

Bismarck Tribune.

VOL. 2.

BISMARCK, D. T., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1874.

NO. 9.

The Bismarck Tribune.

An Independent Newspaper published by THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE CO.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICES:
One year.....$2.00 | Three months..... .75
Six months..... 1.25 | Single copies..... 10

ADVERTISING RATES.
TRANSIENT.—1 square, 1 time, $1. Additional insertions, 50 cts. each. One-eighth column, 1 time, $2; additional insertions $1.25. One-fourth column, 1 time, $3; additional insertions $1.50. One-half column, 1 time, $4; additional insertions $2. One column, 1 time, $6; additional insertions $3.
CONTRACT RATES.—One square 1 year, $20. One-eighth column, 1 year, $40. One-fourth column, 1 year, $70. One-half column, 1 year, $120. One column, 1 year, $200.
LOCAL NOTICES.—Editorial, 25 cts. per line. Business notices in local column, 15 cts. per line. Business notices in special notice column, 10 cts. per line.
LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS, per square, (ten lines nonpareil, or 250 ems of type used, making one square, one insertion, $1.50; additional insertions 75 cents. The space occupied by displayed lines will be measured as set type of the size used in the body of the advertisement.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers finding an X following their names will understand that X term for which they have paid their subscriptions will expire with the next number, and unless the subscription is renewed the paper will be discontinued. This rule applies to all, and is adopted, not because we are afraid to trust our subscribers, but because it is found to be the plan most satisfactory to the general subscriber, and more convenient for us.
Postmasters are authorized to act as our agents, retaining a commission of 12 1/2 per cent.—or 25 cents for each yearly subscription.

NOTES AND NEWS.

Bishop Morris, of Cincinnati, is dead.
Henry Ackers, of St. Paul, is no more.
Five hundred more menonites for Dakota have arrived.
Post Master General Jewell took the oath of office Sept. 1st.
Mr. Etha is on a bender, and the people in the vicinity have fled.
Gen. Davidson has returned to Fort Sill with three hundred captives.
The Springfield Republican is out for E. B. Washburn for President.
Dr. A. E. Ames, of Minneapolis, is very ill and not expected to recover.
Ex-Gov. H. H. H. wants $50,000 from the New York World for libel.
Brevet Major General John G. Foster died at Nashville, N. H., on the 2d inst.
Capt. James Burns, of the 5th Cavalry, died in Washington a few days ago.
Three Paris newspapers have been fined for publishing a letter from Bismarck.
Burlington, Vt., has elected a Democratic representative for the first time since 1853.
Poland was defeated for Congress in Vermont. No election; another ballot must be had.
Goldsmith Mail has again beaten herself; 2:14 at Mystic Park, Boston, on the 2d inst.
The Carlises were badly defeated losing four hundred men near Sea de Urgal last week.
Col. W. S. King will be nominated for Congress in the Third Minnesota District to-morrow.
Bob Toombs supports Grant for a third term, regarding him as the savior of the South.
Charley Collins, of Sioux City, has got Black Hills on the brain worse than ever before.
The New Northwest, Montana, wants the whole Beecher matter referred to Brigham Young.
Six surveyors from Lawrence, Kansas, were murdered by the Indians near Fort Dodge last week.
A Moorhead man keeps stones and things on his counter so his customers won't throw glasses at each other.
Gen. Dewey has retired from the Yankton Press, which is now conducted by Messrs. Clevenger and Barber.
N. P. Clark, of St. Cloud, has shipped two thousand pounds of butter to Bismarck from his Stearns County farm.
Bilder Cain has retired from the Elk Point Gleaser, L. Q. Jeffrey assuming editorial management—Sioux City Times.
The Pioneer styles Sheridan's order a checkmate. Not so bad as that for the Gold Seekers can still move and the game is not up.
The Governor of Kansas has called an extra session of the Legislature to extend relief to grass-hopper sufferers. It meets Sept. 16.
Judge Franklin Waite, of Mankato, is the Democratic nominee for Congress in the First District of Minnesota, and he is a good man, too.
The New York World tells of a man who died of obesity at Riverhead a few days ago. He weighed 390, and was unable to breathe—suffocated.
He's now in the land where the black-tailed deer And the cases around him are flying; But coldly he turns from their gaze, and seeks For the gold at his feet that is lying.
He sings "John Brown" as he rides o'er the plains, Every note which he loved awaking; Ah! little they think who delight in his strains, What a big chew of tobacco he's taking!
A Nevada paper, speaking of a deceased citizen, says: "He was a good man, but he had his little frailties, like the rest of us. He sometimes bet on the wrong horse."
Hon. D. Morrison and J. L. Spink have leased the Minneapolis harvester works for a term of six years agreeing to manufacture fifty thousand dollars worth of machines annually.
Zack Chandler was present at the consultation between the Secretary of War and the Attorney General relating to troubles in the South. Of course Zack will go in for blood letting.
The St. Paul Pioneer says: "There is very little difference between the monte man and his victim. The one thinks he sees a chance to commit a robbery, tries it, and fails; the other knows he does and wins."
A Delacy Wood has commenced the publication of the Bank Rapids Courier, a very creditable paper. Geo. W. Hasket trots out the Austin Independent, and if he does not make it red hot, why George has forgotten his cunning. That is all.
The Headings Gazette talks to Donnelly as follows: "See us for libel or acknowledge that you are the greatest scoundrel unhung, a demagogue devoid of honor, integrity, or veracity." Donnelly won't sue and the Gazette is therefore not happy.
W. A. Burleigh has sold 2,500 acres, including improvements, of his large farm near Bon Homme, the purchaser being a society of German-Russian emigrants, and the price paid $25,000—$17,000 cash and the remainder in installments from one to five years.
The Fort Sanders Court Martial will try Col. Palmer. The charges against him are that he has out-timed on the transportation of soldiers, to whom titles (commending the labor of soldiers, to whom, in consideration of their labor, they have granted passes and furloughs) and granted a pass Government teams to the line of the Union Pacific Railroad, there being no other to his personal property.

