WASHINGTON WIRE

Desperate Effort Made This Morning to Induce Supreme Court to Save Durrant's Neck.

NO LOCAL NOMINATIONS YET

Civil Service Law Under Discussion in Both Houses of Congress—Silver Question Sprung in the Senate by Senator Teller.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Justice Shiras, of the Supreme court, today refused the application of Attorney Boardman for writ staying the execution of Theodore Durrant. The application was made at the residence of the justice before he went into the court room. Justice Shiras simply announced that he could not entertain the application.

Boardman then announced his intention of making an effort in the same direction before a full bench. Almost immediately after the members of the Supreme court took their seats, Boardman sought to present a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. He had not been admitted to the bar and to save time he presented a personal petition.

Boardman read the petition at length consuming a half hour, the justices asking many questions to get at the exact status of the case. After a conference the Supreme court denied the writ of habeas corpus.

Nominations Sent to Senate.

Washington, June 7.—The president today sent these nominations to the senate:

Henry K. Boyer, of Pennsylvania, superintendent of the mint at Philadelphia; Kavanagh H. Kennedy, of Mississippi, consul at Para, Brazil; Wm. H. Graham, of Indiana, consul at Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Postmasters.—Colorado.—Charles D. Parks, La Junta; Anna G. Derry, Ouray; Samuel H. Young, Rocky Ford.

Session of the Senate Today.

Washington, Jan. 7.—At the opening of the senate today the reply of the attorney general to the senate resolution, calling upon members of the cabinet to inform the senate what, if any, changes should be made in the administration of the civil service law, was read. The attorney general recommended that the attorneys employed by the department of justice and deputy United States marshals be excepted from its operations.

Senator Cockrell said that these recommendations ought to be made to the president of the United States, as he had full power to act regarding them.

Senator Cockrell gave notice that he would move to refer all replies of cabinet officers to the senate resolution to the president himself.

Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, said that the trouble with all these communications arose from the ill advised action of the senate itself. "It seems to me," said he, "a most extraordinary proceeding for the senate to direct the heads of departments to give their opinions as to the wisdom of the president's order. That is what we have done, inadvertently, no doubt. Had my attention been drawn to it I should have moved to rescind the order."

Senator Allen, of Nebraska, introduced a free range resolution and made a speech on the subject.

Senator Teller, of Colorado, made a speech on the subject of the report to the effect that the friends of silver were trying to bring about a rupture between the president and Secretary Gage. Mr. Teller declared that the Republican party today was for the gold standard and that there was no difference between the president and Secretary Gage on the subject.

Senator Chandler interrupted Senator Teller with remarks, the drift of which was that the president was not to be judged by Secretary Gage's remarks and that the Coloradoans was hindering the efforts toward international bimetallism.

Senator Teller responded that he would like to bring about international bimetallism, but it was hopeless.

He then spoke for a strong American policy in Cuba and China, being followed by Senator Turner, of Washington, who opposed the immigration bill and denounced monopolies and trusts.

Session of the House Today.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Before the debate of the city of Chicago resolution was resumed in the house today, an ineffectual attempt was made to agree upon a time for the termination of the debate.

Mr. Gillette, Republican, of Massachusetts, then took the floor in support of the law.

Mr. Ferris, Republican, of Indiana, followed and spoke against the civil service law.

Mr. Cummings, Democrat, of New York, made a vigorous speech in favor of wiping out the civil service system, which he declared was doomed. He defended Tammany Hall warmly against its accusers.

200,000 PEOPLE STARVING.

Central Cuban Relief Committee Has Issued Call for Charitable Contributions.

New York, Jan. 7.—The Central Cuban relief committee appointed by President McKinley, and acting under the directions of the department of state, has issued an appeal for contributions in aid of the suffering people of Cuba, of whom there are estimated to be 200,000 in actual danger of death from starvation. All money and material contributions will be immediately forwarded to United States Consul General Lee, at Havana, under whose supervision the distribution will be made. The committee says that drafts for Cuban relief should be made payable and addressed to the chairman of the Cuban Relief committee, Temple court, New York City.

Jacobs, at No. 12 Waverly place, last evening and carried away mining stock valued at about $20,000, besides a collection of rare coins, musical instruments, rare books, jewelry, silverware and clothing. When the burglars took place, there were seven or eight persons in the house. The mining stock represents companies in the Mercur, Tintic and American Fork districts of Utah, and the Gilpin county district in Colorado. It is not negotiable. Mr. Jacobs is the secretary of the Utah State Bureau of Promotion and Publicity.

Double Tragedy in Kansas.

