The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Postoffice in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

ADVERTISING RATES. Wanted—One cent a word each insertion. Local—Ten cents per line each insertion. Reading Local—Preferred position—Twenty-five cents per line each insertion.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27.

New Mexico is loyal. Stick a pin right here.

The dawn of Cuba's emancipation day is rapidly approaching.

The United States begins the naval phase of the war with Spain well. Well begun is half won.

The increased price of wheat seems to indicate that the Chicago crop is better than it has been for years.

Human nature is human nature and war means that the human race is still prying on each other. Homo homini lupus. Man is a wolf to man.

Our friend across the sea, Mr. John Bull, is doing the handsome thing by Uncle Sam in the present crisis. John's head is very level in this instance.

In another two months this country will be the second naval power on the globe. When Uncle Sam wants to do a thing, he goes and does it, that's all.

Promptness and vigor characterize the war policy of the administration. That's the sort of an administration to have in these turbulent times of war.

There is no south, there is no north now. This is a united country. Fitzhugh Lee and Joe Wheeler will command United States volunteers against a common enemy. Circumstances alter cases.

This "manana" policy of Spain's is somewhat hard to bear for the present, but it must be endured. But when the American navy does get a chance at the fleet of her majesty, the queen regent, and his majesty, the king of Spain, how the iron and steel splinters will fly, and what a swipe will be there, oh friends and countrymen.

MR. RICHARD CROKER, mayor de facto of New York and boss de facto and de jure of Tammany hall, will spend his next three months in England running his line race horses. Wars make no difference to Mr. Croker, he has too soft a snap. The annual expenses of his city, Greater New York, are only about $100,000,000 a year.

The Red Cross has supplanted Mr. Bryan's cross of gold and crown of thorns for the time being in the public mind. Mr. Bryan can peek his jiggling paraphernalia away for the piping times of peace, that will come again. But it is a good thing for the country that it is getting a rest on the cross of gold and crown of thorn humbug for the present.

The New Mexican and the Citizen have done their utmost to obtain increased telegraph service to give their readers the best and latest obtainable war news. Why this could not be done is explained by the Citizen in the following:

"The afternoon newspapers in New Mexico had a chance to get an increased telegraphic service, and failed to do so because the Las Vegas optic refused to take and pay for the extra service. The New Mexican and the Citizen have been trying for a month to have the service increased, to be enabled to give more of the war news each day."

A Pleasant Fact.

In his remarks last night at the public meeting in this city, Hon. Amado Chavez said, that "the natives of New Mexico, who received commissions during the late war to serve with the volunteers of the territory of New Mexico, received them with the signature of Miguel Antonio Otero, as secretary of the territory, and that it was a matter of special congratulation to the native population, especially that of the critical times, there was another Miguel Antonio Otero as chief executive, and to look after their interests, a worthy son of an illustrious father, and that he felt sure that many of the pages of the future history of New Mexico would be inscribed with the acts of his administration and that the honor would not be for himself alone, but for all the people of the territory, especially to those of Spanish descent."

During the late war the elder Otero rendered very valuable services to the government and to his people. On various occasions numbers of prominent men were arrested by the confederate troops and would have been tried by drum head court martial and shot, had it not been that Mr. Otero, at the risk of his own life, went to the confederate camps and by his efforts saved the lives of people, who are still living today.

Miguel Antonio Otero, father of the present governor, came from an old and illustrious Spanish lineage. His ancestors, on his mother's side, first became distinguished in the olden times in the year 1160, when one of the kings of Spain, Don Alfonso Enrique, in recognition of their services, gave them as a gift one of the most valuable cities of the kingdom to hold it for themselves and from that time dates the coat of arms of his family.

The people of New Mexico should feel very grateful to President McKinley for the appointment of Governor Otero. His whole heart is devoted to the welfare of the people of the territory, and it is believed that his administration will be the most successful this territory has ever had.

Important Service by the National Guard.

In time of war there is a lawless element in every country ready and anxious to take advantage of unsettled conditions and the absence of garrisons, to raid neighboring territory. This is very apt to prove the case in regard to the southern border of the United States in the present war. The high price of cattle adds an incentive to raids from one country to the other, and that there will be considerable trouble on the Mexican frontier in that line there is no doubt.