TELEGRAMS.

From some unknown cause the TRIBUNE failed to get its usual budget of telegraphic news this week.

DEMOCRATIC INDICTMENT OF A DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE.

Burleigh's Nomination Made by Thirty-six, Repudiated by Thirty-three.

DENOUNCED AS A REPUBLICAN OF THE MOST PROFLIGATE AND CORRUPT CHARACTER.

His Name a Synonym of Corruption—His Election Would be a Burning and Lasting Shame.

The nomination of Dr. Burleigh in the so called Democratic Convention was made by fifteen delegates casting thirty-six votes, whereupon 12 delegates from Union County; 12 from Clay; 8 from Lincoln, and 1 from Yankton left the convention, organized a new convention put a new ticket in the field and adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The so called Democratic Convention has nominated Dr. W. A. Burleigh as Democratic candidate for Delegate in Congress, and,

WHEREAS, The said W. A. Burleigh is well known as a Republican of the most profligate and corrupt character, and,

WHEREAS, Certain delegates in said Territorial convention, in direct violation of the expressed wishes of their constituents, did most dishonorably impose upon the Democratic party of this Territory a man whose name is but a synonym for political fraud and corruption, therefore,

Resolved, That we as delegates representing Union, Clay, Lincoln, and a part of Yankton counties, and on behalf of the Democracy of the entire Territory, do most solemnly protest against the action of those delegates who were sent here to represent the wishes of their Democratic constituents, and who so flagrant abuse that trust in supporting and nominating W. A. Burleigh as democratic candidate for delegate in Congress—a man who is known only as a Republican in Dakota politics; and who has done more than any one man to corrupt the politics of this fair Territory; a man in whom we cannot possibly place any confidence whatever, and whose election to that office will be a burning and lasting shame to the Democracy of this Territory—and we do further declare that under no circumstances will we as Democrats compromise our honor, or disgrace our constituency by lending our support to the election of such a man to office.

Resolved, further, That in view of the fact that at this day it may be impossible to get the Democracy of the different counties of the Territory together in time to make nominations, that we deem it advisable to place a ticket in the field to be supported by the Democratic party at the ensuing election, subject, however, to their future action, should they deem it best to call another convention, and, in making selections we are only actuated by the purest of motives and with the sole view of maintaining the principles and honor of our party; and the selections we shall make will be such men only, as we can recommend to our constituents as pure and upright men—Democrats whom we can support with honor to ourselves and to the people of the whole Territory.

