THE NEW HOTEL.

We had the pleasure, on Saturday afternoon, at 30 minutes before 2 o'clock, of seeing the first brick laid on the Battery Porter Hotel.

The building is going up on the very spot occupied by the earth-works, a perfect flat of a little more than an acre square.

There were present besides ourselves, Maj. T. B. Bomar, designer of the building.

Much of the material is on the spot and the work will be expedited with all speed.

In this connection we may note that a pipe from the main was laid today, and furnishes all the water needed for building purposes.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, so Mr. Will Israel informs us, were notable days at the Alpha Warehouse.

Over that route the distance from Knoxville to Charleston, via Knoxville, is 310 miles.

Call and see us and we will be pleased to show you through, whether you purchase or not.

For the Asheville Citizen, NORTH CAROLINA AT THE LONDON EXPOSITION.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER FROM OUR STATE COMMISSIONER.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., 20th Nov., 1885. To Editors of the Citizen:—

Gentlemen:—Having been appointed by His Excellency Gov. Seales to represent the State of North Carolina in the exhibition in London, England, in May 1886,

I wish to make the best showing possible of the resources of this highly favored State, so as not only to sell tracts of land, but to bring in capital to develop the various branches of industry now laying dormant.

I will require the co-operation of the inhabitants throughout the length and breadth of the State, and would request them to send me specimens of minerals, timber, cereals, tobacco, fruit, vegetables, clays, fertilizers, (native) building stone, mineral waters from the different Territories also Ornithological and Entomological specimens, in a word every crop, having the attention of people seeking investments in lands, and general industries which this State so largely offers.

As it is my intention to exhibit representative specimens from different actual merited properties throughout the various counties of this State, which would bear inspection, and investigation, and fully realize the representations made by me. It is further my intention to make a specialty of the development, and to attract for that purpose both capital, and skilled labor, in order to do this it would be necessary to exhibit representative specimens from different actual merited properties throughout the various counties of this State, which would bear inspection, and investigation, and fully realize the representations made by me.

It is further my intention to make a specialty of the development, and to attract for that purpose both capital, and skilled labor, in order to do this it would be necessary to exhibit representative specimens from different actual merited properties throughout the various counties of this State, which would bear inspection, and investigation, and fully realize the representations made by me.

The Bulgarians have already advanced within a mile of that place and another big battle is imminent.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Upon the receipt of Prince Alexander's call for volunteers for the defense of the country, great accession were at once offered from Roumelia. This evidence of a truly national spirit together with the moral effect of the recent Bulgarian victories on the frontier, have given Prince Alexander's government a prestige which it has hitherto entirely lacked in the eyes of European diplomats.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The foreign office has received notification from Gen. Prendergast in charge of the British troops in Burma, that upon reaching the summit of the mountain upon King Theobald for the surrender of Mandalay and the submission to the British forces has been made. The answer had not been received at the time of forwarding the foregoing information.

STATE NEWS.

The News-Observer says a telegram has been received from Col. D. K. McKee, positively forbidding the further use of his name for the vacant judgeship.

The directors adjourned yesterday, after a pleasant session of two days. Much routine business was transacted. The reports submitted were very satisfactory. They show that there are in all 1,173 convicts. Of these 320 are in the penitentiary, and 853 are at work on various railroads.

The health and general condition of the convicts are better than ever before, it is stated. A party of four boys were before the Mayor for bad behavior in church, and were let off with a light fine, but with a promise of a fine of $50 each for the next offence, or a reference of their cases to the Superior Court.

The Charlotte Observer says the South bound passenger train ran over and killed an unknown man on Thursday morning between Reidsville and Greensboro. The engine came upon him suddenly, rounding a curve. The man was sitting on the track facing the engine. He made no effort to escape.

The Shelby News Era says Mr. D. P. Wilson, who lives about a mile south of Shelby, brought to the New Era office to-day a sweet potato which tipped the scales at four pounds.