All the available regular troops have been removed from the forts in the southwest to assist in the invasion of Cuba, and their absence in a large measure places a premium on cattle rustling and petty lawlessness which can only be counteracted by the calling out of the National Guard in the states and territories bordering on the line. That such a call will be made in a short time there can be no question. Many of the members of the guard have expressed a willingness to serve in the volunteer ranks, provided they are sent to Cuba. This is a mistaken idea of duty. In preventing these raids and maintaining peace between two friendly nations, the National Guards of New Mexico can be of use by serving in the abandoned forts and patrolling the border, and they will be rendering a service to their country just as valuable as if they were ordered to Cuba, and what is more there will be no disgrace in such service. This fact should be remembered by the guard, and when called upon to act in the capacity of home guards there should be no hesitation in responding. New countries will not be visited, but the country will appreciate the work done just as much.

A United Country.

From the blaze of patriotic enthusiasm that has swept over the United States the past two weeks the nations of the world can draw but one conclusion: There is no north, no south, no east, no west, no political parties, when the country is threatened by war from any foreign power—only one country with the motto, "United we stand, divided we fall." Any power or combination of powers that expects to win battles from the American people by reason of internal dissensions, is totally ignorant of the national feeling and the veneration for the stars and stripes which imbues the hearts of the masses, yes, and the classes of this land.

Since the present war began everything else has been subordinated to the one impulse of freeing the Cubans, in the name of humanity, and the wiping out of the insult offered the nation in the destruction of the Maine. So firmly fixed is that feeling that men who heretofore have not been able to see anything larger than a dollar are offering their services and wealth to the government, all else is forgotten; men who are physically incapacitated for service are offering their possessions, and others who are bound to their homes by reasons of sickness and dependence of loved ones shed tears that providence has placed a trust upon them which requires that they forego donning the blue and shouldering a rifle.

This universal desire to protect the flag and honor of the nation is not an effervescent sentiment which dies out with the coming of reverses, but is a love of country which grows stronger as dangers and troubles thicken. Had the government the equipments on hand a million of men capable of fighting with their heads as well as their hands could be sent to the front inside of 60 days. There is no soldierly in the known world that could withstand the advances of a force of that kind. Intelligence is a wonderful factor in deciding battles, and the American people are intelligent to a degree which prevents the possibility of serious mistakes in the field of battle.

One of the results of the war between the United States and Spain, whether other nations side with the Spaniards makes no difference, will be to teach the rest of the world that when this country is threatened by a foe of any strength, that there are no divisions or dissensions among the people; they are Americans first, last and all the time.

Don't Forget Santa Fe.

In the exciting events of the present war, the people of Santa Fe must not forget the future of the city. There is another day coming and that day must be provided for.

At the citizens' meeting held at the court house Friday evening a very promising beginning was made toward the erection of a fruit preserving plant, and the success of the enterprise depends solely upon the willingness of the property owners and business men to lend substantial aid. In aiding in the building of such a concern the money will be returned many fold. Not only will the fruit raised in this county bring better and more uniform prices, but for certain months in the year employment will be given to a large number of people in picking, packing and shipping the product of the orchards, and in the handling and preserving at the works. This alone will bring large returns on the investment.

No better step toward the erection of a beet sugar factory could be taken. Once let it be known to the outside world that Santa Fe county can supply a large market with canned and preserved fruits, and still have thousands of acres of sugar beet lands to spare, there will be a desire on the part of capital to take advantage of favorable conditions and sure crops. Interest aroused will beget other and more important interests, and by that means Santa Fe can become the prosperous and happy city nature intended. When the committee appointed at the meeting calls upon the business men, it should receive moneyed encouragement. The investment will be a profitable one.

LEGISLATIVE NECESSITIES.

