WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26.

FOR DELEGATE TO THE 56TH CONGRESS
PEDRO PEREA OF BERNALILLO.

Mr. Perea's enemies must admit that he is making this campaign quite interesting for his Democratic opponent.

"A free trader here, a protectionist there; anything for votes," is the motto of the Democratic candidate for delegate to congress this year of our Lord.

The people of this country are in favor of the retention by the United States of the Philippine islands. And what the people of this country want generally goes.

Quite a campaign, indeed; much livelier than our friends, the enemy, thought it would be and that forebodes no good for Mr. Ferguson, the Democratic free trade-protection nominee.

The Democrats of New Mexico could make a great hit if they could only prove that protection to American industries was one of the cardinal principles of the Democratic party.

Saturday is the last day for registering for the election to be held on November 8. Every voter should see that his name is on the registration books in the precinct in which he lives before Saturday night, otherwise the right to vote will be forfeited.

There will be a county convention held here tomorrow by the Republicans of this county. Upon the action of this convention depends to a very large extent the success of the ticket to be nominated. A good, strong, respectable ticket will sweep the county.

The Republican party of this county, in convention assembled, has an important task before it in the nomination of a legislative and county ticket tomorrow. The right kind of a ticket will be elected by a handsome majority and will help the Republican candidate for delegate to the 56th congress. This nomination should be decided, and that carefully and intelligently.

Our Democratic friends, the campaign managers and their subsidized press, are still working the race issue racket, but they are working it in the dark now, stealthily and under cover of night. Letters by the hundreds and by the thousands are being sent out by them all over the territory urging voters to vote for their candidate and trying to excite race prejudice. But the racket will not work, as our dear friends will be sure of after the vote of the territory shall be counted and announced on the night of November the 8th, A. D. 1888.

In casting a vote for delegate the voter should be careful to select the candidate who will be able to accomplish something for the benefit of New Mexico. Hon. Pedro Perea is a Republican, and therefore will be in sympathy with the administration at Washington and a majority of the members of congress. For that reason he will be able to secure legislation needed in the territory, when a Democratic delegate would not be listened to. Vote for Mr. Perea and the advancement of the greatest territory in the United States.

A legislature in New Mexico composed of a majority of Republicans will be worth everything in the way of establishing confidence in the territory in financial circles and inducing capital to seek investment in mines and lands and irrigation enterprises. Vote for the Republican candidates for the legislature and benefit every person living in New Mexico.

Not a voter in the territory should allow himself to be fooled by the claims which have been made by the Democratic party that a Democratic delegate secured protection for the wool growers of New Mexico. Democrats who are in favor of protecting American wool, sheep, cattle, farm products or anything else are so few and far between in congress that they cannot be heard above the idiotic howl for "free raw materials," which drowns out every other voice in that body. Only the Republican party can and will protect American industries, and only Republican members of that body can accomplish anything in that line in the way of legislation. However, if the voters desire a return to 45 cent lambs, 4 cent wool and 85 yearling steers, then they should vote for the Democratic candidate for delegate to congress. Every vote cast for a Democratic candidate is an expression in favor of low prices and hard times.

Democratic Methods Changed to No Purpose.

By the changes which are being made in their methods of conducting the campaign at this late day, the Democrats of New Mexico virtually acknowledge that they are in desperate straits. The confidence which characterized their utterances and actions at the opening of the campaign has disappeared and in its place has come a feeling of uneasiness and foreboding of defeat.

The claims made that the people of the territory were indebted to a Democratic delegate in congress and the Democratic party in New Mexico, for protective legislation have been dropped entirely. The error of making any such preposterous plea for the thinly disguised purpose of deceiving the voters is now seen, but it is too late to undo the damage which has resulted. Anxious to avoid the questions of protection and other legislation affecting the interests of the territory and local government, the Democrats are howling about corruption of the Republican administration at Washington, the conduct of the war and other matters, the farther away from home the better, for the express purpose of preventing a thorough discussion and understanding of them by the voters.

This last effort of the Democratic campaign managers and Democratic papers in the territory is also made too late. The voters clearly understand the difference between protection and free trade in their effects upon the prices of cattle, sheep and wool and many of the ores taken from the mines in New Mexico, and it is not necessary to discuss these matters. That which is learned by bitter experience is not easily forgotten, neither can calamity howling and abuse of the very party which has brought beneficial changes convince the voters that it is to their interests to vote the Democratic ticket.