Custer and His Officers.

For kindness and urbanity, for diligence and ability, let every officer of the expedition be commended. To mention one name we must mention all, but let it be said, to the "immortal honor" of General Custer that he neither drinks intoxicating liquors nor uses tobacco in any form, nor ever utters a profane word. To be free from the minor and major vices, to be a perfect gentleman, to be a talented and chivalrous and successful officer, is to be worthy of all honor. Let the leader of the Black Hills expedition have this merited due.—Gen. St. Paul Pioneer.

Those who want a splendid Chromo Lithograph of Gen. Custer, and the Bismarck Tribune one year for two dollars should enclose the amount, and address the Tribune, Bismarck, D. T.

BURLEIGH.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

A High Old Time—Burleigh Repudiated on the spot.

AND THE COMMITTEE INVITED TO GO TO HELL.

Unallied Democracy Hold Another Convention and Nominate a Ticket.

We condense the following from the report of the Sioux City Journal of the proceedings of the Convention which nominated Burleigh. Comments elsewhere:

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.
J. W. Turner President; Dennis Hennefin, of Burleigh; J. B. Vanselsor, Yankton; J. Gebon, (Lincoln) and T. J. Sloan of Clay County, Vice President.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.
G. W. Kellogg, Union; E. M. Zeibach, Yankton; Miles Russell, Clay; H. Corson, Minnehaha; C. L. Campbell of Bon Homme County.

CONFERENCE.
Chas. Cooley, J. Kiplinger, J. S. Fisher, E. T. Griffith and Chas. Turner were appointed a committee of conference with a similar committee from the so called Anti-Monopolists.

AN OLD LINER.
An old line Democrat—one who had lain awake nights for the past 15 years to hate the Republican party wanted the poor privilege of saying a few words, although he was not a delegate. His interference was objected to by Kellogg, and the old liner sat down.

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.
The following Territorial Democratic committee was appointed: J. B. Van Velsor, of Yankton county, chairman; C. F. Lange, Turner; T. F. Singiser, Burleigh; H. S. Back, Cass; Jos. La Roche, Charles Mix; H. E. Bonesteel, Bon Homme; Joseph Platt, Davison; J. C. Raidon, Armstrong; J. McMillan, Lake; Wm. Thompson, Buffalo; F. M. Zeibach, Yankton; A. Boyington, Lincoln; H. Corson, Minnehaha; T. J. Sloan, Clay; J. Kiplinger, Union.

BURLEIGH OR NOBODY.
The conference reported, presenting a copy of the Anti-Monopolists resolutions, and stated that they demanded the nomination of Dr. Burleigh, conceding to the Democrats, the remainder of the ticket, but they declined to fuse with the Democrats, and unless they would concede this they didn't ask any odds of them.

ARMSTRONG.
Dr. Van Velsor read a dispatch from M. K. Armstrong, addressed to L. D. Parmer, of Yankton, stating that he would not be a candidate for Congress under and circumstances. The Convention proceeded to ballot for delegate to Congress.

INFORMAL BALLOT.
F. M. Zeibach, of Yankton, 16; C. T. Campbell, of Bon Homme, 14; J. W. Turner, of Turner, 22; E. W. Miller, of Union, 22.

AN OLD DEMOCRATIC RULE.
A resolution was adopted requiring a two-thirds vote to nominate a candidate.

"KICKED OUT OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY."
A second conference committee reported the demand of the Anti-Monopolists for the nomination of Burleigh. The whole matter was laid on the table. Mr. Kellogg expressed the hope that the Democracy of Dakota hadn't got so low as to pick up a man who four weeks ago was kicked out of the Republican party.

FORMAL BALLOT.
E. W. Miller, 28; J. Turner, 43; C. T. Campbell, 5; W. A. Burleigh, 4. No choice. They took a second formal ballot, with the following result: Miller, 40; Turner, 39.

Gen. Campbell announced that he was not a candidate.

A ten minute recess was taken, but the wrangling became so bad that the convention did not re-assemble until 8 p. m. when it assembled in another room.

ANOTHER BALLOT.
Upon gathering for the night session, the third formal ballot was taken, giving Miller, 34; Turner, 46.

The fourth ballot gave Miller, 29; Turner, 40; Burleigh 10.

