LATEST NEWS.
RICHMOND, Va., June 13.—Adolph E. Caillon, a Frenchman, committed suicide here this morning by cutting his throat with a carving knife, and then jumping from a three story window. The act is attributed to poverty and intemperance. He came here some weeks ago from Philadelphia, where he leaves a wife.

OSCEOLA, Ohio, June 13.—Turner Graham and his wife, colored, were killed by a mob armed with shot guns, after midnight of Thursday.
Graham was a barber, and both he and his wife were addicted to drink and were quarrelsome, although harmless to others. They had been away during the early part of the night, and when they returned the mob riddled them with shot. The coroner began an inquest yesterday.
No arrests have as yet been made.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 13.—The grain elevator of Knoxville City Mills was burned this morning, and had a capacity of 50,000 bushels.
The loss is about $15,000. The rain was all insured.

SIoux City, June 12.—Two men have just arrived from nine miles north of Sioux City. They were passengers on the Sioux Falls train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St.
Paul road, due here at 7:10. The train was struck by a cyclone, and every car thrown from the track and smashed to pieces. There were three passenger coaches and a baggage car. A large number of persons were injured. No details have been received.

A student in a pretense to have discovered that "not ever one man in each forty-three who apply for a Federal office gets it." Thirteen percent of the appointments made by President Cleveland so far, according to statistics furnished by the departments, have been of men who did not have any formal application on file. Out of one hundred and seventy-nine cases it appears that fifty-three obtained appointments through personal influence.

The criminal jurisprudence of that State referred to recently in his instructions to the grand jury. He thinks that a special report ought to be made to the Legislature setting forth the palpable and flagrant defects.

JOS. B. FORAKER Nominated by Acclamation at Springfield.
463 VOTES CAST FOR HIM
THE CONVENTION SINGS "MARCH-ING THROUGH GEORGIA." Wild Enthusiasm Runs Rampant Among the Republicans, Who All Join in the Glory of Their Day's Work—Full and Graphic Particulars.

JUDGE JOSEPH B. FORAKER.
Springfield, June 13.—Judge J. B. Foraker received 463 votes and was nominated by acclamation on the first ballot. Band playing and convention singing "Marching Through Georgia." Great enthusiasm.
Springfield, O., June 13.—If any decided change has occurred in the various discussions and debates, it is rather against Foraker than in his favor, although his argument and the votes that were given him may have started his chance on an upward grade. Delegates that are known to be for him and have been set down in his behalf are still standing by him, and will do so to the end, as they are in the hands of seasoned politicians.
But there have been votes credited to him in delegations that do not appear to be in his favor. Still he leads the field, and shows in charge of his headquarters declare that they have the four hundred votes needed to nominate him. His opponents concede him about three hundred votes, and that the truth probably lies between these two extremes. His fate will be decided by the second ballot, and if he does not win then he will not at all.

Gen. Beatty is here in person and is working with great energy in his own behalf.
Gen. Kennedy, another candidate, seriously gives it as his opinion that he will be nominated.
There is a feeling among some that in case Foraker cannot get through his strength will be thrown to Kennedy, in order to defeat Beatty and Rose.
When Foraker arrived from Cincinnati, a large crowd headed by a band serenaded him at the Arcade hotel. He made a short and taking speech, which set the people in good humor, and contained nothing that would do damage to his own behalf.
Delegation from Dayton called him out, when he made a second speech, in which he said that he was especially pleased to speak to the colored people.
The opposition of the colored men to Foraker which was fostered by the democrats two years ago, and by the opposing candidates this year, is a sore spot to Foraker, and a thing which he will not overlook. There are several men here who are working exactly against him, and John P. Green, of Cleveland, ex-member of the legislature, is one of them, and is doing it with skill and consequent damage.

The Cleveland delegation on arrival held a caucus and decided to present W. G. Rose as a candidate for governor. It was thought that the whole forty-eight of them would support Rose, but one of them is for Beatty and one for Foraker. They are to be belabored with and by voting time they may be converted.
Ex-Governor Ames' Townsman, of Cleveland, will probably be chosen for temporary chairman. The platform will probably touch the liquor question just enough to say that the whole matter belongs to the regulation of the legislature, and that it should be lodged there.
The Cleveland delegation are under instructions to present a resolution favoring free school books in all the public schools of Ohio. It is an open question as to the convention adopting it.
Mayor McKinley has arrived, and he is for Foraker, but is encouraging the Rose men with the idea that their candidate is second in strength.

Ex-Governor Foster is here, and is also set down for Foraker. Among the other arrivals were Gen. Grosvenor, Gen. Robinson, H. B. Ames, Townsman, and ex-Speaker Hodge. The excitement about the hotels and on the streets is intense, and hard work is being done by all the factions. Speeches have been made by Beatty, Foraker, Kennedy, and others, and in response to sorenades. Every man opened his address by swearing fidelity to the ticket, no matter who was nominated.
Some changes are looking up hourly, and some keen and quick work is being done in his behalf.
Beatty said to a reporter that he was in the fight not so much because he expected to be nominated as in support of an idea. The leading issue was the liquor question, and the leading issue was the liquor question, and the leading issue was the liquor question.

The strength of Rose seems to be in the fact that he is less objectionable to all the other candidates than any one man, having unopposed none of them. A good political authority declares that if none of the three main candidates come within fifty votes of a nomination on the first ballot, Rose will begin to gain in strength and go through.
A very sensational statement is made that Gen. Grosvenor, Maj. McKinley, ex-Governor Foster and other leading lights in the Republican party are not particularly anxious that Foraker should be nominated, and are only particular and pronounced that Gen. Beatty should be defeated.
It is alleged that the recent defeat of Representative Thorp in Ashland county for re-nomination was brought about by the Rep--Sherman-Butterworth influence. Repre-sentative Thorp was a pronounced Stalwart, and had served three times in the legislature, and anticipated he would be returned.
Ex-Representative Cowgill has been brought out of obscurity and been nomi-nated as a candidate for legislature in Chan-paign county. Mr. Cowgill figured quite prominently in the Sherman-Foster sena-torial contest a few years ago.
To an outside observer and one who fully understands the real situation, it is admitted that there is much more under the surface than will appear in the balloting for the convention, when the opposing lines arrive.