Another thing which has brought about the change in Democratic methods is the warmth of approval that has been given Hon. Pedro Perea's nomination by congress. His record as a private citizen, as a public man and as a friend of the people is such that all the abuse and misrepresentation used by the Democratic campaign managers have not been able to bring about the results hoped for. In fact, the reverse of that condition is the real situation. The more Mr. Perea has been attacked and the more bitter the attacks have been, the stronger he has grown. In politics as well as in other matters, the people are lovers of fair play, and any attempt to besmirch character and misrepresent motives and acts invariably reacts upon those who transgress. Mr. Perea has made a clean, aggressive and progressive campaign, and hence the doleful sounds which now issue from camps of the free traders in New Mexico.

The candidates so far nominated for the legislature by the Republicans are representative men in their sections of the territory, men of experience in public affairs, and men who will do their duty by their constituents and the territory as a whole. With such men as leaders in the counties there is but little doubt of the result. A majority of the legislature will be Republicans and the 33rd legislative assembly will accomplish much in the way of legislation which will be of material benefit to New Mexico.

was not intended for the work, and that ended his mining experience. After leaving Boulder he returned to Denver, from there drifting to the southern part of what is now Colorado, and finally engaged in business at Conejos, coming to Santa Fe to buy his opening stock of dry goods and groceries.

In 1884 he came to New Mexico and opened a store in what is now Park View. A year later he removed to Tierra Amarilla, but later returned to Park View, where he now has a beautiful home. In business affairs, Mr. Burns has been successful in the highest degree. His interests in cattle, sheep and merchandise are very large. His high sense of honor, strict honesty and fairness in dealing with every one have brought to him the esteem of every man in the territory. It was by the traits here mentioned that he has been able to amass a large fortune, gain and retain the respect and admiration of every one with whom he has ever come in contact, and become one of the most popular men in New Mexico.

Politically, Mr. Burns has always been a Republican, taking great interest in the affairs of the territory generally, and of Rio Arriba county in particular. Although kept busy by his vast private business matters, on two different occasions he consented to serve on the board of county commissioners of that county, and his management profited in every way by the county of the finances and public business. The same qualities which made him successful in his own business made him successful in public matters.

In 1888 he was elected to the council by the Republicans of his district, and his services in that body were of the highest and best character. In 1893 he was again a member of the council. During his two terms in the council the interests of the territory were well cared for, and no bill of a doubtful nature escaped his keen understanding of the ways which are dark and mysterious in legislatures. With the sole object of benefiting the tax payers and enacting laws for the upbuilding and advancement of New Mexico before him he worked on that line, and to his efforts is due the fact that numerous beneficial laws are on the statute books.

Knowing his sterling qualities, remembering the services rendered in the 25th and 26th sessions of the legislature, and desiring that the 33rd district shall be represented in the 33rd session by a true and tried man, the Republicans again prevailed upon Mr. Burns to accept the nomination. He will be elected by a large majority, and when the legislature convenes next January, Mr. Burns will add to his former good record, gain new friends and care for the interests of the tax payers as carefully as he looks after his own business affairs.

A Clean Campaign.
(Albuquerque Citizen.)

The Republicans of New Mexico are making a clean political campaign. No personalities are being indulged in which have brought beneficial changes convince the voters that it is to their interests to vote the Democratic ticket.

Another thing which has brought about the change in Democratic methods is the warmth of approval that has been given Hon. Pedro Perea's nomination by congress. His record as a private citizen, as a public man and as a friend of the people is such that all the abuse and misrepresentation used by the Democratic campaign managers have not been able to bring about the results hoped for. Albuquerque Notes.
In the Martin McGuinness and George Martinez murder cases at Albuquerque, the jury decided not guilty in accordance with the court's instructions on account of the contradictory evidence for the territory.

A particularly noteworthy feature of this trial was the arrest of the prosecuting witnesses, Miguel and Carlos Mendillo, on charge of themselves having committed the murder, as soon as the jury had brought in their verdict acquitting McGuinness and Martinez.