LET WON'T SUPPORT BURLEIGH.
Mr. Miller withdrew his name and requested his friends to vote for Father Turner. He intimated that Turner had brought him (Miller) out, and was going back on him in being a candidate himself. However, if the convention nominated a Democrat he would support him heartily, but if Burleigh was nominated he would canvass the Territory to defeat him.

Considerable disturbance followed, Miller's friends charging Yankton county with selling out, and Turner and his friends with bad faith, &c.

"SELL US OUT WOULD THEY?"
Kiplinger wanted to know if this convention was being run in the interest of the Anti-Monops. From Father Turner's own lips he had learned that if he (Turner) could get the nomination in the Democratic convention, the Antis would pick him up, and endorse him. Cries of hear, hear; sell us out, would they; fraud, etc.

FIFTH BALLOT.
The fifth ballot was then taken, giving Miller 38; Turner, 41. No choice.

"SARKASM."
After a ten minutes recess Mr. Weston, of Union, announced that he was authorized to withdraw the name of E. W. Miller, unconditionally, and in a sarcastic tone said that he presumed Mr. Miller would not object to the delegates casting their votes for Father Turner, who had supported him (Miller) in such good faith and so heartily.

Mr. Zeibach explained the position of the Yankton delegation and withdrew the name of J. W. Turner.

FRAUD AND DECEIT.
Kellogg pitched into the Yankton delegation, accusing them of selling out somebody in order to get a Yankton man, charging, fraud, deceit, &c., &c.

NO HONESTY IN DAKOTA POLITICS.
Kellogg nominated T. J. Sloan for delegate, who declined, when Kellogg in a despondent tone of voice asserted that there appeared to be no honesty in Dakota politics anyhow.

"LET'S VOTE FOR KIDDER."
At this point a disgusted delegate cried out: "Let's vote for Kidder," and a sixth ballot being taken, the result was as follows:

T. J. Sloan, 17; J. W. Turner, 7; M. K. Armstrong, 4; W. A. Burleigh, 35; Abraham Boyington, 8; U. H. Aker, 4. No choice.

Mr. Sloan withdrew his name unconditionally.

ANOTHER SQUABBLE
occurred at this point and several attempts to adjourn the convention until next day were made.

THE CONVENTION A FARCE.
The Chair, occupied by Jerry Gehon, one of the Vice Presidents, said that he for one would owe no allegiance to the convention if it nominated Burleigh. If the Democracy couldn't find a man in its own ranks to nominate for the position, the convention had better adjourn sine die. The convention was a farce, and he believed that a trick had been put on it by a certain delegation (meaning Yankton.) Turner might have been nominated but for their secret opposition. Burleigh was a refugee from his own party, and he could never support him. He closed by appealing to his fellow delegates not to act the fool.

At this time the convention was in much confusion, and the Chair was unable to maintain order.

A motion for adjournment was again made and lost.

A motion to proceed to ballot for the seventh time was carried.

A HIGH OLD TIME.
Kellogg hoped that the Union county delegates would refrain from voting.

The irrepressible Walters said that the representatives of Union county withdrew, seeing that Yankton county was willing to take up a man BLACK AS THE BOTTOMLESS PIT OF HELL. There was jeering, laughing and talking all over the house, and the Chair could not maintain order.

THE CHAIR APPEALS TO A REPORTER.
Father Turner appealed to our reporter, "What is best to do?" The reporter told him to go in on his nerve, refuse to entertain any motion until order was restored," and he said he would do it.

A STORM RAISED.
Dr. Van Velsor, who was presumed to be the only member of the Yankton delegation hostile to Burleigh, moved for an adjournment until the next morning. Upon a vote being taken it was clearly lost, but the Chairman, with a wink at the reporter, said he thought the motion had prevailed, but the storm raised about his ears led him to reconsider his statement.

UNION COUNTY WITHDRAWS.
The seventh ballot was ordered and the tellers having deserted their post of duty, Father Turner had to do double duty. Clay county announced that fear of her delegation would not vote; Union county withdrew, and then at the last reconsidered and voted. This ballot gave Burleigh 35; Judge Kidder, 10; Ryan, 1; Union County, 4; J. Gehon, 8; M. K. Armstrong, 1; Bronson, 5; Morris Taylor, 1; Judge Akers, 1.