Fort Scott, Kas., Jan. 7.—Walter Catt, about midnight, shot his young wife twice and then sent a bullet into his own brain. Mrs. Catt will probably recover. Catt's wound is fatal. ### PROSPEROUS SAN JUAN COUNTY.

Probate Clerk McRae Pays a Glowing and Merited Tribute to His Resourceful County.

William McRae, the capable and popular probate clerk of San Juan county, who is in Santa Fe on business before the United States District court, in a conversation with a New Mexican reporter this morning, paid a glowing and merited tribute to his prosperous and richly resourceful county.

Mr. McRae says that San Juan county has made remarkable progress during the past year, and, under the impulse of the extensive irrigation work now in progress, is likely to multiply its population and productive capacity by at least two during 1898.

"The new ditch enterprise has been started on the east side of the Animas river, about 12 miles above Aztec," he says, "and is being energetically prosecuted by men, who not only understand their business, but have ample capital to carry on and complete the important work. The main canal from the Animas river, with the miles of laterals contemplated, will reclaim thousands of acres of fertile mesa land as far east as Bloomfield on the San Juan river, affording fine fruit, grain and vegetable farms for many new settlers."

Speaking of the enormous fruit crop of San Juan county during the past season, Mr. McRae expresses the opinion that the yield of winter apples was fully 10,000,000 pounds, which sold for $150,000. The crop of peaches, apricots, plums, pears and other summer fruits was proportionately large, but much of this fruit rotted under the trees as it could not be profitably hauled 50 miles to market on wagons. "The present great need of the county," he added, "is a railroad outlet for its products, both north and south, and the people feel confident that the time is not far distant when such an outlet will be provided."

"Farmington has been greatly improved during the past year and nearly all of the ranchmen of the county are making substantial and attractive improvements. Of course, after making San Juan county my home for 20 years, I am very much pleased to witness all these signs of prosperity," concluded Mr. McRae.

THE END OF DURRANT

Murderer of Two Young Women in San Francisco Hanged at San Quentin This Morning.

DIED IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Was Scrupulous About His Dress This Morning, Insisting Upon Having a Collar and Necktie, But Showed No Fear.

San Quentin Prison, Calif., Jan. 7.—Durrant rested quietly all night, not disturbing the death watch in any way. When he awoke he bid the guard—good morning, dressed himself in a neat suit of black provided for the execution. No collar or necktie was provided. Durrant noticed the omission and at his request Captain Edgar ordered the missing articles of attire sent up to him. He also remarked that the socks sent him were light in color, and the obliging captain procured a pair of a darker shade. "You never saw a cooler man," said Captain Edgar.

Mr. Durrant was admitted to the death chamber. Her meeting with her son was affecting, although both strove to maintain their composure. The prisoner refused to see a Protestant clergyman.

At 9:30 Warden Hale read the death warrant to the condemned man who listened with no sign of fear.

The prisoner's parents accompanied Father Lagan to the chamber where the prisoner was given extreme unction and the Catholic service was performed. Durrant then conversed with his parents a few minutes and shortly after 10 o'clock bade them farewell and prepared for the march to the scaffold.

So many persons pressed forward that the prison warden found it necessary to publicly announce that, under no circumstances, would any one without a proper card be admitted to the scaffold. The trap was sprung on Durrant at 10:35 p. m.

Asserted His Innocence.

San Quentin Prison, Calif., Jan. 7.—Durrant ascended the scaffold calmly, following Father Lagan, who ministered to his spiritual wants. He made a brief speech in quiet tones, asserting his innocence and forgiving those who persecuted him, mentioning especially the press of San Francisco.

His last words were: "I am innocent." His death appeared painless. In 15 minutes he was cut down; his neck was broken by the fall.

There was no scene at the gallows. Mrs. Durrant did not witness the execution.

Extraordinary Interest in Execution.

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 7.—An extraordinary amount of interest in Durrant's execution was manifested all over the state. Crowds of people assembled about the newspaper offices where the bulletins were displayed.

The prevailing sentiment in San Francisco is that Durrant deserved his fate, but that any manly people who still believe him innocent.

Hanged on Circumstantial Evidence.

Greenfield, Mass., Jan. 7.—John O'Neill, Jr., was hanged today in the Franklin county jail for the murder of Mrs. Hattie E. McLeod in Buckland on January 8 of last year. O'Neill protested his innocence to the last. Mrs. McLeod was found dead on the highway, on which she had been walking from the village to her father's farm, where she resided. O'Neill was 25 years old, was of good repute and was arrested. He had a sum of money corresponding in amount to the sum Mrs. McLeod was known to have had when she was killed.

