OLD GLORY WILL WAVE.

The Flag to be Presented to the New Mexico Volunteers—The Objects and Aims of the Donors.

The subscription list for the purchase of a flag for the battalion of New Mexico volunteers to be attached to Colonel Leonard Wood's regiment of United States volunteer cavalry, will soon be closed, as contributions will be sufficient for the purpose named. The object is to present the battalion with a flag which shall have embroidered thereon, "New Mexico Battalion First U. S. Volunteer Cavalry," to be used by the battalion and on the return of the troops from the war and their muster out, the names and dates of the actions and battles wherein the battalion was engaged and the character of its general services are to be embroidered thereon, and the flag preserved in the territorial capitol for future generations.

The editor of the NEW MEXICAN has addressed a letter to Governor Otero requesting that official to correspond with Colonel Leonard Wood, the commanding officer of the regiment, as to the presentation and acceptance of the flag and the setting forth of the aims of the patriotic givers. Of course, the presentation of the flag, being a very important military ceremony, can not take place until the battalion is formally mustered in, uniformed, armed and equipped for service. It was thought at first, that such would take place in this city and it was calculated to make the presentation of the flag here before the departure of the battalion to the front. However orders from the War Department have caused a change of this plan, as the equipment of the battalion will take place in San Antonio, Tex., and therefore the presentation, of necessity, will have to take place there. As soon as Governor Otero receives word from Colonel Wood concerning this matter, the steps to be taken in the future will be announced.

THE SONG OF THE COWBOY VOLUNTEERS.
The boys of the New Mexico mounted riflemen have composed the following song to be sung to the tune of "Good-bye My Lover, Good-bye," which they will sing on the way to the front. The singers are practicing up on the words and music, and the stations on the way will be serenaded as they are passed through:

We cowboy lads are starting out,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Just listen to our yell and shout,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Chorus—Bye-bye my lover, good-bye,
Bye-baby by-bye,
Bye-baby by-bye,
Bye-baby by-bye.

We left our good, old, happy home,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
And now we're bound for San Anton,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Chorus—
Captain Max, is the very man,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
To lead this brave and western gang,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Chorus—
Lieutenant Keyes, he takes the cheese,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
At making spangards get on his knees,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Chorus—
Our Sherman didn't march to sea,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
But he will make the Spanish flee,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Chorus—
Dewey fixed them on the water,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
But he will make our shooting hotter,
Good-bye my lover, good-bye.
Chorus—

NOTES.
Garfield Hughes, son of Hon. Thomas Hughes, of the Albuquerque Citizen, has enlisted in the New Mexico volunteers.

Ralph E. McFie, son of Associate Justice John R. McFie of this district, has donned the blue to serve as a volunteer from New Mexico. The young man was one of the first to volunteer.

The territory has about 150 uniforms belonging to the National Guards, which will be issued to the volunteers now enlisting.

John E. Hurley, division superintendent of the A. T. & S. F. railway at Las Vegas, has been appointed a colonel and aide de camp on the staff of Governor Otero.

Captain T. J. Matthews of company B, first regiment infantry of this place has gone to Colorado, where he will go to the front as 2nd lieutenant with company A, first Colorado infantry.

First Lieutenant Geo. Curry of troop D, 1st U. S. volunteer cavalry, arrived this morning with 2nd Lieut. C. L. Ballard of the same troop and 53 recruits for medical examination and muster in.

Captain J. W. Fleming of troop D, 1st Regiment U. S. volunteer cavalry, will arrive here this evening from Grant county with 50 recruits for examination and enlistment.

John B. Bryan, son of District Attorney John B. Bryan of Las Cruces, is here as a volunteer. He is a college chum of Ralph E. McFie and desires to go in the same company with that young man.

Captain Max Lunsford reports a complement of three commissioned officers and 50 enlisted men up to noon today in his troop, B, first regiment U. S. volunteer cavalry.

First Lieutenant H. W. Weakly, troop B, is expected to arrive this evening from Albuquerque with enough recruits to fill up Captain Luns's troop.

Newsreaches here from Arizona that the Arizona contingent of volunteers has been mustered in and has been sent to San Antonio, Texas, the rendezvous of first regiment United States volunteer cavalry.

The War department is hurrying up the enlistment of the New Mexico quota. It is probable that Captain Cooper will leave tomorrow evening with the detachments, so far enlisted, for the general rendezvous, San Antonio, Texas.

Morgan Llewellyn, son of Major W. H. Llewellyn enlisted this morning and his brother Clinton will be here tonight for the same purpose. Right good family this that furnishes two young men to fight for Uncle Sam.

Last night and this morning recruits for examination and muster came in as follows: Thirty-one from Las Cruces, 24 from Roswell, 15 from Albuquerque, 11 from Clayton, 10 from Cerrillos and 1 from Gallup, a total of 91 men.

Eugene P. Casey of Las Cruces, son of John P. Casey, well known in this city, came up from the south last night to volunteer. The young man is a student at the Agricultural college and would have graduated in three weeks, but patriotism and the military spirit were too strong.

