

LEADING BARGAINS IN OUR DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT

From day to day and from week to week we make greater and greater reductions in order to reduce our immense stock to enable us to move. This week we lead off with twenty-five pieces of Dotted Swisses, reduced from 20 cents to 12 1/2 cents per yard; twenty pieces of dotted Swisses, reduced from 30 cents to 20 cents per yard; fifty pieces Egyptian Figured Linen Lawns, reduced from 20 cents to 12 1/2 cents per yard; 100 dozen Turkish Bathing Towels, reduced to $1 per dozen. Ready-made Dresses have to go. Colored Embroidered Flouncings at half price. Remember we are still selling the balance of our immense stock at a reduction of 20 per cent. discount on all cash purchases.

LEWINE BROTHERS.

Domnau's Picture Gallery

If this gentleman should get hard up he would go to DEFF DOMNAU for assistance, as DOMNAU is the best place in Texas to get money or to spend it. Blue front, south side of square, sign of three gilt balls, Waco, and 611 Main street, Dallas.

DAILY EXAMINER. WACO, TEXAS, JUNE 7, 1887.

STREET NOTES.

Lehman's for your steam.
 West end drug store. Open all night.
 Best meal in Waco at the Silver Moon.
 Best cup of coffee at the Silver Moon.
 Go to the public school examinations tomorrow.
 Juicest porterhouse steaks in Waco at the Silver Moon.
 The Light Infantry are enjoying themselves at Paris.
 The Red Stocking base ball club meets at the court house to-night.
 The lowest yield of wheat yet reported is seven bushels per acre.
 Dr. Waggoner will deliver the annual address at Moore's hall Thursday night.
 Ladies who favor prohibition have a meeting this evening at Moore's hall at 7 o'clock.
 Old papers for sale at THE EXAMINER office at 25 cents per hundred or $2 per thousand.
 Railroad mass meeting at the court house on Friday night instead of Thursday night.
 Old papers for sale at THE EXAMINER office at 25 cents per hundred or $2 per thousand.
 Commencement exercises Thursday afternoon and night at the central high school.
 John Long sold the first load of watermelons on Saturday, getting 25 and 30 cents for them.
 Mr. J. T. Stauder, living ten miles out on the Hamilton road, reports an immense local rain there.
 The monthly meeting of directors of the Young Men's Christian association is held to-night, beginning at 8 o'clock.
 Alex Brule is now running the St. Charles restaurant which is a sufficient guarantee that everything will be served in style.
 There will be public examinations in all the city schools all day on Wednesday and in the forenoon on Thursday.
 Waco has got three railroads. She has lost two she might have had and is likely to lose two more—but then, who's afraid?
 Sunday was a hard day on white pants and straw hats, and it caught some of the slick boys while out horseback riding.
 W. H. Lednum has a full stock of all the latest styles in spring and summer millinery. Hats trimmed with taste and on short notice.
 Parties desiring the vegetable wagon to call regularly at their houses, will please leave orders at Charles Rast's. The driver will also take orders for groceries if desired.
 Chase & Cooke have on hand several good second-hand pianos which they are selling at very low prices.

