DEWEY'S VIEWS

With the Two Monitors on Hand He Fears Not the Whole Earth.

NATIVE AGITATORS WEAKEN

An Unlimited Field for Planters, Farmers and Miners in the Philippines—Dewey Advises Paying Insurgent Troops Their Overdue Pay.

Manila, Dec. 16.—An Associated Press correspondent called on Admiral Dewey today and asked him for his views on the Philippine situation. The admiral courteously declined to discuss the political situation in the Philippine islands on the ground that his sphere was purely naval. The admiral was glad the insurgents were releasing the sick Spanish soldiers they held as prisoners, notwithstanding Aguinaldo's grandiloquent refusal to do so. This proves the insurgents to be conciliatory, in spite of their defiant talk.

Agitators here invariably admit that they will be unable to stand without American protection. But in spite of this, they continue a meaningless outcry for independence that may possibly create trouble. The admiral, however, believes this is improbable at the present juncture. He also believes there is a practically unlimited field for planters, farmers and miners here. He said he believed the Germans had now entirely abandoned their designs on the Philippine islands. According to recent information received here, the Filipino insurgents are endeavoring to maintain a brave show to secure the best terms possible from the Americans. Admiral Dewey deems it advisable for the United States to pay the insurgent troops their arrears in wages, as it will have a valuable effect and may save incalculable trouble. He is strongly convinced the Filipino insurgents deserve acknowledgment, and believes in the practicability of liberal measures in the direction of local autonomy. Regarding the possibility of international complications, Admiral Dewey said: "Prior to the arrival of the monitors I felt uneasy, but now I am ready to hold this position against the whole earth."

Making Haste by Going Slow.

Madrid, Dec. 16.—A semi-official note issued today says: "As the American senate must ratify the treaty of peace before it becomes effective, our government should wait for this ratification, and not hasten to cede territory the United States may not accept."

COMMISSION HOMEWARD BOUND.

Aguinaldo's Representative Filed a Strong Protest with the Commission, Alleging Quasi-Acknowledgment of Filipino Independence Ere War Began.

Paris, Dec. 16.—The entire American peace commission leave here for the United States via Havre and Southampton tonight, and sail for New York tomorrow on the steamer St. Louis.

Aguinaldo, the representative of Aguinaldo, the Philippine leader, lodged a strongly worded protest with the commission which thus becomes a part of the record. Aguinaldo reviews the case at length, saying that at the time of "impugning the armed co-operation of Aguinaldo and other Philippine chiefs, both Captain Wood, commander of the Petrel, at Hongkong before the declaration of war, and American Consul General Pratt in Singapore, Wildman at Hongkong and Williams at Cavite, acting as international agents of a great nation in a moment of anxiety, offered to recognize the independence of the Philippine nation."

President McKinley in Alabama.

Tuskegee, Ala., Dec. 16.—The presidential party arrived here at 8 o'clock and were met by the mayor and town council. They were then driven to Booker T. Washington's school. The president was received at the institute with hearty cheers, and Professor Washington welcomed the guests. The president, in reply, spoke of the valuable work of the institution, the genius and perseverance of its founder and the benefits of education, integrity and industry. The executive reviewed the progression of more than 600 boys and 300 girls of the normal school and 200 children of the training school.

Four Regiments for the Philippines.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Orders were issued today for the immediate preparation of the following regiments of regular infantry for service in the Philippines: Twelfth at Jefferson barracks, 22d at Fort Crook, Neb., 3d at Fort Snelling, Minn., 17th at Columbus barracks, O., 4th at Fort Sheridan, Ill. The date and place of embarkation depend upon the transportation facilities which may become available.

LUNATIC ATTACKS BRITISH EMBASSY.

He Smashed Plate Glass and Injured Miss Paunceforte with Brick Bats—He Will Be Sent to the Asylum.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: The British embassy was subjected for several minutes last night to a vicious bombardment with brickbats by Joseph W. Pearson, a printer. One of Sir Julian Paunceforte's daughters was struck on the foot by the first missile thrown, and several windows, storm doors and the great plate-glass doors of the embassy, containing a magnificent cut design of the British coat of arms, were smashed.

A policeman arrested Pearson, who refused to answer questions. It is thought he is insane. A writ of lunatico inquirendo will be issued, and if Pearson is adjudged insane, he will be sent to the government asylum.

Killed Over Domestic Troubles.

Carthage, Mo., Dec. 16.—John D. McCrellis, a retired business man, shot and mortally wounded W. J. Gillilan today. Gillilan is charged by McCrellis with ruining his home.

AFTER THE TOBACCO TRUST.

American Federation of Labor Resolves Fernist It—Gompers Will Be Re-elected President.

Kansas City, Dec. 16.—The fight on President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, has not developed any strength. There is no doubt, as far as can be seen now, that Gompers will be re-elected. The convention adopted resolutions again condemning the tobacco trust, and resolutions were adopted urging consumers of tobacco to use only chewing and smoking tobaccos and cigarettes of independent factories who use the label of the Tobacco Workers' Union.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

National Association Calls the Administration Down on Charge of Catering to the Spoils Politicians.