A. M. Jones, son of Colonel T. M. Jones, superintendent of the United States Indian Industrial school here, telegraphs from Whittier, N. C., where he is employed in the Indian school service, that he has started for Santa Fe to enlist in the New Mexico battalion of the First United States volunteer cavalry.

Fred McCabe, a Santa Fe boy, having enlisted, his little sisters Kate and Maggie sent 50 cents each to the New Mexican's flag fund with a note saying that they wished to subscribe towards the purchase of the flag which their dear brother would follow to fight for his country and for the flag that waves over the land of the home of the brave.

Money considerations are nothing to the volunteers. A number of them have paid their own railway fares to places of enrollment and have borne the greater portion of their expenses here until recently. The feeling was properly expressed by one of the volunteers yesterday, when quizzed about the scanty pay of the soldiers in the words: "We did not enlist for money, but to fight for our country."

NEW ADJUTANT GENERAL.

Colonel Hersey's Resignation Tended to Accept the Position of Major of the New Mexico Volunteers—W. H. Whiteman Appointed.

The following executive order was issued today:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Santa Fe, N. M., May 4, 1898.

Whereas, H. B. Hersey, adjutant general of the territory of New Mexico, has this day tendered to me his resignation, which resignation has been accepted.

Now, therefore, I, Miguel A. Otero, governor of the territory of New Mexico; do hereby appoint William H. Whiteman, to the position of adjutant general of the territory of New Mexico, to fill the office of adjutant general of New Mexico to fill out the unexpired term for which H. B. Hersey was appointed.

Done at the executive office, this 4th day of May, A. D. 1898.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the territory of New Mexico.

(Seal) MIGUEL A. OTERO,
Governor of Territory of New Mexico.

By the Governor:
Geo. H. WALLACE,
Secretary of New Mexico.

Colonel William H. Whiteman, who has been appointed adjutant general for the territory of New Mexico, vice Colonel H. B. Hersey, resigned, comes of an ancestry long and conspicuously identified with the nation's military history. He was born in Washington county, Ohio, April 3, 1844. At the age of 17 years he enlisted with company G, 20th Ohio volunteer infantry, and served during the war of the rebellion, participating in many of the most important engagements. He is an old-time resident of New Mexico, having come to the legislature in 1883, later served as associate justice of the Supreme court of New Mexico, and has filled many other important offices of trust. He is by natural ability, education and experience well fitted for the position, and his appointment is a very good selection and will prove satisfactory to all interested.

THE SANTA FE FRUIT COMPANY.

A First-Class Board of Directors and Set of Officers—The Project a Reality.

The directors named in the articles of incorporation of the "Santa Fe Fruit company" are W. S. Harroun, L. B. Prince, S. H. Day, S. O. Cartwright, J. D. Sena, Mrs. Rivenburg and Mrs. Gable.

They held their first meeting last evening and regularly organized by electing Dr. Harroun, president; J. D. Sena, secretary, and S. O. Cartwright, treasurer.

The company is determined to make no mistakes in its operations and therefore arrangements were made for obtaining all information possible from various manufacturers of machinery, etc., from San Francisco to Philadelphia, and by personally inspecting various establishments before putting the Santa Fe plant in operation.

Letters were read from Hon. M. W. Mills, T. Roualt, the superintendent of the Rocky Ford cannery, etc., containing valuable suggestions.

It is proposed to start works for evaporation and the making of fruit butters, jellies, etc., in the first place, and add the canning machinery later. The services of a man experienced in evaporation and preserving will be required and the company would prefer not to go away from home for such a person if he is to be found in the vicinity.

A TRAVELING MAN

Gives Some Valuable Hints Regarding the Care of the Health While Traveling.

Mr. R. W. Winchendon, a commercial traveler from Birmingham, whose business keeps him almost constantly on the road, relates in the Sunday News the dangers to health resulting from constant change of residence and the way he overcame the usual injurious effects.

He says: One thing people traveling cannot very well avoid is the constant change in water and food; the stomach never has an opportunity to become accustomed to anything, and in a few days much sooner than the average traveler man becomes a hopeless dyspeptic.

For several years I suffered more or less from indigestion, sour stomachs, headaches, distaste for food, often no appetite, gas on the stomach and the usual unpleasant effects of imperfect digestion.

Nearly every traveling man has his favorite remedy for different troubles and I tried all of them with indifferent results. Finally on the train between Pittsburg and Philadelphia one day, I overheard a conversation between two ladies, one of whom had suffered severely from indigestion and stated she had been completely cured by a remedy which she called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I remembered the conversation because it directly interested me, and at the next town I bought a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and to my surprise they never lose their good qualities like a liquid medicine would, but are always fresh and ready for use.

I carry a box in my pocket continually, and whenever I see any symptoms of indigestion I take one, also one after each meal, and in a year and a half I have not lost a day by reason of poor health and can eat anything and relish what I eat; my digestion is absolutely perfect as far as I can judge from my feelings and although there may be other stomach medicines just as good as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, I do not know what they are. Certainly for people who travel they are far ahead of any liquid medicine, as they are so convenient, they can be carried in the pocket and used whenever needed.

I believe they are sold by all druggists at 50 cents, and believe any one who will try them will agree with me, that for indigestion and stomach trouble Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are unequalled.
