By talking too much, our friend, Mr. Ferguson, got himself in hot water. It was ever thus.

A pointer for Mr. Ferguson: "Blessed are they who expect nothing, for they shall not be disappointed."

Mr. Ferguson is heading for the southern part of the territory. To be sure, his presence there is badly needed.

The gallant, but modest and unassuming, Captain Miller for treasurer and collector. He is sure of election, come what may.

J. D. Hughes, J. T. McLaughlin and Augustin Maestas for county commissioners. They will prove the right men in the right place.

Telesforo Rivera and Jose Amado Lucero for assessor and probate judge, respectively. Elect them and you will have good and conscientious men in these important places.

Atanasio Romero and Facundo F. Pino for county clerk and county school superintendent. Vote for them and respect them. They have proved competent and capable officials.

T. B. Catron for the council. The best man in Santa Fe county for the position. You will serve the best interests of this city and county by voting for him.

The Republican ticket for Santa Fe county will be elected and for the following two years the affairs of the county will be managed in a careful, economical and honest manner.

The Republican party has given the county of Santa Fe a good, clean, honest and efficient government since January 1, 1897. The people will help themselves by keeping the party in power for another term. Let the good work go on.

The campaign is nearly over and on next Tuesday the people will vote on the candidates and questions before them. From all indications this is Republican year in New Mexico.

The development and advancement of New Mexico for the next 10 years depends largely upon the result of the election which will be held Tuesday. The election of a Republican delegate, or a majority in the legislature and of the greater number of county officers by the Republicans will do more to inspire confidence in New Mexico mines and lands than anything else that could happen.

The Macedonian cry of the Union party bosses in San Miguel county to Mr. Ferguson and his campaign managers for boodle would better be heeded by those gentlemen. Ten thousand dollars solid cash is not enough for the voracious maw of the Union party bosses and county officials for election purposes. They want $5,000 more and if that be not forthcoming, better tremble, Mr. Ferguson. Fifteen thousand dollars for about 5,000 voters is a snug sum and leaves a handsome profit for those who manipulate matters political in San Miguel and Union county for the Union party.

The voters of New Mexico should remember that in casting their votes next Tuesday they are voting for something more than the candidates whose names appear on the tickets used, and the effect of each vote cast will be far reaching, possibly be the making or undoing of the future of New Mexico. The party of progress and upbuilding, as has been demonstrated many, many times in the past 35 years, is the Republican party, and a ballot placed in the box on Tuesday bearing the names of Republican candidates is an expression on the part of the voter of a desire for the development and prosperity of New Mexico. That is the highest aim any resident of the territory can possibly have, and duty requires that a Republican delegate be sent to congress, and a majority in the 33d session of the legislature be composed of staunch, progressive Republicans.

Use Business Sense in Voting.

The best information obtainable from all parts of the United States indicates that the house of representatives of the 56th congress will have a Republican majority of over 30, and the senate is Republican by reason of the Republican members whose terms do not expire for some time yet. This information means that all branches of the government will remain under Republican control for two years more at least, that those measures favored by the party of protection to American industries will receive careful consideration, and that the friends of the party will have much influence in controlling the action of the administration and the deliberations of congress.

In the face of these facts it would folly for New Mexico to send a Democratic delegate to congress to represent the interests of the territory and to secure legislation in developing the great natural resources and providing irrigation systems for the reclamation of millions of acres of fertile lands. A Republican delegate in congress who possesses a practical knowledge of the industries of the territory, who is capable of talking business to the members of congress and presenting matters in their true light, will be able to accomplish much for the benefit of every person in New Mexico.

After all, politics is a matter of business, and good, sound business sense dictates the election of Hon. Pedro Perea as delegate to the 56th congress.

Political Situation in San Miguel County.

The political situation in San Miguel, so far as the Republican party is concerned, is assuming a very encouraging aspect, and the changes which are taking place every day will undoubtedly result in the election of the Republican ticket next Tuesday. The Republicans in this county convention, nominated one of the strongest and most popular tickets ever named in the county and the effect of that action has been all that could be asked by the party.

The real cause, however, for the bright prospects for Republican success in San Miguel county is the dissatisfaction which exists over the illegal acts of the Democratic-Union party board of county commissioners, in refusing to refund the outstanding indebtedness as provided by law, in abating taxes in direct violation of law, and the speculation in county warrants and scrip by certain officials, and a clique of their friends, wherein they have made large sums of money while the tax payers have had to foot the bills and bear the burdens and injustice in which favoritism in office always results.

The so-called Union party leaders are making a desperate fight to prevent any change in the administration of county affairs at the coming election. The New Mexican is reliably informed that one of the banks in East Las Vegas has contributed a large slush fund variously estimated at from $2,500 to $5,000, for the use of the candidates on the Union party ticket, and that as much or more will be raised by assessing the beneficiaries of the boondoggling method of collecting taxes which has prevailed in the county for the past 22 months. In the face of these figures the Union party officials have the sublime effrontery to claim that no money has been made out of county warrants and scrip by the ring, and to pose as injured innocents before the voters. But the inside history of the manipulations of county finances of the Union party and its hangers-on has become public to a large degree, and the approximate amount of the "rake-off" is pretty well known, as are those who participated in the "rake-off."

