TUESDAY, AUGUST 30.

Call for Republican Territorial Central Committee.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE of New Mexico. Santa Fe, Aug. 23, 1898.

There is an acrimonious controversy going on between Secretary of War...

Stanley, the explorer, and Carl Schurz are opposed to annexation of outlying territory by this country.

Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee...

The more there becomes known of the record of the New Mexican volunteers who took part in the fights at Santiago de Cuba...

The Democratic-Pop-Free Silver combination in Colorado is getting scared up by Senator Wolcott.

Generals Gomez and Garcia, of the Cuban insurgent armies, are to meet and have a talk and decide upon a course of action.

Here's to the nominee of the Republican party in this territory for delegate to congress, whoever he may be.

Admiral Dewey's head is very level. He thinks he can do the country better service at Manila than by attending the sessions of the peace commission at Paris.

Hon. N. S. Walpole, agent for the Pueblo and Jicarilla Indians in this territory, is taking hold of the duties of the office in a remarkably energetic, sensible and telling manner.

The taxpayers and property owners of Union county are dissatisfied with many official actions of two members of that county and charges of malfeasance and misfeasance in office against these officials are made.

What a soft snap they have over there, those county commissioners of the county of San Miguel. Somebody has made quite a nice sum of money out of county finances in that county during the past few years.

The London News gives the following important information: "A noteworthy and novel testimony to the hot weather was witnessed at Kingston yesterday, when a titled lady was driven in a brougham by liveried servants wearing straw hats in place of the usual cockaded silk top hats."

The position and well known intentions of the United States will enable this government to accomplish these things without exciting the jealousies of European powers.

It is now in order for our more or less esteemed contemporary, the Las Vegas Optic, to come back with personal attacks, based upon lies, slander and falsehood, in order to defend some of the corrupt county officials of San Miguel county. But that sort of business will not do away with the record.

The names of some very good men indeed are being mentioned for the Republican nomination for delegate to the 36th congress.

Any citizen, who is a candidate for public office, elective or appointive, generally does well, by minding his own affairs and looking after his own fences.

The Democratic newspapers in New Mexico are beginning to belittle the gallant conduct of Captain Maximiliano Luna during the recent campaign in front of Santiago de Cuba.

Hon. B. S. Rodey, of Albuquerque, who is a candidate for appointment as United States district attorney for New Mexico, favors the nomination of United States Marshal Creighton M. Foraker as a candidate for delegate to the 36th congress on the Republican ticket.

On the 13th of this month a regulation goes into effect in Russia which will mean much to the United States in the way of extending trade in the east.

Whipple Barracks, Aug. 30.—Pay day has come and gone—the Volunteers desire to be Mustered Out.

The incidents of the Puerto Rico campaign show, that General Miles has a taking way.

A short, sharp and energetic campaign in New Mexico on the part of the Republicans with a good man for candidate for delegate to congress and loyalty to the ticket will elect this candidate.

Whipple Barracks, Aug. 30.—Pay day has come and gone—the Volunteers desire to be Mustered Out.

NO CHANCE FOR MANILA. Poetical Escapes—Fresh Meat No Longer a Luxury—The New Mexican's Correspondent's Bright and Readable Remarks.

Whipple Barracks, Aug. 30.—Pay day has come and gone like a summer's dream, and God and President McKinley still reign.

Some of the boys are now poorer than they were before pay day, but they have the satisfaction of knowing that one cause for "kicking" has been removed.

His Mind Wandered. Jones—Funny about Bacon Pratt. Awfully absentminded, you know.

A Cash Transaction. "Did you get back that dollar your little boy swallowed?" "No, the doctor stuck it for his fee."

Irishman Versus Irishman. Adjutant—What is the charge against this man, sergeant? Sergeant—Ay ye plaze, sor, he called me insulter names ag'in.

His Share. Twyn—The latest treasury statements show a per capita circulation of $1.23. I suppose you have your share of it.

OF FOR GOOD. Duzey—I hear that your brother had several of his fingers cut off the other day. Doohy—So he did.

WAVING CHARITY. "Little Dick took all the money out of his bank to send to suffering Cubans."

IN IGNORANCE. His Cousin Dorothy—Now, listen, Tom. This writer says that first love is always the best.

COULD SYMPATHIZE. Boarding Mistress—Indeed, Mr. Jones, I have seen better days!

RECORD AND BRIEF WORK. Transcript, record and brief work for attorneys at the New Mexican printing office for the approaching session of the Territorial Supreme court.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE. "They're fixin for the fightin'!" they hollered in his ear.

WHERE THE PERIL LIES. The army showed for Billville an not a ship afloat.

THE YEAST BELL. "My oldest daughter," said Mr. Glimmerton, "is forever saying funny things.

WHEN WOMEN FIGHT. "In making up that supply train," said the attendant, "your majesty forgets that you now have two regiments of women in the field."

THE RETORT FITFUL. A clubman was searching desperately through his pockets for the extra quarter demanded by a malcontented cabman.

SINGULAR DISCOURTESY. "This paper says," observed Mrs. Chugwater, "that Mr. Jones was then nominated by acclamation."

IN WAR TIMES. Drummer—Is your business affected by the war talk? Shaving Soap Manufacturer—No. We are doing a larger business than ever.

THAT QUIET SPOT. Husband and wife, just returned from continental trip—Now, dear, isn't it delightful after the bustle and racket of those foreign hotels to be back in the perfect tranquility of our own home and...

Each man was a hero. Of that there's no doubt. But dreams have an end—each dreamer must wake.

Today, shirts were issued. This completes the clothing equipment and the volunteers take pleasure in informing the NEW MEXICAN that they will be able to attend church a few times before returning to Santa Fe.

Fresh meat is no longer a luxury in Whipple. Each day a large piece of bovine and small crystal of ice finds its way to the larder of Company C.

The War department has declined to furnish the regiment with band instruments, setting forth the excuse that volunteer regiments are not to be provided with bands.

The old band was a good one for the money, and it is a pity that it is disbanded.

The boys were veritable devils with horns, and their sphere is certainly a musical one. It is understood that the Good Templars of Arizona have accumulated a fund for the purpose of providing Arctic expeditions with sleds and an effort will be made to divert the money to this regiment for band maintenance.
