We shall take much pleasure in showing our goods, and do not doubt being able to sell them on such terms as cannot fail of giving satisfaction, both at wholesale and retail.

THE subscribers, thank'd for the many favors bestowed on them by the public, have by strict attention, to merit a continuance. Having enlarged their warehouse and made arrangements to manufacture articles in their line more largely, they will be enabled to fill the orders of such as will favor them with a call with promptness. They would invite the attention of the merchants to their stock, where they will find articles of every quality and price in their line, in greater variety than any other establishment in this city. We shall take much pleasure in showing our goods, and do not doubt being able to sell them on such terms as cannot fail of giving satisfaction, both at wholesale and retail.

THE LATE PRESIDENTS FAMILY.

From the debate on the bill making an appropriation of a year's salary to Mrs. Harrison, we select some remarks of Mr. Adams, of Mass., Mr. Dean, of Ohio, and Messrs. White and Lane, of Indiana, as possessing paramount interest. The cold blooded remarks of Mr. Dean drew forth several withering replies, and next day he was fain to take back whatever might have been construed into personal disrespect of the late President.

The bill having been read at the Clerk's table—

Mr. Adams moved to fill the blank in the bill with the sum of $25,000.