The claim made by the present board of county commissioners and their pets that the county has been saved $80,000 in the past two years by the abatement of taxes and the unlawful acceptance of warrants and scrip in payment of taxes is absolute bosh and unadulterated rot. If that claim is true, how in the name of common sense does it happen that there is no money in the court fund? Why is it that full settlement with the territorial auditor and treasurer has not been made by the board of county commissioners for nearly four years? These matters are all known to the voters of San Miguel county and they will be evidencing extreme good sense by determining to elect a set of officials who will obey the laws, conduct the county business in an honest manner and remove the stigma of reproach which has rested on one of the best counties in New Mexico for a number of years.

HON. JAMES S. DUNCAN,
Republican Candidate for the Council from San Miguel and Guadalupe Counties.

Hon. James S. Duncan, Republican candidate for the council of the 33d legislative assembly, from San Miguel and Guadalupe counties, was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., November 7, 1852. He began life for himself while a mere boy, working on the Erie canal, afterward going to sea as a sailor before the mast. His life on the ocean wave, however, was of short duration, and he left that occupation to become a soldier in the regular United States army. In 1869 he was assigned to duty in New Mexico as 1st duty sergeant of troop D, 8th cavalry. At the expiration of his term of enlistment he engaged in the freighting business and from that went into railroad contracting, which he followed successfully for 15 years. At the present time he is engaged in business in East Las Vegas and has large mining interests in both New Mexico and Mexico.

In 1894 Mr. Duncan was elected to the council from the counties of San Miguel and Guadalupe, but was defrauded of his seat in that body by the Democratic party. In November, 1896, he was again elected to the council from the 2d district, and in the session which convened in January, 1897, proved a valuable member, using his vote and influence for those measures which he considered would work for the best interests of the territory and tax payers.

For the past year and a half Mr. Duncan has been a member of the territorial board of equalization, and has distinguished himself in that capacity by his fairness in all matters coming before the board for adjustment, and by his endeavors to guard the interests of New Mexico in every particular. It is within the bounds of truth to state that a more useful and conscientious member never before acted on the equalization board.

Mr. Duncan's past record as a private citizen, as a member of the legislature and of the territorial board of equalization is such that there is no questioning what will be the character of his services in the 33d legislative assembly, if elected, and there is very little doubt of that.

HON. PEDRO PEREA'S CAMPAIGN.

The Race Question Has Not Been Raised—Not Asking Votes on Strength of Past Favors—False Claims of Democratic Party.

Editor New Mexican.
It seems to me that in the election of a delegate to congress, Mr. Ferguson and his friends recognize that it is next to an impossibility for him to be elected. They virtually acknowledge that Hon. Pedro Perea's majority will be very large, and in casting about for means to prevent such a result on Tuesday, are resorting to questionable methods. Having nothing in the way of mistakes or crimes committed by Perea to charge him with, they are accusing him of things he never did. I have heard so much, and also read so many of these Democratic falsehoods, that I consider it my duty to write this communication.

The Democrats have endeavored to make a campaign against Mr. Perea, by charging him with raising the race question, and as I have had the honor of accompanying Mr. Perea on his trips to some of the counties of the territory and heard him make addresses to the people, as a native citizen of New Mexico, I cannot keep silent and let that charge go unchallenged. I defy any Democrat or any other person to come to the front and prove that Mr. Perea, in any of his addresses, has used language that can be construed in that light. Not once during the time I was with him did he appeal to the people to vote for him because he is a Mexican or one of their own race. Mr. Perea is making an honest, open campaign and his speeches consist in showing up the claims made concerning what the gentleman accomplished while in congress. It is impossible for me to give in this brief letter the exact wording of Mr. Perea's speeches, but I can give a good idea of the character and trend of what he says to the people in his addresses.

Mr. Perea has told the people to ask Mr. Ferguson several questions among them being: How can Mr. Ferguson justify his professed attitude on the tariff? He indorses a platform which declares for a tariff for revenue only, and then turns squarely around and claims that he is responsible for the present tariff on wool and that he gives a high protective tariff on wool. Either he does not believe in the Chicago platform or he does not know where he stands. The Chicago platform repudiates all kind of protection, and yet Mr. Ferguson endeavors to make the people of New Mexico believe that he is a protectionist for wool only. Mr. Ferguson will, perhaps, remember a question that Mr. Perea asked him in the presence of a number of other gentlemen in Albuquerque. He said: "Mr. Ferguson, if you had had a vote in he does not insult the people of the territory by attempting to make them believe that he is responsible for that we all know he did not do, as does Mr. Ferguson, who boasts of being responsible for the tariff on wool."