Baltimore, Dec. 16.—The National Civil Service Reform Association devoted almost the entire morning to discussing its report of committee on resolutions, which charged the present national administration with violation of the spirit, if not the letter, of the civil service rules. The resolutions, as finally adopted, assert that the convention heard with grave concern, a report that the present intends to withdraw from the civil service rules a large number of government positions and charge the administration with having failed to redeem its promise to "extend the rule wherever possible," and assert that the rule of newly acquired dependencies will result in disaster and disgrace if conducted on the spoils claim of the politicians.

STILL PLAGUING HANNA.

Senate Committee Investigating Charges by Ohio Legislature—Confederates to Be Admitted to Soldiers' Homes.

Washington, Dec. 16.—At a meeting of the senate committee on privileges and elections today, the charge of bribery against Senator Hanna, made by the Ohio state senate in connection with the late senatorial election, was briefly discussed and referred to a sub-committee consisting of Senators Hoar, Spooner and Turley. The sub-committee will decide how far it is necessary to go in the matter. The charges were filed during the last session of congress and have not been pressed by their authors.

THE HOUSE.

Debate upon the bill to incorporate the International American bank was resumed, with Mr. Bell, Populist, of Colorado, opposing the measure.

Mr. Bell took the ground that it was both unconstitutional and against good public policy. Mr. Sulzer, Democrat, of New York, also antagonized the bill, claiming it would create a gigantic monopoly which would in time regulate interest and exchange rates. Mr. Barrett, Republican, of Massachusetts, offered an amendment which provided that the powers granted should be conferred on any national bank which filed an application with the comptroller of the currency in conformity with the general requirements of the bill. Mr. Ridgley, Populist, of Kansas, offered a substitute providing the United States should establish such a bank as the bill created.

Mr. Rixey, of Virginia, today introduced a bill for admission of confederates as well as Union soldiers to all soldiers' homes maintained by the government.

The international bank bill was defeated in the house 103 to 148.

The house passed a bill to extend the customs and revenue laws of the United States over the Hawaiian islands.

BRIGHT AS A DOLLAR

Silver City One of the Most Vigorous and Enterprising Cities in New Mexico.

MERCHANTS IN FINE SPIRITS

Mining, Merchandising and Trade Generally Booming; and the Goddess Cornucopia Turning Her Horn of Plenty Loose on the Town.

Special correspondence New Mexican.

Silver City, Dec. 15.—The lawyers are about the only people in Silver City who have a kick coming on business conditions. They deplore the fact that every one here seems possessed of amiable dispositions and an inclination to keep out of trouble. The churches are doing a rushing business, and they advise strangers to come early and avoid the crush.

Mrs. O. S. Warren, who acts for Dunn and Bradstreet's, and is in a position to know, states that general business conditions are exceedingly prosperous. Mrs. Warren does a general insurance, real estate and abstract business and is one of the smartest and most successful business women in the west.

A few of the many subscribers and friends to the New Mexican in Silver City voice their sentiments on trade matters and abiding faith in their city, as follows:

W. C. Porterfield, drugs, toilet articles and notions: "Business is good. The holiday trade is opening about the same as last year, but we have a better assorted stock than heretofore and the receipts are larger in consequence. Our branch store at Mogollon is doing a big business. Graham is contributing more to our store in Mogollon than ever. Our wholesale department is supplying three drug stores and 20 general merchandise stores with the class of goods handled by us."

In response to a query from the New Mexican representative, Mr. Porterfield stated that he would attend the meeting of the board of pharmacy, which will convene in Santa Fe during March. He has been secretary of the board for eight years, and was president one term.

W. S. Cox, hardware and furniture: "We have lots of goods on the road and have already received lots. The holiday business is opening brisk. We carry the largest stock of hardware and furniture in southern New Mexico."

Schutz, Rosenberg Company, dry goods: "Our trade from the outside districts is about the same as last year, but new resident people are constantly coming into town and our local business is increasing."

Gillett & Son, wholesale grocers: "Last year our business amounted to $190,000. There is no reason why it should not be fully as good this year as last."

Mrs. O. S. Warren, insurance, real estate, abstracts, etc.: "My business is good. I have every quartz mill in the county insured, and do the bulk of the county business, I suppose. My report for the year ending May 31 shows that I have paid $266 on the 2 per cent tax for this district alone."

Interviewed on probable insurance legislation, Mrs. Warren said: "The moment the legislature touches insurance matters, a disturbance will be created. If any laws are passed which tend to work further hardships on the companies, I feel certain that they will withdraw from the territory entirely. Most assuredly, the bond of the territorial treasurer should be increased to cover insurance deposits."

Mrs. Warren does the business here for 17 fire insurance companies, in addition to handling life, accident and plate-glass insurance. She placed nearly all the New Mexico bonds with the insurance companies, including territorial, Grant county aids, Grant county regular and Silver City. She has the swiftest insurance offices in the territory, and is a remarkable business woman, attending personally to all outside rustling as well as office work.

Lindauer & Burnside, dry goods and gents' furnishings: "We have only been in the business a year, but it has been constantly on the increase, and we have no kick coming."

