LAUGH AT BERTILLON

Anti-Dreyfus Expert Whose Theories Were Too Abstruse for Human Understanding.

MANIAC OR CLEVER FORGER

Paty du Clam Still Too Sick to Attend Court, But Doctors to Examine Him Are Not Wanted by the Judges at the Court Martial.

Rennes, August 25.—At the opening of the Dreyfus trial this morning the clerk read a medical certificate, declaring it impossible for Colonel Du Paty de Clam to come to Rennes to testify.

M. Labori asked the president of the court, M. Jonaus, to instruct two well-known medical men to examine De Clam. Jonaus refused.

Rowland Strong, an English newspaper man, deposed that Major Count Esterhazy confessed to him that he wrote the famous bordereau.

The next witness was M. Gobert, an expert of the Bank of France, the first man in France to have declared in favor of Dreyfus. He reported on examining the documents of the case that Esterhazy and not Dreyfus wrote the bordereau. Witness opened his deposition with a personal statement protesting against being characterized as a "doubtful expert" by a military party. "But," he added in tones of profound pity, turning towards Dreyfus, "I have no right to complain, and am silent when I see before me the unfortunate man who sits there." Gobert was emphatic in attributing the bordereau to Esterhazy. Answering questions of the judges, Gobert declared his conviction that the bordereau was written in a running, natural hand, and said there was no tracing or other trickery.

M. Bertillon, the noted anthropometrist, was called next. He entered with an infantry sergeant and four privates, staggering under the weight of immense leather satchels bulging with documents, charts, etc. Laughter echoed throughout the court.

The court room presented a curious scene while Bertillon, whom the Dreyfusards describe as "a dangerous maniac," spent the three remaining hours of the session explaining in unintelligible terms his "infallible system," proving that Dreyfus was the author of the bordereau. The majority of the public, however, were utterly unable to comprehend Bertillon's theories, and left the court room.

Meanwhile Bertillon, with gestures and in a shrill pitched voice, continued his monologue, producing every minute some fresh paper covered with wonderful hieroglyphics, copies of which he presented to the judges, who, with an expression of owl-like wisdom, carefully examined them. The clearest utterance of Bertillon during his demonstration was that of the handwriting of the bordereau, "obscure geometrical rhythm, of which I discovered the equation in prisoners in blotting paper."

The witness finally announced that he would give practical demonstration of the writing of the bordereau according to his system. Then he began copying the bordereau.

Colonel Jonaus remarked that a few lines would suffice. Bertillon then laid before the judges his copy. The judges, counsel, government commissary, Major Carriere, and clerk of the court clustered around in one group, eager to see the result. Jonaus shrugged his shoulders. Then the spectators knew Bertillon failed to satisfy them.

Bertillon said apologetically: "I was too badly placed."

M. Demange, of the counsel for the defense, whispered a few words to Dreyfus, who appeared to be perfectly satisfied.

Colonel Jonaus at 11:45 adjourned court.

The newspaper men crowded around Labori, asking him for his impression. The counsel said there was a certain resemblance to the bordereau, adding: "But that is all. Bertillon only did what dozens could do. It only proves he is a clever forger. That is all."

ANOTHER MYSTERY.

Paris, August 25.—A dispatch from Lyons says baggage has been found in the River Rhine there, containing a paper with this pencilled inscription: "Labori to Loramier, Basle—Nothing will be done. Dreyfus is innocent. Voluntary suicide. Orders executed." The bag is in the hands of the police, but no explanation of the matter is forthcoming. There is a possibility that the letter is a hoax. Loramier was the late Lieutenant Colonel Henry's secretary, and he committed suicide at Basle, Switzerland.

A Colored Regiment.

Washington, August 25.—Great pressure has been brought to bear on the administration to organize a colored regiment for service in the Philippines. The matter is still under consideration.

California Troops at Rome.

San Francisco, August 25.—The California regiment landed to-day and marched to the Presidio. The demonstration exceeded in enthusiasm the reception accorded to other regiments. There were fully 100,000 strangers in town. The regiment was escorted by the 3d artillery, the Colorado regiment and the national guard. Immense crowds lined the streets for miles and gave the soldiers a rousing welcome home.

Revolutionists Won a Battle.

Cape Haytien, Hayti, August 25.—Severe fighting took place yesterday in the neighborhood of Mont Cristo, Santo Domingo, between the government forces and the revolutionists. It is said the former lost heavily, while the latter, owing to the advantage of positions occupied, only suffered slight loss. The revolutionists are reported to be continually receiving re-enforcements.