Hangings in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 7.—Thomas Cyrus was hanged here today. The nose slipped from behind his ears and death resulted from strangulation. Cyrus murdered his mistress, a negro woman, employed at the home of Governor Atkinson, on the night of June 2.

Bainbridge, Ga., Jan. 7.—Simon Hopkins, colored, was hanged here today. He confessed that he inveigled a friend named Harris into a swamp and killed him.

Triple Hanging in Louisiana.

New Orleans, Jan. 7.—Three negro murderers died on the scaffold at Hahnville, a small town in St. Charles parish, today. The notorious Louis Richards was one of them. They murdered and robbed a Jewish peddler named Zeigler last June in Ellington plantation.

Pincer Ground Entered.

Charles F. Potter, an attorney of Colorado Springs, entered 147 1/2 acres of placer ground in the Red River mining district of New Mexico at the United States land office in Santa Fe this forenoon. It is called the Gilt-edged placer claim.

Additional California Limited Service.

On account of the liberal patronage of the California Limited and to better accommodate the heavy travel to California incident to the midwinter season the Santa Fe route will increase this service, beginning January 17, from Chicago and St. Louis westbound, and January 23, from Los Angeles eastbound. Beginning with these dates the California Limited will run three times a week instead of semi-weekly, as at present. These trains will leave Santa Fe westbound at 8:30 a. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, eastbound at 3:55 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

SITUATION AT COLUMBUS UNCHANGED.

Kurtz Faction Hopes to Agree Upon a Candidate by Tomorrow Night—Silver Men Will Vote for Hanna.

Columbus, Jan. 7.—The situation so far as votes are concerned, remains unchanged. The air of Kurtz and the Democratic managers gives color to the statement that a sensational movement of some kind may be expected to offset the call for a Republican state mass meeting here on next Monday. The Kurtz people hope to agree by tomorrow night upon a man for senator, but the indications are for a deadlock for a short time.

Silver Men for Hanna.

Columbus, Jan. 7.—The two fusion silver Republicans from Cincinnati, will, it is claimed, vote for Hanna, provided they cannot get their silver Republican elector elected as senator. In that event, Hanna will still need some votes.

Grosvenor not a Candidate.

Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—Congressman Grosvenor returned from Washington today and immediately denied the published story, that he had gone to Washington to see Judge Day or anybody else with reference to becoming a candidate for senator in place of Hanna. With reference to the proposed gerrymander of the Ohio congressional districts, to throw Mr. Grosvenor into a heavy Democratic district, he said he could win by over 1,000 if his district was made as proposed.

Crowd Expected on Monday.

Columbus, Jan. 7.—In view of the crush of people expected here on Monday, the police have asked for detectives in the principal cities from New York to Chicago and the south to come here.

TERRITORIAL TOPICS.

A shooting gallery is one of the new enterprises in Silver City.

The fine new public school building at Folsom is nearing completion.

Raton has shown a substantial growth the past year, and it is firmly believed that this year will eclipse any other year in her history.

The branch road of the Santa Fe from south of Raton to the Colfax county gold fields will be built during the present year.

Grant county last year had one of the most prosperous years since the early 80s and the prospects for this year are decidedly flattering.

A couple backlogs in Albuquerque run a big advertisement in the Albuquerque Democrat. This is a "slighting" example for more pretentious businessmen.

A Mr. Pearce, at the Bennett mine, had an eye put out by accidentally running the pointed end of a candlestick in it. He was brought in Monday from the mine for medical treatment. He left yesterday for El Paso, reports the Las Cruces Independent Democrat.

Colonel Mothersill, of Las Cruces, has made a deal which disposes of all the cattle and ranches of the Detroit Land & Cattle company to Levi Baldwin, of Datil, Socorro county. It is understood that the price paid was $20 a head, there being from 15,000 to 20,000 head of cattle sold.

The case of the Territory vs. Wolf and Wilson, who are charged with having stolen 200 Angora goats in the western part of Socorro county near Frisco, is still on trial at Socorro, but will probably reach the jury today. Wolf's name would seem to be a little against him in a goat stealing case.

The Raton foot ball team went to Trinidad Saturday and comfortably allowed their entertainers to win the game by a score of 26 to nothing. Quite a number of friends accompanied the Ratonites. Another game, to be played here, is being talked of for February 2.

Sarcasically remarks the La Belle Cresset: In as much as the only apparent effect of the petition for better mail service to La Belle and Midnight was the lengthening of the time required for a letter to get here by one-third, we advise several more petitions and we will doubtless get our Christmas cards on the glorious Fourth and our valentines on Thanksgiving. There is nothing like having innovations in everything.
