THE OLD RELIABLE
ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE
As the story goes an Irish undertaker was laying out the deceased husband of a weeping Hibernian widow. The corpse wore a wig, and it was very difficult to induce it to stay on straight, as wigs ought always to do, even if they don't. The bereaved widow was called in to assist. "Go an' git me a pot o' glue, Mrs. McGovern," said the undertaker, "so that I may keep his wig where it belongs."
Mrs. McGovern set out after the sticking material, and after a time she returned. "Here is the glue for ye," she said with a sigh.
"Mrs. McGovern, you can take back the mulligan," said the undertaker, "I used a tack."

As a diplomat, Secretary Hay is always slightly ahead of public opinion, but as time rolls on his policy invariably turns out to have been right.
A Farmer Straightened Out.
"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patters Mills, N. Y.
"A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar, saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by E. B. & J. A. Ketcherside.
