LOCAL NEWS.

Beef tea on tap, at C. E. Taylor's.

A. R. English arrived in Globe Wednesday from Tombstone.

A new foot bridge has been built across Pinal creek below the Globe smelter.

Dr. Pangburn, who has been storm-strayed in Globe for a week, left Thursday for San Francisco.

O. S. Atkinson, a representative of the Louisville Courier-Journal, left Thursday for Los Angeles.

The placer mining companies have been busy completing arrangements for working their claims during the freshet.

Frank Livermore has done assessment work for 1885, on the Longfellow, Byron, Tyndall and Darwin mines.

A post-office has been established at P. C. Robertson's on Salt river, and named Catalpa, but not yet ready for business.

Numerous improvements are being made in Globe, at present, which goes to show that some are experiencing a slight boom in prosperity.

A child of a Mexican woman, named Monica, fell into Pinal creek, but was happily rescued by Mr. Gleason in time to prevent drowning.

The late heavy rains have had a very damaging effect on the adobe buildings in Globe, several of them have nearly crumbled down.

Alexander Graydon who recently visited Tucson, has returned to Globe. He reports the country over which he passed as thoroughly soaked.

Several families of the elite of San Carlos are camped about the suburbs of Globe. They have been busy gathering hay and selling it in town.

Mr. Wiley and others have been treating themselves to the luxury of new sidewalks in front of their business places by filling up the mud with slag.

Fred Ochs was down from his Cleveland mine on Pinal mountain this week. He reports the mine showing well, but the rain washed down one side of his wickup.

Ben and Tom Pascoe's piscivorous arrangements at Whocalfields have received a black eye, in consequence of too much water, which refused to be restrained by their dam.

The unusual high water in Pinal creek has caused some damage near the Old Dominion smelters, by washing away newly constructed embankments for the protection of the wood yard.

The beer of Charles Banker is good, surprisingly so, and in making the statement we want it understood we are under oath and have no fear of incarceration upon the charge of perjury.

GRAND RAFFLE.—There will be a raffle for those two large dolls at C. E. Taylor's Toy Store; $1.50 a chance. There will be twenty-five chances; the highest throw takes the first choice, the lowest to take the one left.

No mail has been received from Camp Thomas since the 19th. Military telegraph line was washed out at the San Carlos river Tuesday night, and the high water prevented repairing it until yesterday.

The Engineering and Mining Journal of the 9th, reports copper quiet but firm at 1 1/2 @ 1 1/8, for Lake, Arizona 10 1/2 @ 1 1/8. The Old Dominion being a favorite brand commands 10 1/2 with a fair prospect of a slight advance.

S. Klein visited the Fame mine on Thursday and on his return brought a seventy-five pound chunk of ore, check fall of silver, which is estimated to be worth at least two dollars and a half per pound. It is on exhibition at Klein & Co's store.

Charley Banker has made an excavation in the large hill in the rear of his brewery for the purpose of storing his beer there during the summer. It is about twenty-five feet long and will be forty or fifty feet under ground, with an air shaft at the head of it.

The report which appeared in the Engineering and Mining Journal that Dr. A. Trippel was about to erect a smelting furnace in Globe, was without foundation, but he has bought and is refitting the Centennial ten stamp silver mill and expects to have it ready for work about the 1st of March. The mill is new and well appointed in every particular.

MINING NOTES.

Globe, Jan. 18, 1886.

Ed. SILVER BELL.—The Mayflower mining claim, owned by the Epley Brothers and J. L. Bacheider, is located on the northeast slope of the Quartzite mountain, a few hundred feet west and parallel to the silver Fame, has had considerable surface work done by running tunnels and open cuts. The ore found here is similar in character to that of the silver Fame, some of which is very rich; some in fact so nearly pure that it can be sawed into blocks with a common hand-saw.

The Hartford and London mines, formerly the silver Era and Etna, owned by eastern parties, are situated about eight hundred feet west and parallel to the Mayflower. The history of this property, as the Milner & Watson mines, is well known to the readers of the Belt. It has produced thousands of dollars and sent one or two men to Europe on tours of pleasure. The work so far done here consists of several irregular gashes in the crest of the hill, and the greatest depth reached does not exceed 75 feet. There is, to the best of my judgment, from 250 to 300 tons of ore on the dumps that will yield from 40 to 50 oz. of silver per ton. The ores are free-milling, and with a mill conveniently located they could be reduced at a handsome profit; besides this there is an abundance of such ore in sight in the mines.

The Home Ticket mine, owned by E. L. Winterbarger, P. F. Burke and J. R. Henry, is located on the southwest slope of the Quartzite, about one-fourth of a mile from the mines above described. This property has had a large amount of development done, consisting of one tunnel 120 feet in along the ledge, and a winze midway in the tunnel down to a depth of 50 feet, which exposes a vein of ore throughout the entire workings, from eighteen inches to three feet wide. There is already on the dumps about sixty or seventy tons, that will yield without assorting 100 oz. of silver per ton. This is a most promising little mine; the vein is well defined between good solid walls of porphyry, while the ore is a fine-milling chloride, and consequently can be easily and cheaply reduced.

The Arizona Central mine, owned by Dr. S. C. Heinemann, is situated six hundred feet east of the Ticket. It has had considerable surface work done, and has produced some exceedingly rich ore of a like character as that of the Ticket and Fame, and has several tons of ore of good grade on the dumps, and if properly developed it would doubtless yield the silver Fame.