Hints As to Candidates—A Revision of the Laws Necessary—Sound Suggestions. (From the Roswell Record.) Every thinking citizen of New Mexico is fully aware of the fact that this territory needs a legislature. By that, we mean a body of law-makers who have, individually and collectively, a fair knowledge of the existing laws, and who can appreciate the necessity for the expurgation of the scruffies and absurdities that now incumber our statutes. The crying need is a thorough revision of the entire body of our law; but that is out of the question for a term of years, at least. The next best thing is to elect a legislature that will make a determined and collective effort to root out the anomalies and amend those parts that are defective. This is a necessity that should appeal to everyone, and, for once, we should rise above the plains of sordid partisanship in the selection of our candidates. By sordid partisanship we mean the selection of men as candidates who have a pull regardless of their fitness for the position of law-makers. For once each of the political parties in all parts of the territory should select men for legislative candidates who can, and will, legislate for the general good of the territory.

TERRITORIAL TOPICS.

Grant County. Deming will have a steam laundry. John Clay has purchased the remaining cattle of the W. C. herds. May 1st Silver City will celebrate the 20th year of her corporate existence. Ranford Robinson is the new postmaster at Steeple Rock, vice Geo. B. Child. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wiley, of Silver City, have a new addition to their family. A son.

The Deming Library association will hold its annual meeting May 3 and elect new officers. F. W. Ellis, agent of the Southern Pacific at Soper, died recently of consumption. Miss Mary Tyson and John Johnson, residing on the Gila, were married Wednesday, April 20.

The Deming band boys have formed a stock company for the purpose of operating a roller skating rink. The Lordsburg Liberal says: "The cattle buyers have all left the country, and some of those who have been making contracts for April deliveries are asking for an extension of time. It is reported that the banks are refusing to advance money to cattle buyers and that many of them will have to lose the forfeit money they have put up. All on account of the war scare."

Citizens living in the western part of Socorro county who have Indian deprecation claims against the United States government may bring their witnesses to Silver City and give testimony in support of their claims before United States Attorney D. W. Maberry, who is especially authorized to take testimony in these cases. To those in western Socorro county it will be a great convenience, as it will save a long trip to Socorro. At a later date evidence in deprecation claims will be taken at Socorro, so that claimants have their choice of coming to Silver City or going to Socorro to prove their claims.—Silver City Enterprise.

Socorro County. The Santa Fe railway track is being raised near Socorro. Magdalena is said by the Chieftain to be second in importance in New Mexican cattle shipping points.

Since the recent rains, the sheep men of this county claim they will save over 90 per cent of their lambs.

Win. Held, of Socorro, was badly scalded by falling into a pot of boiling water, while in a fit last week.

The population of San Marcial has no kick coming on the "male" facilities of that place. Four new boys arrived there last week.

Eddy County. Milton N. Elford is the new postmaster at Lake View.

The big irrigation flume above Eddy was repaired last week.

Sheep shearing in the Pecos valley will be started this week.

Arthur O'Quinn has been re-appointed treasurer of the town of Eddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCarthy, of Eddy, are the parents of a new girl.

Mary Olanemus and P. F. Kircher were married in Eddy last week.

Isabel Galindro de Ramirez has filed suit against Urbano Ramirez in the District court of Lincoln county for absolute divorce. Mrs. S. E. Barber of Lincoln county, has been indicted by the grand jury at Lincoln for cattle rustling. She was placed under $1,000 bonds. The American Invalid society, of Boston, has been granted 190 acres of the Fort Stanton reservation, and the establishment of a sanitarium at that point is being propagated. Dona Ana County. Alamogordo will have a large hotel. A. A. Summer, chief engineer of the El Paso & Northeastern, has located his office at La Luz.

JUST THE THING.

Flooding Pete Wanted the Football Clothes and Wanted Them Badly. Flooding Pete had been wrapt in silent meditation for a long time. "De first t'ing ye know," remarked Meandering Mike, "ye'll be t'inkin." "I got a license ter t'ink," was the answer.

"'Tobbe, but ye want ter look out. Ye'll keep t'inkin an t'inkin, an de fust t'ing ye knows ye'll git an idee ye wants ter carry out, an de nex' t'ing ye knows ye'll be workin'."

"'Would ye call holdin a man up an makin 'im change clothes wit' yer workin'?"

"'I dunno's I kin exackly say," replied Meandering Mike, rubbing his chin reflectively.

"'Did ye see dat wagon load o' football players goin up de road?'"

"'No, I happened to have me eyes shut at de time. I heard 'em plain enough, so I didn't go to de exertion o' strainin me lids.'"

"'Ye didn't git a good look at de kind o' clothes dey had on?'"