ANTI-IMPERIALISTS.

Granny Garrison Believes McKinley Ought Not to Have Obeyed Congress.

Mystic, Conn., August 25.—Fully 3,000 people attended the annual meeting of the universal peace union and Connecticut peace society in Peace Temple here to-day.

At the morning session President Love delivered a brief address on the Philippine situation. There were other addresses by J. H. Earl, of Boston; Mrs. Comerys, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Hanna White, of Lebanon.

At this afternoon's session the principal address was by William Lloyd Garrison, of Philadelphia, who took for his theme, "No Compromise With War." Said he in part:

"A year ago war with Spain was in full blast. Then in the national eye the Spaniard was a type of treachery and oppression, and sorrows of suffering Cubans filled our hearts. What space twelve months cover? The Spaniard is no longer a monster, but is respected as a brave and gallant foe. Cubans, then patriots and statesmen, now in the opinion of military experts and politicians, are a people incapable of governing themselves.

"War with the device of freedom and chivalry on its banners has developed into a conflict for conquest and baseness. It is not armed savagery of the Philippines that threatens America, but the savagery that Theodore Roosevelt represents. Had President William McKinley, understanding the needlessness and the iniquity of the war forced upon Spain, vetoed the declaration of congress and avowed a purpose of resigning the high office rather than prostitute it by subservience to wrong, he would have made a niche in the world's pantheon."

Cattle Man Released.

Omaha, Aug. 25.—James D. Bates, a cattle buyer charged with swindling the Union Stock Yards National bank out of $11,000, was discharged on preliminary examination. Bates secured money on drafts drawn on Wilson Sons & Co., of Baltimore, which were protested. The bank subsequently recovered practically all the money through attachments on cattle purchased with it.

An Automobile Monopoly.

New York, August 25.—The American automobile company has been formed in this city to control the manufacture and operations of all automobiles and motors in which kerosene or gasoline is used, not only in this country, but in continental Europe. Back of the combination are said to be: Wm. C. Whitney, A. B. Widener and Thomas Dolan of Philadelphia, United States Senator S. B. Elkins, West Virginia, Joseph Leiter, Chicago and others.

The President's Party.

Long Branch, N. J., Aug. 25.—President and Mrs. McKinley, Vice President and Mrs. Hobart, and Attorney General Griggs arrived here this morning from Plattsburg on a special train. Presidential salute was fired by the Wilson battery. The president was greeted with great enthusiasm. He breakfasted at Norwood and at 2:30 p. m. reviewed a military tournament at the horse show grounds.

Troops Reach Manila.

Washington Aug. 25.—The following has been received by the war department: "Manila, Aug. 25.—The transport and Mrs. McKinley, Attorney General Griggs arrived here this morning from Plattsburg on a special train. Presidential salute was fired by the Wilson battery. The president was greeted with great enthusiasm. He breakfasted at Norwood and at 2:30 p. m. reviewed a military tournament at the horse show grounds.

Matters at Manila.

London, Aug. 25.—The Labuan correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Co., cables that reliable news received there direct from Manila says an indescribable state of anarchy prevails. Americans, according to these advices, occupy a radius of fifteen miles; there around the town of Iloilo they occupy a radius of nine miles, and around Cebu they occupy a small radius. The rest of the country is in the hands of Filipinos. The correspondent also says it is reported the Filipinos murdered the crew of the steamer Saturnus.

The Constitution Will Stay at Boston.

Washington, August 25.—The navy department does not look favorably upon the suggestion to have the historic war-ship Constitution take part in the Dewey demonstration in New York. It is stated that the venerable craft is not in condition to undertake such service, and she is far too valuable as a relic to subject her to risks of a trip from Boston.

A HIGH COMPLIMENT.

Great Britain Orders 300 Copies of a Book Written by Surgeon General Sternberg.

Washington, August 25.—Surgeon General Sternberg to-day received a cablegram from the director general of the army medical service of Great Britain, asking him for 300 copies of the publication called "Sanitary Lessons of War." If the number cannot be obtained the director general asked the authority to reprint the publication for distribution among the medical officers of the British army. The publication deals with the sanitary conditions of camps, hospitals and the management of everything pertaining to the medical department of the army during the war with Spain. The significance of the request by cable is heightened in view of the preparation now being made for possible war in South Africa.

Austrian Disorder.

Klagenfurt, Austria, August 25.—The rioting which broke out here last evening was renewed to-day. In yesterday's conflict between the military and a mob a number of persons were injured and a number of arrests made.

