Don't Let a Good Thing Pass.

It is sad to retrospect upon lost opportunities. Then arouse yourselves to the importance of taking advantage of those we are now offering you for the next 30 days, to close out the J. W. Gardner stock of dry goods, notions, hats, shoes and groceries, at less than New York cost. "It will not always be thus."

We are selling goods lower than they cost in New York. This is no joke. It is the plain, unvarnished and fully authenticated truth. Yours truly,

ANOTHER WAR!

Terrible Slaughter—Everything in Sight is Mowed Down, Regardless of Consequences.

Be not alarmed, kind friend, this is not a war that makes sad hearts and desolate homes; but, rather, one which will gladden and cheer and bring comfort to the rich and poor alike. I must clear my store of a good deal of its present stock, in order to make room for new spring goods, and to accomplish this I am waging a slaughtering war on prices. Everything in the Dry Goods and Clothing line is being attacked. Come in and let us show you the great bargains we are offering. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity. We are going to close these goods out, regardless of cost. If you are looking real bargains, come quick.

Don't forget that we are in the Grocery business, too, and can and will save you money.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

That Was Different.
They were late at the special sale and found a crowd clear out to the doors.

"Isn't it dreadful?" asked No. 1.
"Perfectly awful!" replied No. 2.
"Think of cultivated, intelligent women in such a jam as that!"
"How can they endure it?"
"No woman of dignity would be caught in such a mob, and I am going right back home."
"So am I."

"Then come on. Hold on a minute, though. What's that woman saying?"
"Why, that she got three cakes of regular 10 cent soap for 15 cents. Oh, Susan, how can we go home?"
"We can't. Take hold of my hand, turn your shoulder to the crowd, and we will push our way in there or die in the attempt."—Brooklyn Citizen.

Helps Their Business.
First Footpad—Wasn't Judge Big-head the man who sent you to the penitentiary?
Second Footpad—Yep.
First Footpad—Then why are you so glad he's been given another term?

What They All Said.
"Candidly, Jane," said a September bridegroom to his bride in a spirit of self abasement, "I can't perceive what you saw in me to make you willing to marry me."
"Never mind, dear," replied the bride, "that's what all my relatives say."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

What Did She Mean?
"Well, good night," said Mr. Borem, finally breaking away. "I've had a most enjoyable evening. Er—by the way, I expect to pass your house tomorrow evening, and I thought I might—"
"I'll be delighted," said she quickly. "Good night."—Philadelphia Press.

Cholly's Close Shave.

"Ya-as," murmured Cholly, "fellas laugh at me for me big walking stick, bal Jove, but I wouldn't be without it!"

And as Cholly wasn't looking where he was going (it was in Africa) he suddenly found himself in a croc's mouth.

But that's where his stick came in useful. The croc couldn't shut his mouth, and Cholly was able to escape, after all.

All Looked Alike.

"All Chinese look alike to me," said the chief executioner impersonally as he sharpened up his cutlars. Then turning with a puzzled look to the next victim, whose head was bent over the chopping block, he asked: "John, didn't I cut off your head last week?"—Ohio State Journal.

Gave Him the Laugh.

Tom—Do you still call on Miss Up-perten?
Jack—No. I couldn't stand her irri-table laugh.
Tom—I never noticed it.
Jack—Neither did I until I proposed to her.—Chicago News.

"I hope the poor girl will be acquitted."—Leslie's Weekly.

Still Troublesome.

"What makes Weatherwax twist his face into such queer shapes?"
"It's his new teeth. He hasn't got them entirely pacified yet."—Chicago Tribune.