A motion to adjourn was again made and lost.

A TIME HONORED RULE RESCINDED.
The two-thirds rule was rescinded and again a motion to adjourn was lost.

BURLEIGH NOMINATED.
The eighth ballot was ordered, and resulted as follows: Burleigh, 36; Armstrong, 4; Watson, (colored) 1; J. Gehon, 8; Morris Taylor, 1.

Dr. Burleigh having received a majority of all votes cast, was declared by the Chairman to be the nominee for Delegate to Congress.

WOULDN'T ACCEPT ON THAT TICKET
Henry Maxwell was nominated by acclamation for Territorial Auditor.

For Treasurer, G. W. Kellogg was nominated, but he wouldn't accept a place on that ticket. He wanted to give everything to Yankton—they hadn't had anything for a year or two, and needed it.

J. P. Walters was nominated for Treasurer, but he wouldn't accept, especially at the hands of that convention.

Finally, Abraham Boyington of Lincoln County, was nominated for Treasurer, and by acclamation. "WOULD CONSIDER HIMSELF A DIRTY DOG."
T. J. Sloan of Clay was nominated for Superintendent of Public Instruction, but he declined, saying he would consider himself a dirty dog if he should accept a nomination on that ticket.

RED HOT.
Gen. Campbell made a red hot speech. Wash. Kellogg kept throwing in fire brands, and the Chairman told him Union county was RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL DISTURBANCES.

Henry S. Back, of Cass county, who was not there to decline, was nominated for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

WOULD NOT SUPPORT BURLEIGH.
Jerry Gehon, of Lincoln county, was nominated for Commissioner of Immigration. He positively declined, stating that he could not support Burleigh under any circumstances, but he would support the rest of the ticket.
Chas. Eisman, of Yankton, was nominated for Commissioner of Immigration.

CONVENTION INVITED TO GO TO HELL.
Messrs. Cooley, Campbell and Kellogg were appointed a committee to wait upon Burleigh.

Kellogg informed the convention that it might go to hell—he wouldn't serve upon the committee.

The Chair asked some one to make a motion to adjourn, but no delegate had the hardihood to propose it.
BURLEIGH
was brought in and was surprised, he said so, to receive the nomination, but accepted it in the name of the people. He yearned to get rid of the iron heel of despotism, placed on the necks of the people by a recreant President. He drew, he said he did, the Anti-Monopoly resolutions and they did not differ from the Democratic, which he also probably drew, at least they are windy enough for Burleigh, and was sorry blows had been received, and he would endeavor to apply the most healing salve known (which was understood to be greenbacks,) and pursue Judge Kidder to the bitter end.

At midnight the convention adjourned.

STRAIGHT DEMOCRACY.
About 1 o'clock the straight Democracy met and organized themselves into a simon-pure convention by electing T. J. Sloan Chairman and U. H. Weston Secretary.

The proceedings were entirely harmonious, and the following ticket was nominated, viz:

E. W. Miller, of Union County, was nominated for Congress; G. D. Loughton, of Clay County, for Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. W. Fowler, of Lincoln County, for Auditor; John McCabe, of Yankton, for Treasurer, C. F. Lange, of Turner County, for Commissioner of Immigration.

Speeches were made by Messrs. Miller, Gehon and others, and about 2:30 a. m. the convention adjourned.

THE ANTI-MONOPOLISTS.
The so called Anti-Monopolists Convention, composed wholly of a few Burleigh claquers, nominated the following ticket:

Delegate to Congress, W. A. Burleigh. Treasurer, Arslack Iverson. Auditor, O. F. Stevens. Commissioner of Immigration, Jacob Braugh.

Superintendent of Public Instruction, George Stickney.

Dr. Leonard Bacon, who so riled Theodore Tilton that the latter revived the scandal which has damned his name, at least, to eternal infamy, now writes another letter in defense of Beecher, in which he shows Beecher in not a very flattering light. Bacon, it seems, was familiar with all the points in the case three years ago.
President Grant directs the Secretary of War to make such disposition of troops in the South as will preserve law and order, consulting with the Attorney General who is fully informed as to the necessities in the case. The trouble at present is principally in Louisiana, Texas, Alabama and South Carolina.