W. A. HOLMES.

The rain for the past twenty days has been almost incessant and unrelentingly copious, as is attested by the washed condition of our roads and swollen streams. We are informed that the volume of water that issued from Miami flat was unusually large and when joined by the flow from Pinal creek, resulted in great damage to the road north of the junction. Salt and Gila rivers are unprecedentedly high. Farms adjacent to the former stream have suffered from the overflow. The latter stream in many localities has overflowed its banks and as it is of great length, taking its rise in New Mexico, near the Rio Grande, it will in all likelihood be impassable for freight teams, at San Carlos for, perhaps, a couple of weeks or more.

The White Mountain scout who, some two months ago, was shot by his brother, wounding him in the arm and leg, while six miles east of the Agency buildings, is said, by Indians, to be the man who killed Capt. Hentig, who is also a scout in the prison at Camp Apache. If it is true that the wounded Indian is guilty of the death of Capt. Hentig, he too should have been executed with Dandy Jim, Dead Shot and Skippy at Camp Grant, for the same offense.

The Belt is indebted to Charles A. Vogeler & Co. for an illustrated copy of the St. Jacobs Oil calendar. For fun and general information it "takes the cake," and should become a keepsake in every family and occupy a place upon the parlor center table for the entertainment of visitors. And while it pleases the eye it tells you of the efficacy of St. Jacobs oil and the Red Star Cough Cure.

It is in contemplation by the Old Dominion Company to run two furnaces for at least a limited time. The difficulty of freighting coke, in consequence of the unusually bad condition of the roads, might temporarily interfere with this desire of the company. There is a large tonnage of coke on this side of the Gila, which will be moved as speedily as possible.

Don't be afraid to look at this, as it is nothing about St. Jacobs oil; we only wish to call your attention to our selling out, in which we have literally sacrificed our gigantic stock of hats, dress goods, boots, shoes, flannels, clothing, furnishing goods, and novelties. Of these we have left a small assortment, and those wishing to purchase cheap can do so by calling on J. MEYER & SON.

TERRITORIAL TOPICS.

Condensed from Our Echoes for "Silver Belt" Readers.

The work on the bridge is progressing very fast, and that elegant structure will soon be completed.—Yuma Sentinel.

The Territorial Normal School, at Tempe, has been accepted from the contractor by the board of education. The cost of the building was $6,497.

Six Mexican cattle thieves were captured on the 13th instant in the act of stealing cattle from Messrs. Tevers, Land & Perrin, of the Babiquivi ranch.—Times.

Since the closing down of the great pump on the hill, the water has remained at almost a standstill, which goes to prove that country from which the supply is drawn is about drained of its troublesome fluid.—Tombstone Epitaph.

A Chinaman employed in the Longfellow mine at Clifton, picked a giant powder cap with a pin last week, causing an explosion. Result, only two fingers left on his left hand.

Patricio Montoya, a Mexican, while twirling his revolver on his finger last Sunday, near Clifton, shot himself in the stomach, and the next day joined the host who had gone before.

An unfortunate accident occurred to an Italian miner, who was at work on one of the properties of the T. M. & M. Co., yesterday. The unfortunate man was attending the windlass, and in letting the bucket down the shaft let go the windlass, the handle of which struck him on the head, killing him instantly. He was taken to his home, and buried yesterday afternoon.—Tombstone.

A legal conflict took place recently in Tonto Basin which illustrates the vagaries of justice as administered at times in rural precincts. An execution was issued by the regular justice of the peace of the precinct against a team of horses belonging to a Mormon citizen. It was duly served by the constable and possession taken of the team, and the property advertised for sale. Another man who had been elected to a similar position then issued a warrant for the arrest of the first named justice and constable for grand larceny. The latter waived examination and was bound over to appear before the grand jury, while the justice stood on his legal rights in the matter, and in a trial, lasting nearly two weeks, was released. In the meantime the property under execution was taken and restored to its owner. As the latter justice who never had his bonds approved, he had no authority to act in the matter, and will probably find before the grand jury that he has committed a great blunder, and one which is liable to prove expensive to him.—Journal-Miner.

Over fifteen hundred passengers were held over and taken care of by the Santa Fe road during the recent snow blockade.—Champion.

We regret to state that Mr. John Glasby, of the firm of Glasby & Hams, Sheriff, is confined to his home suffering from neuralgia of the stomach.—Clarion.

No Boon that Science Has Conferred

Has been fraught with greater blessings than that which has accrued to the inhabitants of malarial ridden portions of the United States and the Tropics from the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The experience of many years has but too clearly demonstrated the inefficiency of quinine and other drugs to effectually combat the progress of intermittent, congestive and bilious remittent fevers, while on the other hand, it has been no less clearly shown that the use of the Bitters, a medicine congenial to the frail constitution, and derived from purely botanic sources, affords a reliable safeguard against malarial disease, and arrest it when developed. For disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, for general debility and renal inactivity, it is also a most efficient remedy. Appetite and sleep are improved by it, it expels rheumatic humors from the blood, and enriches a circulation impoverished by mal-assimilation.

Vick's Floral Guide for 1886, the pioneer seed annual of America, comes to us this year a real gem, not a dry list of hard botanical names, but over thirty pages of reading matter, among which are articles on roses, house plants, cheap greenhouse, onion culture, mushrooms, manures, young gardeners, and very interesting reading, followed by about 150 pages containing illustrations, descriptions and prices of seemingly everything the heart could desire in the line of seeds, plants, bulbs, potatoes, &c. It is a mystery how this firm can afford to publish, and really give away, this beautiful work of nearly 200 pages of fine paper, with hundreds of illustrations and two fine colored plates, all enclosed in an elegant cover. Any one desiring goods in this line cannot do better than send 10 cents for the Floral Guide, to James Vick, Seedsmen, Rochester, N. Y. Deduct the 10 cents from first order sent for seeds.