Call and see them and get a bargain. The instruments have been a little used, but have been put in first-class condition and are going at a sacrifice. Now is the time to buy.
 Mr. Levi Robinson and sons, four miles beyond Robinson, have finished threshing wheat and made nineteen bushels to the acre.
 Folks aren't scared. Neither was the man in the time of Noah's flood who wouldn't go in the ark, but he got drowned all the same.
 Waller Baker is senator by a big majority. It is a pertinent fact that large numbers of colored folks voted for him and his old home went almost sold for him.
 Subscriptions to stock of the People's Building and Saving association received at the Citizens' National Bank. Call there and get a copy of by laws.
 Mary street, between Second and Third, was the scene of a fight between two Italians Sunday night. The cursing was in Italian, but the fight was in English.
 Parents and citizens should attend the public school examinations Wednesday and Thursday. It is due respect to the teachers and encouraging to the children.
 The Belton base ball club has accepted a challenge to play the Waco Red Stockings to play them at Waco on the 9th. The game will be at the Driving Park.
 San Antonio sent fourteen cars of soldiers to take part in the Paris drill. They passed through Waco early Sunday morning. They were government troops.
 Don't be deceived by worthless imitations but get the genuine "Blas" Chicken Cholera Cure. This remedy has saved the chicken raisers of Texas thousands of dollars, and is the only reliable remedy.
 At a meeting of the Waco Engine Co., Messrs. W. B. Sills, foreman and J. M. Perry, assistant captain of hose, tendered their resignation. Messrs. Kingsbury, Adams, Hutchinson and Akin were elected members of the company.
 The money market is tight with good demand, due largely to the amount which obliged the banks to carry cattlemen and to increased advances of merchants to country customers.
 On yesterday some men engaged in sinking a well in Cameron & Cox's new lumber yard, corner of Seventh and Mary streets, at the depth of eleven feet unearthed several bones, badly decayed, but which are declared to be those of a human being.
 A person can take a round trip from Waco to England via the Mallory and State Line steamers, first cabin, which means meals all the way from Galveston and back, for $165. That is cheaper traveling than a tour by land.
 Waco has a few men who have never failed yet to be at the front when the interest of the city is at stake, and now she has got another. John H. Finks. Prosperity times now. It has tried him and found him of the right stuff.
 The signal service bulletin for the month of May gives the rainfall for Southern and Eastern Texas at from .02 to .77 inches only, and from .03 to .08 in Western Texas, during the month of May. How does this fact compare with the theory of forests producing rainfall?
 A slight rain can keep people away from church. There were two services advertised at the Baptist church on Sunday, one being the meeting of the Waco relief association, but at one meeting only a few, and at the other only two persons were present and both were abandoned.
 The Iron Turbine Wind engines run with less wind and are more durable and gives better satisfaction than any mill in the market. Call and see model at Schroder & Harrison's, and be your own judge. Every one guaranteed. Buy the Iron Turbine Engine and the Buckeye Force pump, and you are sure to be pleased.
 The Alliance association of Waco Female College held a meeting yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the college to perfect arrangements for the annual reunion of the association which occurs on the evening of the 15th of the college. Only the association and its invited guests will be present.
 Don't drink a mixture of salts and soda, but go to W. A. Williamson & Co. and get genuine mineral waters made in Nature's laboratory and drawn fresh and sparkling from their elegant fountain.
 Public spirited men like Sam Sanger seem to infect all who come in contact with them. The young men and young ladies who are his employees, pledged $500 and over to a railroad fund on Saturday without hesitation. A town need not despair if it have enough men like Sanger and enough boys and girls like his employees.

 Our readers will remember the California Tea company which did a rattling business on Third street some time ago, selling very poor tea and giving away much worse jewelry. It drifted from town to town and is now heard from as being run out of Memphis by the police. But it has made its mark on the credulous part of humanity.

 Having bought the drug store of Dr. S. B. Hamlett, I take this opportunity of announcing that I will largely increase the stock and hope by prompt attention, fair dealing and first-class goods to merit and share of public patronage. From long experience in the retail drug business I feel warranted in assuring my customers that their interest will be carefully and satisfactorily guarded.
 Respectfully,
 J. K. MOORE.
 STRAW HATS.
 By the car load. We have straw hats in all shapes and styles. Straw hats for men, boys, ladies and misses. You would be astonished to see the quantity of straw hats we carry, and we don't want a one of them to go into our new building, so come and make your selection and don't be uneasy about paying too much, as our prices will make it plain sailing for you.
 LEWINE BROS.
 Everyone Their Own Painter.
 The public are respectfully invited to call at art room over Jackson's gallery, Fifth street, and examine specimens in ivory type painting. The art taught in one lesson for three dollars. Pictures painted if desired. C. E. Cushman.

 These who are inclined to biliousness will find Morrill's Cascarine an unfailing remedy for its eradication.

ANOTHER WEDDING.
 A Quiet Wedding on the Quiet Sabbath.
 At the Church of the Assumption, Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. Father A. Babelon officiating, Mr. V. A. McDonnell and Miss Lizzie Eagan were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. A number of friends were present at the ceremony. An informal reception was held at the home of Mr. J. E. Eagan, brother of the bride, on Washington street. The newly wedded pair stand high in esteem and possess all those traits and virtues which conspire to render married life blessed of God and man. THE EXAMINER offers its congratulations.
 B. A. Little & Co. carry a stock of the finest groceries in the market, keep them always fresh, treat customers pleasantly and deliver purchases promptly. David Nicholson's Liquid Bread, or extract of malt, for invalids, a specialty. Whittaker's hams, fresh dried beef, chopped to suit purchaser. Telephone your orders. Bart Moore's old stand, Third and Square.
 Satisfactory Evidence.
 J. W. Graham, wholesale druggist of Austin, Tex., writes: I have been handling Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs for the past year, and have found it one of the most valuable medicines I have ever had in my house for coughs, colds and even consumption. Please send me another gross.
 It is no longer necessary to take blue pills to rouse the liver to action. Carter's Little Liver Pills are much better. Don't forget this.