"'No, but I've seen 'em.'"

"'Dem togs is what I want ter high-way rob somebody de fust chance I git.'"

"'Pete, ye want ter look out. Football develops a man's muscles an makes 'im one o' de hardest subjects for larceny in de list.'"

"'I can't help it. I wants dem clothes.'"

"'Ye'll be wantin a dress ant case an a silk umbrella next.'"

"'Nope. Me tastes is more luxurrious ner that. I never hankered fur clothes before. But de idee of wearin me own mattress around on me frame so's ter have it handy whenever I want ter lay down fur a nap is so allurin dat I'm almos willin ter take exercise ter realize it.'—Washington Star.

The Servant Was Willing. At a dinner party the coachman had come in to help wait on the table. Among the guests was a very deaf old lady. Coachman, in handing vegetables, comes to the deaf party. "Peas, mum?" says Jehu. No answer. "Peas, mum?" (Louder.) Still no answer from the D. P.; but, placing her ear trumpet to her ear, she lifts it interrogatively to the man, who, glancing down and seeing the tube, ejaculates: "Well, it's a rum way of taking them, but I suppose she likes it. Here goes!" And down went the peas into the ear trumpet.—San Francisco Wave.

A Traitor. "Harkins is a nice kind of an American. Such people as he have no business to enjoy the privileges of a free country."

"'What's he been doing?'"

"'He said yesterday that in the event of war between the United States and England he wouldn't be surprised if John Bull gave us a pretty hard brush.'—Cleveland Leader.

Keedick—Do you believe with Bulwer that death often changes aversion to love?

Fosdick—I would put it just the other way. I have known death change love to aversion when the decedent has left his property to some one else.—Up to Date.

Acclimated. "This Klondike craze is going to help Boston immensely."

"'In what way?'"

"'After those fellows have survived an Alaskan winter they won't be afraid to tackle Boston girls.'—Chicago Record.

In Boston. "How old are you, little girl?" asked a Boston street car conductor of a small passenger the other day.

"'I prefer to pay my fare and keep my own statistics,' was the reply.—New York Tribune.

Proof of It. "Is it possible, doctor," asked the garrulous widow, "that one can be taxed to death?'"

"'Certainly, madam. Have you not buried three husbands yourself?'"—Detroit Free Press.

Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion contains the hypophosphites.

These alone make it of great value for all affections of the nervous system.

It also contains glycerine, a most valuable, soothing and healing agent. Then there is the cod-liver oil, acknowledged by all physicians as the best remedy for poor blood and loss in weight.

These three great remedial agents blended into a creamy Emulsion, make a remarkable tissue builder.

THE SEVENTH Beet Sugar factory in the United States was erected at Eddy, New Mexico, in 1896, and made its first "campaign," beginning November 15th, 1896, and closing February 15th, 1897.

THE CONTENT OF "SUGAR in the beet" of the crop grown in the Eddy and Roswell sections of the valley has proven to be more uniformly high than any other part of the United States.

FORTUNATELY the land is blessed with just the facility to produce high grade beets, and

MORE FORTUNATELY the Pecos Irrigation and Improvement Co. and the Roswell Land and Water Co. have an irrigation system of great magnitude, covering a vast body of the BEST SUGAR BEET lands on earth. The water is applied to the crop WHEN NEEDED.

THE SUN SHINES more hours in the day and more days in the year in Eddy and Chavez counties, New Mexico, than in any other section of the west.

194 separate analysis, chiefly carload lots, showed AN AVERAGE of 17.01 per cent sugar in beet; 84.1 per cent purity.

THIS REMARKABLE RESULT was accomplished by raw farmers, unacquainted with the culture of beet root, on new land and under very trying circumstances, as the factory was not assured until May, and a majority of the acreage was planted between JUNE 1st AND AUGUST 10th.

GOOD SOIL makes the seed germinate. WATER makes the plant grow.

SUNLIGHT puts the sugar in the BEET.

THE ONLY THING left to be desired that the Pecos Valley has not on hand in abundance is PEOPLE. We need thrifty farmers; 500 heads of families each on a 40-acre farm.

NO FAIRER terms or conditions of sale of beet and fruit lands were ever made.