Rosecrans & Gillett, staple and fancy groceries, produce, stock, etc.: "We started in business October 17, 1888, succeeding Burnside & Co. Since that time we have more than doubled the business done by the old firm and it is constantly increasing."

Mr. Rosecrans, of the above firm, was a former Santa Fe boy and a federal employe.

Mr. Eugene Cosgrove, hardware: "Business is good. I have no cause for complaint."

John F. Klons, groceries: "This business has been constantly increasing since I took hold of it a year and a half ago. I attribute my success to the prosperous condition of the county. The recent storm retarded my shipping business, but I have plenty of orders on file."

C. C. Shoemaker, gents' furnishing and clothing: "Business is good. Rough weather has prevented the holiday trade from opening as brisk as I expected, but we will have so much more of a rush later. Yes, we may pick up the board of trade organization again and give Silver City the outside advertising that it deserves."

C. W. Merritt, Wells-Fargo express agent: "I expect there are others whom it will be necessary for you to see before you can get a good idea of mining affairs. Chloride Flat and the smelter are working about 150 men, and Mogollon, Santa Rita, Hanover, Central, Pinos Altos, Georgetown and White Signal work fully 1,000 more. Silver City gets the benefit of the wages paid these laborers. Most of the ore shipments from here goes out in the way of concentrates."

Dimmick Bros. are making the bullion shipments. Next month Mr. Newcomb will send out 31 cars of iron ore. He recently secured a contract for the shipment of 1,000 tons of ore to the El Paso smelter. The Southwestern Coal and Iron Company is shipping regularly to the Pueblo smelters.

J. R. Hicks, jeweler: "December is our busiest month. The holiday trade is a little slow in picking up, but it will be a big one, and considerably larger than last year. By reason of the war scare, cattle shipments were deferred until later than usual, and, in consequence, there is a great deal of money in the country now, but it has not been turned loose. The cash cattle shipments amount to more than $200,000. There is plenty of money in the locality and the business men will get their share."

Bell & Harvey, wholesale liquor dealers: "Business is all right. We have no reason to complain. The cattle shipping period is our hardest, and that is over."

John Carson, liquid refreshment emporium: "I am making a good living, and can't complain. I have been here 12 years—no two-story buildings when I came—and my business has kept pace with the growth of the town. The smelter is a godsend. By the way, there has been more building in Silver City during the past two years than in ten years previous."

It is cheering to note that all the Silver City business men so far approached unite in saying good words for their town. They are in perfect harmony and cannot understand how competition engenders enmity in other localities.

Received at the Penitentiary.

Last night Sheriff Bursum, of Socorro county, brought "Bronco Bill" (William Walters) and Sylvester Jordan up from Socorro and placed them in the penitentiary. "Bronco Bill," the train robber and desperado, was indicted on three counts by the grand jury of Socorro county and was lodged in the penitentiary for safe keeping until his trial comes up at the next term of the court. Sylvester Jordan was tried, convicted and sentenced to a term of one year's imprisonment, at the last term of court at Socorro, for cattle stealing.

MICA MINING IN RIO ARRIBA COUNTY.

Company Composed of Ohio Capitalists Will Operate Near Petaca—Business Will Be Conducted at Tres Piedras—Property Owned Pronounced Best in United States.

G. W. Myers, secretary of the American Mica Mining and Milling Company, was in the city yesterday on business connected with his company and to arrange for the filing of articles of incorporation in the territorial secretary's office. The American Mica Mining and Milling Company is located at Tres Piedras, with a branch office at 120 Colonial Arcade, Cleveland, O., and owns three claims west of Petaca, in Rio Arriba county, comprising 120 acres of land. The capital stock of the company consists of 500,000 shares of stock, of $1 each, non-assessable, and the officers are E. S. Eldridge, of Tres Piedras, president; H. W. Fleming, vice president; Thomas McMannus, treasurer; G. W. Myers, secretary, and Charles A. Smith, superintendent of mines. All of the officers, except the president, are residents of Cleveland.

A force of workmen has been started on the work of placing machinery and equipping the camp, which will be completed in the course of a week or ten days, when operations on the mines will begin. The company is somewhat undecided in regard to the establishing of a grinding plant, not knowing whether it would be better to install such a plant at Tres Piedras or in Ohio, but that matter will be determined in a few days.

The mines owned by the company have been visited recently by Professor J. A. Holmes, of the government geological survey, in the interest of the government, and were pronounced by him to be the best mica property in the United States. The professor will shortly issue a report on the property for the benefit of the mica industry of the country.

Western Rio Arriba county is filled with mineral deposits of almost every kind, and the opening of the mica mines by the American company will undoubtedly result in attracting more capital to the mining districts of the county and the development of the many valuable claims of gold, copper, lead and mica.

ALL QUIET AT TAOS.

Sheriff Trujillo Still Alive—Gifford Will Be Brought to Santa Fe Tonight.

Deputy United States Marshal Sheridan left Tres Piedras on the south bound Denver & Rio Grande train for Santa Fe at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, having in charge Albert Gifford, who is said to have shot the sheriff. At the time Mr. Sheridan left Taos the excitement over the shooting had subsided and everything was quiet.
