PROBABILITIES.—By the roundabout way of New York we learn that the opinion there seems to be that instead of Flood & O'Brien working against the Bank of California to cause its suspension, they were desirous to see it pulled through its embarrassments on account of the bad effect that bank's failure would have on the Pacific coast, and which would probably affect them.

INEXCUSABLE.—A late issue of the Brooklyn Eagle contains the following: The PIOCHE DAILY RECORD is published somewhere west of the Rocky Mountains, but its editor reads the Eagle. A recent issue of the Record reproduces a luminous account from the Eagle of a Sunday dinner at the Oceanus Club, to which Mr. Michael McCuskey went in a Chinese junk, where he figured as the champion feeder, and where he played Jerusalem poker so as not to break the Sabbath.

THE INFLATION CONVENTION which meets at Detroit next month will discuss the best way to provide means whereby every man shall be enabled to invest his means in the public securities now exclusively within reach of the capitalist and banker. To be consistent the above will require a supplementary discussion as to how every man shall be provided with means. The one would be about as sensible as the other.

SIX TONS OF PAPER will be required in San Francisco for the printing of the State and city tickets for Wednesday's election.

NEW TODAY. I have been exceedingly considerably for the last few days by a bean attempt at "blackmail," practiced by certain parties in this town, who, having resided in certain local quarters themselves, are endeavoring to raise a disturbance between myself and Joseph Anderson, so that they can make money out of it or else get us in such a position that we would be compelled to pay a fine to save ourselves from the degradation of working out our time.