Lewis R. Strauss, of Albuquerque, and Miss Jaffa, of Raton, were married Sunday night, and have returned to Albuquerque to reside. Their bridal trip had to be postponed on account of the sickness of W. P. Metcalf, Mr. Strauss' partner.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Republican party of the territory of New Mexico, in convention assembled at Albuquerque on the 1st day of October, A. D. 1888, reaffirms its faith in the declaration of principles set forth in the national Republican platform of 1884; and it is its pride that it can again point to the fact that under a Republican administration public credit has been restored, industry revived, factories and workshops reopened and prosperity given to American interests, under which the people are enjoying renewed confidence and prosperity.

We most heartily indorse the Dingley tariff law, enacted by a Republican congress, despite the persistent opposition of the Democratic party. Under that law the sheep and wool and live stock interests have been greatly benefited, and the wealth of this territory benefited by many millions of dollars.

We believe in sound money, and in a volume of money sufficient for all business demands. The policy of the present administration in giving employment to labor, and protection to our various industries is a solution of the financial question. We are opposed to all financial heresies which call for cheap money, believing as we do that all money issued by the government should be of uniform and equal value.

We congratulate the country upon the great success of the present national administration, in which our president has distinguished himself as a statesman and a leader in the conduct of domestic and foreign affairs; and in which he has shown so much wisdom in upholding the honor of this nation.

We heartily approve the wisdom of the annexing of the Hawaiian islands, and we favor the retention by this government of all territory acquired by our army and navy where justice and humanity are in favor of the construction of the Nicaragua canal under the immediate supervision and exclusive control of the United States government.

We congratulate Governor Otero upon the success of his administration and commend him for his efforts in the conduct of good government and the advancement of the material and financial interests of New Mexico, both at home and abroad.

We congratulate the president of the United States on the honor of his appointment of a governor from the ranks of the people, a man who by reason of his lifetime residence in New Mexico and of his intimate acquaintance with the needs of our people is best able to perform the duties of an executive in this territory.

We heartily indorse the present Republican administration in all of its branches. During the brief period in which the present executive has occupied the position he fills, New Mexico has attained a place in the hearts of the American people never before accorded it. The patriotism of citizens in sending forth a larger proportion of soldiers to the Spanish-American war than is credited to any other state or territory, and the bravery of our soldiers' lives played on the field of battle, are a guarantee of the nation's future in the American union.

The immortal record made by the New Mexico squadron of "Rough Riders" in the battles of La Guana and San Juan, in which was established the intelligence, patriotism and indomitable courage of our people, and where they have won for themselves the admiration of the civilized world, and tender to the relatives and friends of those who fell in the struggle for humanity, justice and civilization, the heartfelt sympathies of a grateful people.

We congratulate the nation on the return of peace, and heartily indorse President McKinley upon the careful, patriotic and successful manner in which the dignity of the nation has been preserved in the war with Spain.

We congratulate the people of New Mexico upon the appointment by the president of the present able and fearless judiciary, and commend the members thereof for their devotion to duty and their unswerving interest in the administration of justice.

The present congress of the United States is Republican in politics, and any acts of that body favorable to New Mexico are Republican measures and cannot be credited to a Democratic or Democratic delegate from this territory.

The attitude of the Republican party of New Mexico has always been consistent on the question of the admission of the territory as a state. We favored the admission of the territory when the Democratic party was united in their opposition against it. We still favor its admission, believing that there is no good and substantial reason for keeping us out of the Union as a state and believe that this can best be accomplished by the election of a delegate to congress who is in harmony with Republican politics and principles.

Our heartfelt gratitude is extended to the army and navy for their noble sacrifices in behalf of their country, and their brilliant achievements on land and water; and we emphasize our appreciation of those brave soldiers known as the "Rough Riders," whose ranks our territory has so liberally contributed, and whose acts of bravery and heroism have inspired the world with a new faith and confidence in American courage and valor.

We are in favor of increasing both our army and navy to a size commensurate with the interest of the country, thereby placing the nation in a position that will insure it a rightful influence and power among the nations of the earth. We believe in the expansion of American industry and commerce, and in the full protection of American citizens everywhere; wherever the American flag has been hoisted in the name of humanity and the good, we believe it should stay until every vestige of despotism has been removed.
