RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST. Good News for All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published.

I am neither a doctor nor a professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with doctoring and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do, and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism, no matter where located, send me their address and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR HAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

COLORADO AND GILA VALEYS

In the valleys of the Colorado and Gila rivers there is room for thousands. It is not too much to say that nowhere within the limits of this broad Union can be found a more desirable region for the raising of a home. No laborious clearing of the land is required; it lies almost ready for the plow. Trees and shrubbery grow so rapidly a growth that within eighteen months the immigrant can surround his abode with attractions which would require years to mature in less favored climates. Fruits ripen and are ready for the market a full month before the California products. The bright sunshine makes time a luxury, and the pure dry atmosphere brings health to all who inhale it. For the establishment of colonies, such as are made by the construction of irrigation ditches, and there is no investment which assures larger and more permanent returns.

The statements in this article on Yuma county are not exaggerated; in fact they fall short of doing justice to this wonderful bit of country. Pineapples, dates, almonds and walnuts will do well. Strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, currants, gooseberries and all varieties of small fruits can be successfully cultivated. Indeed, Yuma county is not only the natural home of the citrus and semi-tropical fruits, but almost every fruit, nut, plant, grain, grass, or vegetable which can be produced in any part of the temperate zone will thrive in the rich and fertile soils.

Every variety of grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables grown in semitropical climates can be produced in the valleys of Arizona. Wheat, corn, barley, oats and all the small grain give a yield of from twenty-five to fifty bushels per acre. Alfalfa, timothy, clover, Bermuda and all the cultivated grasses grow luxuriantly. The former giving from eight to ten tons to the acre each year. Every variety of banana, pineapples, guavas and mangoes can be grown in Arizona, and nowhere are they found of better quality.

Not only are the fruits already mentioned, the orange, lemon, lime, olive, fig, pomelo and others of the citrus family, can be grown successfully in the valleys of Southern Arizona. Orange trees are now in bearing in Salt River valley and at Yuma, and the banana is also being cultivated at the latter place. The Arizona orange is of high quality and flavor will compare favorably with the best California fruit.

The Admiral's Request.

Admiral John G. Walker, president of the Isthmian Canal Commission, wears long Dundreary whiskers, which give him a familiar nickname in the navy. One day a young ensign entered his office and in a cheerful tone addressed the colored messenger: "Hello, Bones, where's Old Whiskers?" Before the conversation could proceed any further the admiral stepped out from behind the screen, drying his hands upon the towel, and remarked quietly to the young officer: "Take a seat; I'll be with you in one moment."

As the floor did not open to swallow him up, the ensign sank into the nearest chair with a heavy and remorseful heart. He had come to ask a favor of the man who assigned all officers to duty, and had the power to send him to either a pleasant or a painful berth, as he pleased.

When the admiral reappeared and took his seat at the desk; the young officer, with shaking limbs and flushed face, began to explain that he did not intend to be impertinent. "For you must know, admiral," he stammered, "that the boys often call you 'Old Whiskers.' I hope you don't mind it."

"Oh, no," answered the admiral, "I don't mind it, but if it's just the same to you I'd rather you'd call me John."—New York Tribune.

Too Many Fat Cats.

James Wilson, the secretary of agriculture, has wit of a dry sort, which makes him one of the most popular cabinet members.

Shortly after he assumed the charge of his important department Mr. Wilson made some changes in his office. Senators and Congressmen came to protest but all to no avail, because the secretary felt that what he was doing was in the interest of the public service. Finally one of the employes whose transfer had been ordered called upon the secretary. He said: "Mr. Secretary, I am afraid that if you dispense with any more of our men it will impair the efficiency of this department. I considered it my duty to say this to you and to get your views on the matter."

"There was once a farmer in Iowa who had three fat cats. His barn was overrun with mice. One day he gave the three fat cats away and got one new cat—not so fat. He was never troubled with mice after that."—Philadelphia Press.

An Early Training.

The Book-keeper: That new messenger spends all his time reading such books as the "Boy Bandits." The Proprietor: I can see his finish.

The Book-keeper: Where? The Proprietor: On Wall street.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Wife: How many people gaze at my new dress? I presume they wonder if I have been shopping in Paris. Husband: More likely they wonder if I've been robbing a bank.—New Yorker.

Cause for Grief.

"What makes you cry so bitterly, little boy?" asked the kind gentleman. "De 'ree Sunday schools I jined is goin' ter have Chris'mus treats all on de same night," wailed the little boy. "Boo-hoo."

Charles Murphy, the Tammany leader, is a power in the democratic party, and Senator Gorman is doubtless much disappointed to hear that he favors Judge Parker as the democratic presidential nominee.

The Senator's Jim Crow policy did not receive the approval of the northern democrats.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

A Limit to All Things.

He had been away on a long journey, and upon his return his wife was detailing to him a number of reforms and improvements which she had successfully engineered during his absence.

"And you know," she said, "that closet that was locked for over a month, and which you said couldn't be opened except by a locksmith? Well"—triumphantly—"I opened it."

"Well, well, how in the world did you do it?"

"With a hairpin."

"And the furnace door," she continued, "has been slopping around on one hinge for ever so long just because you were too lazy to fix it, but it's all right now."

"Well, I'm glad you had it fixed."

"Had it fixed? I fixed it myself—with a hairpin."

"And there's that crayon portrait of mother that stood in the corner for almost six weeks because you never would bring me any picture books—"

"Well, I intended to but—"

"Oh, 'but!' Well, it don't make any difference now. I got it up with a hook I made myself—out of a hairpin."

"Ye gods!" he said.

"And there's Willie; you've been coaxing him and bribing him for a year, trying to break him of biting his nails, and I broke him in a week."

"With a hairpin?" he inquired weakly.

"No!" she snapped. "Don't be a goose! With a hair brush!"—Lippincott's.

Why They Parted.

He: Their engagement is broken off. She: For what reason?

"Why, he told her one night that when he was at his work her face was ever before him."

"Well?"

"Why, he's a cartoonist."—Yonkers Statesman.

Special Land Buyers' Excursion

Will run to the new lands of Greer County, Oklahoma, and other sections of the great Southwest in November and December, via the Frisco System.

Are you looking for rich and fertile farming lands in the Southwest which you can buy for from one-fourth to one-tenth the cost of lands of the East and North? They produce as much acre for acre. Here is a chance to better your condition and add a liberal amount to your pocket book.

For full particulars and special railroad rates apply at once to R. S. Lemon, Secretary Frisco System Immigration Bureau, St. Louis, Mo. 1-1-04.
