Look Out for Them.

During the last fifteen years twenty-five piano and music dealers have located in Phoenix, and only one of this large number is a resident of this city today, and that one is A. Redewill, the reliable music dealer of Phoenix. Phoenix and the Salt river valley have for years at intervals been deluged with a cheap, low grade of musical instruments and the people who have been defrauded into purchasing these spruce boxes have only their sorrow for their money.

Mr. Redewill is one of the heaviest taxpayers in Arizona; is a reliable, substantial citizen, and when a piano or organ, or any other musical instrument leaves his hands he follows it with a guarantee that is backed up by fifteen years of fair dealing and a property interest in the community that cannot be questioned.

It pays to deal with honorable men who have property interests and character to back up their business ventures. Pretenders are numerous, but no business has more quacks and pretenders engaged in it than the piano trade.—Phoenix Gazette.

Acker's Saved Her Life

"About two miles from Vassar, Mich., where I keep a drug store, lives Mrs. T. M. Bratt. She was very sick and hopeless with consumption. I watched her case with interest after she began taking Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, because I had heard so much about its wonderful cures. Well, sir, perhaps you will doubt it, but with my own eyes I saw this woman get well and strong on that remedy. In a very short time the cough stopped, her lungs were healed up, the sickness went away and she began taking on flesh. She herself said, 'Mr. Bullard, I owe my life to Acker's English Remedy. It is a certain cure.' In Mrs. Bratt's neighborhood her recovery has occasioned much comment, as you can easily understand. Her case was one where everybody thought it was only a question of a little while until she would die. I feel it a duty as a druggist to write this letter, so that there need be no more deaths from consumption." (Signed) E. A. BULLARD, Vassar, Mich.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England at 2s., 3s., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee.
