A MODEL NURSE.—There is a model nurse up among the hills, who, on being called to watch with his sick pastor a few nights since, entered the room, and having thrown his hat into one corner, took off his boot No. 1 and threw it into the opposite corner, following it with boot No. 2, and then his coat, giving to each a separate corner. Then rolling up his sleeves he shouted out, "Now bring in your medicine and we'll put it through by daylight."—Springfield Union.