BUTCHERS BUCKING

They Will Organize to Fight the Chicago Packers by Raising Millions of Money.

VERY BOLD UNDERTAKING

One City Has Subscribed for a Packing House and Others Are Expected to Do So—Seeking Help from John W. Rockefeller.

New York, August 25.—The executive committee of the retail butchers' protective association met last night to consider means to fight the Chicago wholesalers. They decided to recommend raising a fund of $5,000,000. Of this sum, $3,000,000 is to be raised by retailers themselves, and $2,000,000 by popular subscription at $1 per share, with the maximum holding by any one person of twenty shares.

Nothing has yet been done to prevent rate discriminations by railroads, but President Wagner said he had been assured by stock raisers that he need anticipate no trouble from this source when his company assumes tangible shape and becomes really formidable.

George Kahn says the retailers are obliged to sell their meats at an average ranging from 12½ to 13 cents per pound. When the new company comes into the field he hopes to see the price cut to 7½ cents on the average.

The eastern butchers expect to have slaughter houses and a distributing system.

Chicago packers say that they have cornered the western range supplies. The butchers say this is impossible.

The new organization expects John W. Rockefeller to take stock to even up an old score with Cudahy on old trouble in the Standard Oil Company, in which the former is a large holder.

It is alleged that $500,000 has been subscribed in Philadelphia for a slaughter house there, and other cities will follow suit.

Death of an Old Printer.

New York, August 25.—William H. Bodwell, a well-known printer, ex-president of the International Typographical Union, died at Whitehall, N. Y., aged 67.

Quiet at Santiago.

Washington, August 25.—Both General Brooke and General Wood have denied to the war department reports of riots and disturbances in Santiago.

Herr Rose a Red Eagle.

Berlin, August 25.—Emperor William has conferred the order of the Red Eagle, third class, on Herr Rose, German consul general at Apia, Samoa.

EDDY COUNTY.

W. W. Butler, charged with robbing the stock of a newboy on the North-eastern railway, was found guilty at Carlsbad and sentenced to ten days in jail and the payment of $25 costs. Butler had served a sentence at Pecos for carrying a pistol stolen from the newboy.

Mrs. T. E. Corning, of San Antonio, Tex., removed to Carlsbad.

W. C. Wall and family, of Wyoming, Ill., have rented the Cummins cottage at Carlsbad and will reside there.

OTERO COUNTY.

Jose Ramen and J. D. McDaniel have been turned over to the sheriff of Otero county by the sheriff of Dona Ana county and placed in the new Alamogordo jail. Ramen is charged with murder and McDaniel with horse theft. Jacob Flores, accused of the murder of A. J. De Mules, was also turned over to Sheriff George Curry. A legal point has arisen as to jurisdiction, as the murder was committed in that part of Otero county which at the time was still in Dona Ana county.

Mrs. Martha Limim, wife of William Limim, died at Tularosa. The family came to New Mexico two years ago from Tennessee.

A man named Duran was caught robbing the store of John Shyrocks at Tularosa. For several months Mr. Shyrocks has been daily missing merchandise and cash from the store, and he asked Messrs. N. Nichols and A. Douglas to set up some night in the basement of the store. Their watch was rewarded with the capture of Duran, who had entered through a door from a neighboring residence, in which he was a servant. A trunkful of stolen goods and a large assortment of keys were found in Duran's room. After being lodged in jail Duran broke out, but was recaptured.

The new jail at Alamogordo, costing $2,000, has been completed.

A new club building to cost $7,000 is to be erected at Alamogordo.

The Alamogordo Improvement Company will lay out a cemetery on the southeastern boundary of Alamogordo.

RACE TROUBLES.

Georgia Has More Trouble Between Whites and Blacks.

Atlanta, Ga., August 25.—There is a renewal of the race trouble at Darien, Ga., and Governor Chandler has again been asked to send troops there to prevent an outbreak. A few days ago Henry Daleat, arrested at Darien, was charged with assault, and his lynching was prevented only by the action of the governor in sending 200 members of the 1st regiment, who brought the prisoner to Atlanta and left a detachment on guard at Darien. To-day Joseph Townsend was killed and Octavius Hopkins was wounded by John Daleat, whom they were trying to arrest. Sheriff T. B. Blount, of McIntosh county, wired Governor Chandler to-day, urging that more troops be sent to Darien, as the situation is critical. Governor Chandler ordered that the Liberty Independent troop be in readiness to move.