That is the manner of campaign Mr. Perea and his friends are making. Can any one take exceptions to it as bearing on the race question? If they do they must be deaf to reason.

Another thing I wish to speak about is this: On the day of the Republican convention in this city, I allowed my friends to use my office, and one of them left a part of what seemed to me a Democratic campaign document. That scrap of paper said that Hon. T. B. Catron had forced the nomination of Mr. Perea down the throats of the Republican convention at Albuquerque. Could a greater falsehood be uttered? Mr. Catron, no doubt like many others, was a supporter of Mr. Perea, but at the Albuquerque convention every county was represented by a full delegation, and every member of it had a voice in the proceedings and voted as best suited himself. Long before that convention, throughout the entire territory the favorite candidates for delegate were Hon. Sol Luna and Mr. Perea, and to clearly show that the convention expressed its mind I will state that there were but two men placed in nomination, Mr. Perea and gallant Captain Max Luna; Mr. Perea received 102 votes and Captain Luna 54. Does that look at all as if Mr. Perea was forced upon the Republicans of the territory? But what was the situation at the Democratic convention held in Deming, where the delegates gathered to carry out the expressed wishes of the party bosses?

The situation in the campaign is just this: The Democrats see that Mr. Perea will be the next delegate to congress in spite of everything they can do to prevent it, and are badly worried, but they need not be, for Mr. Perea will make an excellent representative of New Mexico at the nation's capital and will be an honor to the people who elect him.

TERRITORIAL TOPICS

Albuquerque Notes.
The scheme in Bernalillo county for a new county named Summit has been dropped for a scheme to make it Roosevelt county.

Ten of Roosevelt's Rough Riders have gone to Puerto Rico to locate. They report the climate as a standing premium on laziness. Emmet Laird, of Albuquerque, is one of the 10.

Four switchmen have been brought from El Paso up to Albuquerque for work in the local yards.

H. D. Rogers, of Albuquerque, and his divorced wife were re-married Monday night, and are now living happily together.

Dario Aragon, a well known sheep grower of Los Lunas, is dead at the age of 65.

Grant County.
Sergeant Forsythe, of Central City, Grant county, after serving Uncle Sam for 30 years, has retired and will ranch it hereafter on Lone mountain.

Stray Apaches have been discovered in the Mogollons, which is making ranchmen feel uneasy.

Rough Rider Victor Culberson, of Silver City, has been severely strained while trying to subdue a bucking broncho. The animal fell backwards with him three times in succession, and the exertion required to handle the brute caused hemorrhage of the stomach.

Two bandits held up E. E. Burdick's ranch on the Upper Gila and robbed it of a large quantity of provisions and such valuables as could be found. The same outfit robbed Joe Hampson's ranch of horses, and warned the tenants to get out of the country in three days. In the first instance, the thieves accepted an invitation to dine at the ranch they robbed, and got in their work immediately after eating. At last accounts George Scarborough, the well known winger of Broncho Bill, was on the trail of the bandits.

The Chinese restaurants in Deming are being frozen out by cheap eating houses run by Anglo-Saxons.

Silver City hunters are hot after bear on the upper Gila.

The Southern Pacific yard hands at Lordsburg are claiming the honors of the line. They put a new pair of wheels under a freight car in 14 minutes, the best previous record being 25 minutes, at El Paso.

A six room building near the Deming postoffice has been fitted up as a city hospital.

Rev. Dr. R. M. Craig, superintendent of the Presbyterian mission for Arizona and New Mexico, has just organized a church at Deming with 27 members to start with. The local Congregational church has transferred to the new organization its membership and property, and these trustees were elected: A. Beales, U. G. Duff, J. A. Clossin, Lou H. Brown and W. R. Merrill. Rev. J. M. Gardner will continue to fill the pulpit until the arrival of the new permanent pastor, Rev. M. Gass, of Missouri. Dr. Craig will organize a Presbyterian church in Silver City.

A sergeant and private of the 25th infantry at Fort Huachuca got more bug juice aboard than their corporals could absorb, recently, in celebration of pay day, and at a game of cards in a saloon the sergeant shot the private who will die. The sergeant is in jail to answer for murder.

San Juan County.

Frank Heather and Miss Alice Hobbs, of Farmington, have been married. Attec is to have a foot ball team. The new flour mill at Attec is running in full blast and turning out good flour. Captain Loudon Miller was found wandering on the prairie near Farmington, recently, without hat, coat or shoes, and in a demented condition. The captain is a Colorado old timer, having come to this country in 1862, and was a quartermaster in the regular army. He was long interested in miltage, in which he lost a fortune, and located near Bloomfield three years ago, with only a pension of $20 per month to live on. The captain was one of the pioneers in the Gunnison country. Farmington is complimenting itself over its fine apple crop this season.
