San Francisco, Cal., July 19.—A renewal of hostilities is threatened between the telegraphers and their employers. The local union served notice yesterday on the Western Union that in its belief the spirit of the agreement which settled the strike is not being observed by the corporation. Resolutions were adopted expressing the intention to take the matter up with the higher officials of the W. U.

It is claimed that the strikers are being discriminated against, contrary to this agreement, and that operators are being required to work 12 to 15 hours per day.

President Small, of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, has been requested to remain here for the present.
